PREFACE.

THE Second Volume of Wills and Administrations preserved in the Probate Registry at Worcester embraces the period 1601 to 1652, at which latter year there is the usual gap of about ten years, when all testamentary documents were proved in London.

As in the previous Volume, the Calendar has been compiled by reference to the bundles of documents themselves, each of which has been numbered and placed between sheets of paper as a protection against further decay.

Since the publication of the last Volume Mr. H. A. Franklin, the Registrar, has died, and Mr. George Francis Adams, having been appointed in his place, has taken great interest in the work, and facilitated matters whenever it has been in his power to do so.

The Indexes Nominum and Locorum have been compiled by Mr. R. H. E. Hill, to whom the thanks of the Society are due.

The work of making the Calendar from the original documents has been done by Miss E. Hobday.

ABSTRACTS
OF THE
Inquisitiones Post Mortem RELATING TO THE COUNTY OF GLOUCESTER,
Returned into the High Court of Chancery from the 30th Year of the Reign of King Edward the First.

Godfrey, Bishop of Worcester.

Inquisition of the lands and tenements which Godfrey, Bishop of Worcester, held in his demesne as of fee on the day that he died in the county of Gloucester, made before the escheator of the lord the King at Weston-under-edge on the 17th day of March, 30 Edw. I [1302], by the oath of William de Aston, Nicholas de Stafleye, John de Aston, John atte Grene, John Burne, John Calf, William de Hydecote, Thomas Ose, Nicholas de Camera, Hugh Stuard, William Brenning, and William de Weleye, who say that

Godfrey, Bishop of Worcester, held in his demesne as of fee on the day that he died in the said county the manor of Norton-under-edge of the King in chief by the service of half a knight's fee. The easements of the houses, with the garden and vivary, are worth per annum 5s. There is there 1 dovecote, which is worth per annum 12d. There are there 80 acres of arable land, which are worth per annum 26s. 8d., price of each acre 4d. Also 60 acres of arable land, which are worth per annum 15s., price of each acre 3d. Also 22 acres of meadow, which are worth per annum 22s., price of each acre 12d. Also 12 acres of pasture, which are worth per annum 3s., price of each acre 3d. Also 3 free tenants, who pay per annum 21s. 4d., viz., at the term of St. Mary in March 10s. 8d., and at the term of St. Michael 10s. 8d. There are there 11 tenants, each of whom holds 1 virgate of land in villeinage, and each of them ought to work from the feast of St. Michael up to the Nativity of St. John the Baptist in each week for 2 days with 1 man, and the work of each day is $\frac{1}{2}d.$, except the weeks of the Nativity of the Lord, Easter, and Pentecost. And from the said feast of St. John up to the gule of August, each of them ought to work in each week for 2 days with 1 man, and the work of each day is worth $1d.$ And from the gule of August up to the feast of St. Michael each of them ought to work in each week for 4 days with 1 man, and the work of each day is worth $1\frac{1}{2}d.$ And each of them owes in the autumn 3 bedripes with 1 man, price of each $1\frac{1}{2}d.$ There are there 2 tenants, each of whom holds half a virgate of land in villeinage, each of whom ought to work from the feast of St. Michael up to the feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist in each week for 1 day with 1 man, and the work of each day is worth $\frac{1}{2}d.$ And from the said feast of St. John up to the gule of August each of them ought to work in each week for 1 day with 1 man, and the work of each day is worth $1d.$, and from the gule of August up to the feast of St. Michael each of them ought to work in each week for 2 days with 1 man, and the work of each day is worth $1\frac{1}{2}d.$ And each of them owes in the autumn 1 bedrip and a half, price of each $1\frac{1}{2}d.$ And one holds 1 cottage with a curtilage, and pays by the year $18d.$, viz., at the term of St. Mary in March $9d.$, and at the term of St. Michael $9d.$ And there are there 5 tenants, each of whom holds 1 cottage and pays by the year $10d.$ at the said 2 terms by equal portions, and each of whom ought to carry the hay at the feast of St. John the Baptist with 1 man for 3 days, and the work of each day is worth $\frac{1}{2}d.$, and each of them ought to make the hay into cocks (cassar' fenu) with 1 man for 1 day at the said feast, and the work of each day is worth $\frac{1}{2}d.$ And each of them ought to weed with 1 man for 1 day, and the work of the day is worth $\frac{1}{2}d.$, and each of them owes in the autumn 3 bedripes with 1 man, price of each $1\frac{1}{2}d.$ All the customars owe by the year at the term of St. Martin of fine $5s.$, the pleas and perquisites of the court are worth by the year $12d.$

Sum of the whole of the manor aforesaid £10 9s. $8\frac{1}{2}d.$

MANOR OF WESTON.

The jurors also say that the said Godfrey, Bishop of Worcester, held in his demesne as of fee on the day that he died in the county aforesaid the manor of Weston-under-edge of the King in chief by the service of 1 knight's fee, except $6\frac{1}{2}$ virgates of land, of the which Nicholas de Camera holds of the King in chief $2\frac{1}{2}$ virgates of land of the demise of the said Godfrey, and Geoffrey son of Hugh holds 3 virgates of land of the King in chief of the demise of the said Godfrey, and Thomas Bissop holds 1 virgate of land of the King in chief of the demise of the said Godfrey, and pays to Elizabeth, who was the wife of Thomas de Camvile, for her dower as long as she shall live 40s. per annum, viz., at the term of the Annunciation of St. Mary 20s., and at the term of St. Michael 20s.

The capital messuage with the easements of the houses, garden, and vivary are worth per annum 6s. 8d. There is there 1 dove-cote, which is worth per annum 3s. 4d. There are there 80 acres of arable land which are worth per annum 26s. 8d., price of each acre 4d. Also 80 acres of arable land which are worth per annum 20s., price of each acre 4d. Also 20 acres of meadow which are worth per annum 20s., price of each acre 12d. Also 10 acres of pasture which are worth per annum 2s. 6d., price of each acre 3d. There is there one park with beasts which is worth per annum in herbage and underwood 13s. 4d. There are there 3 free tenants who hold 5 virgates of land, and each of them pays by the year at the term of St. Martin 1 farthing. And one holds 1 virgate of land freely, and pays by the year 1 lb. of cummin at the feast of St. Kenelm. There are there 2 free tenants who pay by the year 36s., viz., at the feast of the Purification of St. Mary 18s., and at the feast of St. Kenelm 18s. There are there 9 tenants, each of whom holds 1 virgate of land in villeinage, and each of whom ought to work from the feast of St. Michael up to the feast of the Annunciation of St. Mary in each week for 4 days, and the work of each day is worth $\frac{1}{2}$ d. And from the said feast of the Annunciation up to the feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist each of them ought to work in each week for 4 days with 1 man, and the work of each day is worth $\frac{3}{4}$ d. And from the said feast of St. John up to the gule of August each of them ought to work in each week for 4 days with 1 man, and the work of the day is worth 1d. And from the gule of August up to the feast of St. Michael each of them ought to work in each week for 4 days with 1 man, and the work of each day is worth $1\frac{1}{2}$ d. There are there 2 tenants, each of whom holds 1 cottage, and each of whom pays by the year 2s. 6d. at the said 2 terms by equal portions. There are there 10 tenants who hold 10 cottages, and pay by the year 17s. 6d. at the said terms by equal portions. The pleas and perquisites of the court are worth by the year 12d.

John Giffard, son of William Giffard, is the next heir of the said Godfrey, and is aged 32 years.

Sum total of the manor aforesaid, by the year £13 13s. 2¼d. and 1 lb. of cummin, whereof are charged (?) to Elizabeth, who was the wife of Thomas de Camvile, for her dower as above 40s. by the year, and so there remains clear £11 13s. 2¼d. and 1 lb. of cummin.

Walter de Monemuth.

Inquisition taken at Lechampton before the King's escheator on Friday next after the feast of All Saints, 30 Edw. I [1302], of the lands and tenements of the which Walter de Monemuth of Fremerton was seised in his demesne as of fee on the day that he died, and how much land the said Walter held of the King in chief and how much of others and by what service, &c., by the oath of Roger de Hamme, John de Alre, Thomas de la Forde, Walter Stormy, John Snel, Hugh le Fremon, Matthew Cock, Walter Bernard, Hugh le Chalon, Robert le Noreys, Thomas Gondriche, and Ralph Crompe, who say that

The said Walter held nothing of the King in chief in co. Gloucester in his demesne as of fee on the day that he died, but they say that the said Walter died seised of the fee of 1 carucate of land in Lechampton whereof Matilda le Straunge and John her son have free tenement for the term of their lives only of the gift of the said Walter. And they say that he held the said carucate of land of the Abbot of Fiscamp by the service of 40d. of rent per annum.

There is there 1 messuage with a garden, which is worth per annum 6d. And there are there 60 acres of land, which are worth per annum 10s., price of the acre 3d. There are there 2 acres of meadow, and they are worth per annum 2s., price of the acre 12d. There are there of rent 10s. per annum. John, son of Walter de Monemuthe, is his next heir, and was aged 13 years at the feast of St. Edward last past.

Sum of the value of the whole extent by the year 22s. 6d.

Chan. Inq. p.m., 30 Edw. I, No. 50.

Humphrey de Bohun, Earl of Hereford.

Extent of the lands and tenements which were of Humphrey de Bohun, sometime Earl of Hereford, according to the extent thereof made and returned into the Chancery.

The manor of Sutham with the appurtenances in co. Gloucester, which is extended by the year at £15 1s. 1d.

The manor of Whitenhurst, with appurtenances, in the same county, which is extended by the year at £18 18s. 7½d.

Sum total in co. Gloucester, £33 19s. 8½d.

Prior of St. Bartholomew, Gloucester.

Inquisition taken at Gloucester on Monday next after the feast of St. Matthew the Apostle and Evangelist, 30 Edw. I [1302], by writ of the King, if it be to the damage of the King or others if the King should grant to the Prior and brethren of the Hospital of St. Bartholomew, Gloucester, that they may build a water-mill in their soil on the bank of the Severne, and may hold the same when so built to them and their successors, or not, by Robert de Housum, Alexander de Bikenore, Peter Florye, Hugh le Clerk, Robert de Stanedish, John le Surreys, Peter le Hende, John de Coumbe, William de Berthone, Roger de Bertone, Hugh Pyum (?), and Alexander de Heynesham, who say that

It is not to the damage of the King or others if the King should grant to the said Prior and brethren that they may build a water-mill in their soil on the said bank, and may hold the same when so built to them and their successors for ever, nay, rather the said grant may be turned to the advantage of the King and the necessity of the people dwelling in that neighbourhood.

Chan. Inq. p.m., 30 Edw. I, No. 59.

John Querdeboef and Joan his Wife.

Inquisition taken at Mendlesham before the escheator of the lord the King on Monday next before the feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Mary, 30 Edw. I [1302], whether Joan, who was the wife of John Querdeboef, was pregnant on the day of the death of the said John her husband and brought forth a child or not, by the oath of Hugh le Keu, Walter Wyldebuf, Bartholomew le Longe, John del Wente, William de Colneshe, Robert le Parker, Robert le Erl, Hugh le Erl, Robert Derlet, Ralph de Aqua, William Hamond, and Warrin Hamond, who say that

The said Joan was pregnant on the day that the said John her husband died, and brought forth a dead (stillborn) child, and they do not know whether such child was a male or a female, because the said child was never seen by any man.

Chan. Inq. p.m., 30 Edw. I, No. 73.

Walter de Chiltenham.

Inquisition made at Salpertone on Friday next after the feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Mary, 30 Edw. I [1302], by William de Lathe, John atte Hasele, John de Fonte of Foxcote, William de Hodekenaysshe, Robert Clyve, William Crossun, Stephan de Marisco, Robert de Solers, John de Cestre, William Love-ryng, and Henry atte Welle, to inquire if it be to the damage of the King or others if the King should grant to Walter de Chiltenham, parson of the church of Salpertone, that he may give and assign 1 messuage and 1 carucate of land in Salpertone to the Abbot and Convent of Cirencester; to hold to them and their successors for ever, or not.

Who say that it is not to the damage of the King or others if the King should grant to Walter de Chiltenham, parson of the church of Salpertone, that he may give and assign 1 messuage and 1 carucate of land in Salpertone to the said Abbot and Convent of Cirencester; to hold to them and their successors for ever.

The said messuage and land are held of Thomas Comyn and his heirs by the service of 1 rose by the year. The said messuage is worth per annum 2s., and the carucate of land, which contains 80 acres of land, price of the acre 2*d.*, and 1 acre of meadow, price 8*d.*, and so the said messuage and carucate of land are worth per annum, clear, 16*s.*

The said Walter de Chillenham has, besides the said gift, lands and tenements to him and his heirs to the value of 100*s.* by the year in co. Gloucester, which suffice for the customs and services due to be made as well for the said messuage and land so given as for the other lands and tenements retained for himself.

And that the heirs of the said Walter may be put on assizes, juries, and other recognizances, as was wont to be done before the said gift.

The county by the said gift, by default of the heirs of the said Walter, shall not be charged with a greater payment.

Chan. Inq. p.m., 30 Edw. I, No. 126.

Robert de Bures and Alice his Wife.

Inquisition taken at Waldyngfeld Magna, 10 April, 30 Edw. I [1302], upon the manor of Badmondysfeld, in co. Suffolk, according to the mandate of the lord the King, if it be to the damage of the King or others, by Walter de Clopton, &c., and who say that

It is not to the damage of the King or others if the King should grant to Robert de Burys, Alice his wife, and James, brother of the said Robert, that they may hold the manor of Badmondysfeld in the vill of Wykhambrok, which is held of the King as of the honor of Mongomery, by the service of half a knight's fee, of the feoffment of John Engayne to the said Robert, Alice, and James, and the heirs of the said Robert and James for ever. The said Robert and James hold other tenements, and they held nothing formerly of the King, whereby now advantage may, perhaps, accrue to the King, as in wards and marriages.

John Engayne holds the manor of Worle in co. Gloucester, the manor of Bolewyk in co. Northampton, the manor of Hopmynystre in co. Essex of the King, by the service of 1 knight's fee and a half, and the 12th part of 1 knight's fee, and they are worth per annum 90*l.*

Chan. Inq. p.m., 30 Edw. I, No. 131.

Malculinus Musard.

Inquisition made before Thomas de Gardinis, Sheriff of Gloucester, at Seynebury, on Saturday next after the feast of St. Martin, 30 Edw. I [1302], by William de Aston, John de Aston, Richard Dastyn, John Burne, Geoffrey de Dumbulton, Walter Bemount, William de Camera, Peter de Gatewyk, William de Hudicote, John de la Grene of Mukulton, Thomas Ace, and Roger Bussel, who say that Malculinus Musard holds the manor of Seynebury of the King in chief by the 4th part of a knight's fee and not of any other.

There is there 1 messuage with a garden, and it is worth by the year half a mark. Also a certain dovecote, and it is worth by the year 40*d*. Also in the demesne 160 acres of arable land, and each acre is worth by the year 3*d*. Sum 53*s*. 4*d*. Also 15 acres of meadow to be mown (falcabil'), and each acre is worth by the year 2*s*. Sum 30*s*. Also a certain several pasture, and it is worth by the year 10*s*. Also 2 water-mills, and they are worth by the year 20*s*. Also of the rent of the free tenants by the year 30*s*. Also 12 virgates of land in villeinage, and each virgate of land pays by the year in all things 13*s*. 4*d*. Sum £8. Also the advowson of the church of Seynebury, and the church is worth by the year 100*s*. The pleas and perquisites are worth by the year 6*s*. 8*d*.

They say also that John de Somervyle holds the manor of Astone Somervyle in the said county with the advowson of the church of the said vill of the said Malculinus, as a member belonging to the manor of Seynebury, of the said Malculinus for 1 knight's fee, paying nothing by the year except scutage when it shall happen. And the said Manor of Aston Somervyle is worth per annum, clear, £30.

And they say that it is to the damage of the King of the value of the marriage of the heir of the said manor of Seynebury if the King grants that the said Malculinus may enfeof the Abbot and convent of Evesham and their successors of the said manor of Seynebury.

The said Malculinus has no lands or tenements besides the said manor of Seynebury.

Sum of the value of the said manor of Seynebury £16.

Philip Baderoun.

Inquisition taken at Newenham before the escheator of the King, on Wednesday next after the feast of St. Gregory, 31 Edw. I. [1303], of the lands and tenements which Philip Baderoun, of Aure, in co. Glouc., held of the King in chief on the day that he died as of fee, and how much land he held of the King in chief and how much of others, &c., and, by the oath of Richard le Blount of Aure, Roger de Blydeslouwe, Robert Leuward, Richard Crompe, Richard Baderoun, William de Longeford, William Menskes, John Eudas, Walter le Waleys, Hugh de Chykenetwell, Henry Waleys, and William Baderoun, who say that Philip Baderoun held of the King in chief in his demesne as of fee in the vill of Aure in the said county the tenements underwritten by homage and the service of paying to the King at his Exchequer 13s. 4d. per annum at Michaelmas.

There is there 1 messuage with a garden which is worth by the year 4s. There are there 48 acres of arable land, and they are worth by the year 16s., price of the acre 4d. Also 4 acres of meadow, and they are worth by the year 4s., price of the acre 12d.

Thomas Steymor held of the said Philip 1 cottage, paying to him by the year 6d. at the terms of St. Michael, St. Andrew, St. Mary in March, and St. John the Baptist.

John Baderoun, son of the said Philip, is his next heir, and is aged 23 years and more.

Sum of the total extent 24s. 6d., whereof there is due to the King per annum 13s. 4d., and so the sum is clear, 11s. 2d.

Gwydo de Bello Campo.

Inquisition made before Thomas de Gardinis, Sheriff of Gloucester, at Kystesgate, on Wednesday next after the feast of St. Edmund the King, 31 Edw. I [1303], by Richard Labanc, William de Aston, William de Cundicote, Nicholas de Staueleye, John de Aston, John æ la Grene, William de Cestre, Thomas de Beaumont, Adam le Fraunkeleyn, Geoffrey de Chaueringworth, Thomas Ace, and William le Fraunkeleyn of Quenton, who say that Lord Gwydo de Bello Campo, Earl of Warwick, holds the advowson of the church of Wykewane of the King in chief without doing any service for the same; and the said church is worth per annum 100s.

The jurors also say that it is not to the damage of the King if the said Lord Gwydo should give and assign the advowson of the said church to the Abbot and Convent of Bordesleye: to hold to their proper use to them and their successors of the King and his heirs, except only that if the said church should be vacant in the time of the custody by reason of the minority of age of the heir of the said Earl, then the King and his heirs may present to the said church.

Chan. Inq. p.m., 31 Edw. I, No. 44.

The Abbot of Fiscamp.

The King to the Sheriff of Gloucester, greeting. The Abbot of Fiscamp has shown to us that whereas the lord H. King of England, our father, by his charter gave to the Church of Holy Trinity of Fiscamp and the monks serving God there, the hundred of Salemannesbury with the royalty and all other things thereto belonging: to hold to them and their successors of our said father in exchange for our vills of Wynchelse and la Rye: our bailiffs of our hundred of Kistesgate, declaring that the vill of Netheresuelle (which is within the precinct of the said hundred of Salemannesbury as it is said), belongs to our said hundred, distrain the men of the said vill of Netheresuelle to do suit and other things at our said hundred which of right they ought not to do, separating the said vill of Netheresuelle wholly from the said hundred of Salemannesbury and annexing it to our said hundred unjustly, to the no small damage of the said Abbot and to the manifest disinherittance of the said Church. We, willing to be fully certified whether the said vill of Netheresuelle belongs and of old belonged to the said hundred of Salemannesbury or to our said hundred of Kistesgate or not, command you by the oath of good and lawful men of your country diligently to make inquiry as to the premises and to send us the inquisition so made.

Witness Ourselves at Westminster 6 April, 33 Edw. I [1305].

The Abbot of Fiscamp.

Inquisition taken at Gloucester before Thomas de Gardinis, Sheriff of Gloucester, on Tuesday next after the feast of St. James the Apostle, 33 Edw. I [1305], by the oath of Henry de

Chaveryngworth, Thomas de Newentone, Nicholas de Staveleye, William de Cundicote, John de Astone, William de Hudicote, Richard de Hudicote, Walter de Culne, Hugh le Despenser, Henry le Deyer, Richard atte Bachuse, and Henry de Cotes, to inquire whether the vill of Nethersuelle is appertaining and of old time appertained to the hundred of Salemannesbury or to the hundred of the lord the King of Kistesgate, who say that

The said vill of Nethersuelle is pertaining to the hundred of the Abbot of Fyscamp of Salemannesbury and for all time appertained thereto until Richard Earl of Cornwall purchased the said vill and took away the said vill from the said hundred of Salemannesbury.

The Prior of St. Oswald of Gloucester.

Inquisition taken at Gloucester before the bailiffs of the said town by command of the King on Thursday next after the feast of St. Faith the Virgin, 33 Edw. I [1305], by John de Southerne, Walter de Bernwode, Robert de Staunedish, William le Bowyare, William de Southham, Roger de la Berton, John Deverel, Richard de Gardino, William le Wheolare, Ralph Aurifaber, John de Naillesworth, and John son of Robert le Deyere, if it be to the damage of the King, or others, if the King should grant to the Prior and canons of St. Oswald of Gloucester that they may retain 1 toft and a certain plot of waste land, containing 60 feet of land in length and 40 feet of land in breadth in the suburb of Gloucester, which they acquired of William le Hopere, and 1 plot of waste land containing 80 feet of land in length and 60 feet of land in breadth in the same suburb, which they acquired of the Prior and brethren of the Order of the Blessed Mary of Mount Carmel, and 3s. 8d. of rent in Gloucester, which they acquired to themselves of Robert Sely after the publication of the statute of the lord the King concerning lands and tenements not to be put to mortmain without the King's licence: to hold to them and their successors for ever, or not, who say that

It is not to the damage of the King or others if the King should grant to the said Prior and Canons the said acquisitions.

The said toft and plots of land acquired of the said William le Hopere are held of the Archbishop of York, paying therefor to the said Archbishop by the year 1½*d.*, and doing suit at the court of the said Archbishop, as the said William was wont to do. The plot of waste land acquired of the Prior and brethren of the Order of the Blessed Mary of Mount Carmel is held of the Abbot of Teukesbury, paying to the said Abbot 9*d.* by the year and no other service. For the said 3*s.* 8*d.* rent there is no service due, and it is held of the said Prior. The said toft and plots are worth per annum, clear, 6*d.* There are no other mesnes between the King and the said William, the Prior and brethren and Robert, except the said Archbishop and Abbot.

The lands and tenements of the said William and Robert suffice for the customs and services to be made, as well for the said toft land and rent so acquired, as for other tenements retained to themselves, and for all other charges which the said William and Robert sustained, or were wont to sustain, as in suits, views of frankpledge, aids, tallages, &c. The said William and Robert may be put on assizes, juries, and other recognizances, as they were wont to be put before the said acquisitions. The country by reason of the said acquisitions, by the default of the said William and Robert, shall not be charged with a larger payment.

Thomas de Luda.

Inquisition taken before John de Monte Acuto, Sheriff of Somerset, at Somerton, 16 July, 33 Edw. I [1305], by the oath Oliver Michel and others, to inquire if it be to the damage of the King, or others, if the King should grant to Thomas de Luda and Alianora his wife, that they may give and assign 1 messuage, 1 carucate of land, and 4 marks of rent in Holeyvale, which are held of the King in chief as it is said, to the Abbot and convent of Abbodesbury, or not.

There remains to the said Thomas and Alianora a certain tenement at Bradeley, in co. Gloucester, and it is held of Thomas de Berkeley by the service of 18*d.* at the feast of St. Michael and suit at the hundred of Berkeley every 3 weeks, and it is worth per annum, clear, 5 marks.

William de Ballecote.

Inquisition taken at Cherletone before the King's escheator, 26 June, 33 Edw. I [1305], if it be to the damage of the King or others if the King should grant to William de Ballecote that he may have again and hold for his whole life all the lands and tenements in Cherlington, Chiretone, Hamptonet, and Tettebury, which Matilda de Mortuo Mari, deceased, who held of the King in chief, gave to Geoffrey de Ballecote, brother of the said William, to hold to the said Geoffrey and the heirs of his body, and which the said Geoffrey granted to the said William for his whole life: which said grant the said Matilda by her charter afterwards confirmed; and which lands and tenements, because they were alienated without the licence of the King, are taken into the King's hands, or not, &c., by the oath of Richard de Naylesworth, Richard Elynaunt, Alan de Horrewode, Richard de Wockeseye, Robert de Molendino, William de Aldrinton, John de la Hulle, Thomas de Collesbourne, Adam Nel, John de Westthrop, John Everard, and Thomas atte Horestone, who say that

It is not to the damage of the King or others if the King should grant to William de Ballecote that he may have again and hold for his whole life according to the form of the said grant and confirmation all the lands and tenements in Cherlinton, Chireton, Hamptone, and Tettebury, which Matilda de Mortuo Mari, deceased, held of the King in chief.

The said lands and tenements are held of the King in chief as members of the barton of Raddenor, but by what service the jurors do not know.

There are at Cherlington and Tettebury 6 virgates of land in villeinage which are worth by the year in all services 48s., to be taken at the feast of St. Thomas the Apostle, the Annunciation of the Blessed Mary, the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, and at the feast of St. Michael. There is 1 messuage and 6 acres of land in Chireton which pay by the year in all services 2s., to be taken at the said 4 terms. There is 1 messuage and 1 virgate of land in villeinage at Hamptone, which is worth by the year in all services 7s. at two terms of the year, viz., the feasts of St. Michael and the Annunciation of the Blessed Mary.

John de Thorndon.

The King to Walter de Gloucester, escheator on this side the Trent, greeting. Although we have understood by a certain inquisition made by you and returned into our Chancery that it is not to the damage of ourself or others if we should grant to John de Thorndon that he may have again and hold to him and his heirs of us and our heirs for ever 14 librates of rent in Upton, Dughton, and Tettebury, which he acquired to himself in fee without our licence of William de Bello Campo, formerly Earl of Warwick, deceased, who held the said rent of us in chief, and which by reason of that trespass are taken by you into our hand as it is said: nevertheless because Peter de Breous' afterwards in our presence asserted that that rent was not held of us immediately, but of the said Peter as mesne between us and the said Earl of the said rent: we, willing to be fully certified of this matter, command you by the oath of good and lawful men of your bailiwick to inquire diligently into the truth thereof, &c.

Witness ourself at Fyndon, 19 June, 33 Edw. I [1305].

John de Thorndon.

Inquisition made at Ywelegh, 22 August, 33 Edw. I [1305], upon the articles in the writ hereto annexed, by the oath of Thomas de Beleye, Henry de Camme, Robert le Warenner, Walter Motoun, John de Chalkford, Walter de Estcourt, Reginald de Northcote, Richard Elenaunf, Walter Richer, Richard de Bosco, William de Hodekenhasshe, John son of Hugh, Thomas Don, Nicholas de Meisy, and John Maheel, who say that

The 14 librates of rent in Upton, Dughton, and Tettebury in co. Gloucester which John de Thorndon acquired to himself of William de Bello Campo, formerly Earl of Warwick, deceased, are not held of the King immediately, but of Peter de Breous' as mesne between the said King and the said tenant of the said rent, because they say that a certain William de Breous', deceased, who at one time held the manor of Tettebury, together with the said rent, and other lands and tenements belonging to the said manor of the King in chief by the service of 1 knight's fee, gave the said 14 librates of rent 160 years ago and more to William de Bello Campo, great grandfather of the said Earl and to Berta, daughter of the said William de Brewos' in free marriage, to be held of the same William de Brewos' and his heirs according to the form of the enfeoffment made thereof to the said William and Berta.

Afterwards a certain William de Breous', kinsman and heir of the said William de Breous', enfeoffed the said Peter de Breous' of the manor of Tettebury with the service of the said Earl of the said rent and all other things to the said manor belonging: to hold of the King and his heirs by the service of 1 knight's fee as is afore-said, by the which they say as before that the said rent is not held of the King immediately, but of the said Peter as mesne between the King and the tenant.

Agnes, wife of John de Pershore.

Inquisition taken at Gloucester before Sir Thomas de Gardinis, then Sheriff of Gloucester, and the bailiffs of the said borough, on Saturday next after the feast of St. Giles, 33 Edw. I [1305], by John de Coumbe, William de Esthulle, Bartholomew Pistor, Alexander de Penedok, Andrew de Penedok, John de Froucester, Robert de Lassindone, Matthew le Parmenter, Richard de Gardino, John de Northwich, Reginald Seliburn, and John de Dimmok, if it be to the damage of the King or others if the King should grant to Agnes, who was the wife of John de Pershore, of Gloucester, that she may give and assign to the Abbess of Godestowe and the nuns there 1 messuage and 3 shops in Gloucester, or not, who say that

It is not to the damage of the King or others.

The said messuage and shops are held of the said Abbess by the service of 5s., and are worth so much by the year clear.

The said Agnes has no other lands or tenements except the said messuage and shops, but the tenants hiring the said messuage and shops may suffice to do all the customs, service, and other charges which the same messuage and shops sustained, and were wont to sustain, as in suits, views of frankpledge, aids, &c.; the country by the said gift, in default of the heirs of the said Agnes, shall not be charged with a larger payment.

Edward de Penbrugg.

Inquisition taken at Meone before the King's escheator, 7 March, 34 Edw. I [1306], concerning the lands and tenements of the which Edward de Pennebrugg was seised in his demesne as of fee on the day that he died, &c., by the oath of William de Aston, John de Aston, Nicholas de Staveleie, John de Burne, John de la Grene, Gilbert de Ilmyndon, Henry Felyn of Quenton, William de Burne, Rond (Rondi) Wylekyn, Walter Watteville, Henry Lefsy, and John de Dersinton, who say that Edward de Pennebrugg held at Meone of the gift and feoffment of John de Pennebrugg made to the said Edward and the heirs of his body, 10 marks of yearly rent of the King in chief by the service of the fourth part of 1 knight's fee, to be taken of 8 tenants at Michaelmas, St. Andrew, the Annunciation of the Blessed Mary, and the Nativity of St. John the Baptist: which said tenants held of the said Edward 6½ virgates of land in the said vill by the said rent.

The said Edward died without heir of his body, whereby the said rent ought to revert to the said John de Pennebrugg.

The said John is the brother and next heir of the said Edward, and is aged 40 years and more.

Sum of the value of the whole extent by the year £6 13s. 4d.

Chan. Inq. p.m., 34 Edw. I, No. 7.

William Bleyht.

Inquisition taken at Gloucester before the King's escheator, 17 October, 34 Edw. I [1306], of the lands and tenements of the which William Bleith was seised in his demesne as of fee in the said county on the day that he died, &c., by the oath of Nicholas atte Hulle, Robert de Aqua, Ralph de Roddeleye, John Sully, John Heved, Ralph de Rodleye, junior, Walter Heved,

Henry Waterbroke, Richard de la Felde, Walter Marchal, William Lenlyn, and William de Staure, who say that

The said William held of the King in chief in his demesne as of fee certain tenements in the vill of Neuwenham, by the serjeanty of being one of the King's foresters in the forest of Dene, and paying to the King at his castle of St. Briavell by the year at the feast of St. Michael 5s.

There is there 1 capital messuage which is worth by the year 6s. There are there 60 acres of land which are worth by the year 10s., price of the acre 2d. There are there 10 cottars who hold 10 cottages and pay by the year 14s. 1d. at the feast of St. Michael and the Annunciation of the Blessed Mary. The custody of the said balliwick is worth nothing per annum.

Sum 30s. 1d.

The same William held of the King in chief in the forest of Dene of the assarts of the King 180 acres, by the service of paying to the King by the year 44s. 9½d. And they are worth nothing besides the said rent.

The said William and Joan his wife held jointly to them and the heirs of their bodies of Ralph de Rodley 12 acres of land and 5 acres of meadow, by the service of 3d. by the year; the said 12 acres of land are worth per annum 2s., price of the acre 2d.; and the said 5 acres of meadow are worth by the year 10s., price of the acre 2s.; which said land and meadow they had of the gift of the said Ralph de Rodley, and they held the same up to the death of the said William.

Sum 12s.

John son of William Bleith is his next heir, and was aged 16 years at the feast of the Nativity of the Lord last past.

Sum total 42s. 1d., whereof there ought be paid back by the year 5s. 3d., and so there remains clear 36s. 10d.

Henry Pridy.

Inquisition made at Ruardyn on Saturday next after the feast of St. Matthew the Apostle, 34 Edw. I [1306], before John de Aylbertone, bailiff of the liberty of St. Briavel under Sir John Boutortte, by the oath of William Smart, Richard de la Berwe, Thomas de Leye, Waller le Hayward, Thomas Avel, William Phelip, John Marky, William Marky, senior, Hugh le Frere, John de Leye, William le Berch, and Richard Heed, who say that

One messuage which Henry Pridy, junior, who was outlawed for felony, had in the vill of Ruardyne, has been in the hand of the King for 1 year and 1 day and more, and that he held the said messuage of Nicholas le Paumer in chief, and now the township of Ruardyn holds that messuage, and ought to answer to the King for 2s. 6d. for the year and waste.

Chan. Inq. p.m., 34 Edw. I, No. 75.

John de Feckenham.

Inquisition made at Worcester before the King's escheator, 23 February, 34 Edw. I [1306], to inquire if it be to the damage of the King or others if the King should grant to John de Feck'am, Chaplain, that he may have again and retain to himself and his heirs 1 messuage and the 4th part of 1 virgate of land in Northwyke, which he acquired to himself and his heirs of Godfrey Giffard, now deceased, who held the same of the King in chief, and which, by reason of the trespass which he made by entering the same without the license of the King, are taken into the hand of the King, &c.

The jurors say that there remain to the heirs of the said Godfrey 2 manors in co. Gloucester, viz., Weston and Norton, and that the said manors are held of the King in chief, to wit, Weston by the service of half a knight's fee, and Norton by the service of half a knight's fee: Weston is worth per annum, clear, £20, and Norton £20.

William Russel. Inq. a. q. d.

Inquisition made at Kingeston Russel before the King's escheator, 16 August, 34 Edw. I [1306], whether it be to the damage of the King or others if the King should grant to William Russel that he may give and grant his manor of Kyngeston in co. Dorset, which is held of the King in chief as it is said, to Nicholas Mortesthorn and to Nicholaa his wife for their lives.

There remain to the said William, besides the said grant, the manor of Derham in co. Gloucester, which is held of the King in chief by barony, and is worth per annum, clear, £30.

Chan. Inq. p.m., 34 Edw. I, No. 130.

John Cole.

Inquisition taken at Wynchecombe before Thomas de Gardinis, Sheriff of Gloucester, on Wednesday in the morrow of St. Thomas the Apostle, 34 Edw. I [1305], by the oath of Hugh de Cockebury, Adam Sparewe, Thomas de Newenton, Robert de Aldrinton, John Bracebrugge, Thomas Botevil, James de Hallyngge, Henry le Deyer, Hugh le Espencer, Peter de Prestone, William le White, and William de la Hulle, to inquire if it be to the damage of the King or others if the King should grant to John Cole, of Teukesbury, that he may give and assign 1 virgate of land in Twenyngges, next Tewkesbury, to the Abbot and convent of Wynchecombe; and to Henry de Cotes, next Wynchecombe, that he may give and assign 1 mesuage and 1 virgate of land in Cotes, next Wynchecumbe, to the said Abbot and convent, or not, who say that should grant to the said John and Henry that they may give and assign the said messuage and land to the said Abbot and convent; to hold to them and their successors for ever.

It is not to the damage of the King or others if the King

The said messuage and land are held of the said Abbot of Wynchecombe, to wit, the said virgate of land of John Cole, by the service of paying to the said Abbot by the year 6s. 8d., and doing suit at the court of the said Abbot every 3 weeks; and the said messuage and land of Henry de Cotes by the service of paying to the said Abbot by the year 21s. 7½d., and doing suit at the court of the said Abbot every 3 weeks. The said messuage and lands are worth per annum, clear, besides the said service, 6s. 8d. The said Abbot is the mesne between the King and the said John and Henry, and no other.

There remains to the said John and Henry 2 carucates of land besides the said gift, which are worth per annum, clear, 10l., and which suffice for the customs and services duly to be made, as well for the said messuage and lands so given as for other lands and tenements retained to themselves, and for all other charges which they sustained, and were wont to sustain, as in suits, views of frankpledge, aids, tallages, vigils, fines, &c. The said John and Henry may be put on assizes, juries, and recognizances, as they were wont to be put before the said gift. The country by the said gift, in default of the said John and Henry, shall not be charged with a larger payment.

John, Bishop of Landaff.

Edward, &c., to Hugh le Despenser, justice of his forest on this side the Trent, greeting.

Whereas lately for the emendation of the Bishopric of Landaff, which is known to be too poor, also, in aid (subvention) of the sustentation of a certain chaplain celebrating, and for ever to celebrate, divine service every day for our soul and the souls of our ancestors, in the church of All Souls of la Neulond within our forest of Dene, which John Bishop of Landaff holds appropriated to him and his successors—we have granted to the said Bishop, by our Letters Patent, that he and his successors may take and have for his Church of la Neulond all the tithes forthcoming of the assarts within the said forest newly assarted and to be assarted, which we will shall belong to the said Church for ever, so that those assarts be outside the limits of any parish; and now on behalf of the said Bishop it is shown to us that Master William de Kyngestone, parson of the church of Westbury on Severn, Ralph de Abhale, parson of the Church of English Bykenore, John, parson of the Church of Staunton, Henry, parson of the Church of Magna Dene, Adam, parson of the church of Aure, and other parsons of other churches of adjacent parts, declaring the said assarts to be within the limits of the parishes of their said churches, do often disturb and trouble the said Bishop in the taking of the tithes forthcoming from the said assarts, and strive to usurp the said tithes to themselves and their said churches, to the weakening and annulling of our said grant, and to the manifest prejudice and damage of the said Bishop: We, not willing that our said grant should be impeded or annulled by frivolous and unjust claims, especially as we and our progenitors, Kings of England, have been wont to freely confer the tithes forthcoming from such assarts within our forests in times past: command you to call before you the foresters and other ministers of our said forest, also other good and lawful men of your bailiwick, by whom the truth of the matter may be the better known, &c., and in the presence of the said William and others diligently to inquire whether those assarts or any of them are within the limits of the parishes of the said churches, or of others of those parts, &c., and whether the said William and others or their predecessors, or any other parsons of the churches of the parts adjoining, were hitherto wont to take any tithes forthcoming from the soil in which the said assarts now are, before those assarts were made, although of the land being within the limits of the parishes of the said churches, or not; and if so, what tithes, and from what time and in what manner, &c.

Witness Ourselves at Westminster, 28 May, 34 Edw. I [1306].

Inquisition taken at Gloucester on Friday the 8th day of July, 34 Edw. I [1306], before Robert de Hareweden, locum tenens of Sir Hugh le Despenser, by the oath of William Bleyth, William Hathewy, Robert de Aure, Robert Beter, Nicholas le Long, John Waryn, William Byllyng, forestars, Elias de Aylberton, Alexander de Bykenour, Walter de Nasse, verderers and other ministers, Warin son of William, Henry de Camnee, Robert de Coveleye, Simon de Solers, Walter de Kedyford, Nicholas de Sterdene, Peter de Commede, William Holt of Dene, William de Heydene, Roger de Ravenhulle, and other good and lawful men being within the metes of the forest of Dene, who say that

The King at his pleasure may confer all tithes, great and small, or thcoming from all assarts in his demesne soil newly assarted and hereafter to be assarted, by Sir Walter de Gloucester and Sir William de Hardene assigned as wastes and assarts of the said King in his forests to be taxed and rented to whomsoever he may please, and that none of the said assarts are within the limits of any of the Churches of those adjacent parts, and that no parson of the Churches of the adjacent parts or their predecessors have hitherto taken or were wont to take any tithes forthcoming from the said demesne soil in which the said assarts now are, before those assarts were made, although of their land within the limits of the parishes of those parts.

Alexander de Bykenore.

Inquisition taken at Ruwardyn before the King's escheator, 8 June, 34 Edw. I [1306], if it be to the damage of the King or others if the King should grant to Alexander de Bykenore that he may have again and hold to him and his heirs for ever 1 messuage, 1 carucate of land, 3 acres of meadow, 6 marks of rent, and 2 parts of 1 water mill in Ruwardyn and Luddebroke which are held of the King in chief, and which he acquired to himself and his heirs, without the licence of the King, of Robert Urry in fee, and which by reason of the said trespass are taken into the hand of the King, or not, by the oath of Richard Malemort, Walter de Keddeford, William Ely, William de Loddebok, Robert Avenel, Thomas Tilly, Ralph Ordric, Walter Holt, Walter Ordric, Richard de la Berwe, Nicholas le Palmar, and William le Cartare, who say that

It is not to the damage of the King or others if the King should grant to Alexander de Bykenor that he may have again and hold to him and his heirs of the King and his heirs for ever 1 messuage, 1 carucate of land, 3 acres of meadow, 6 marks of rent, and 2 parts of 1 water mill in Ruwardyn and Luddebok, which are held of the King in chief, and which he acquired to him and his heirs without the licence of the King of Robert Urry in fee, and which by reason of that trespass are taken into the hand of the King.

The said premises are held of the King in chief by the service of keeping a certain part of the forest of Dene which is called the Bailliwick of Ruardyn, and paying to the King by the year 20s., at the feast of St. Michael at the King's castle of St. Brevello.

The capital messuage is worth by the year 12*d*. The said carucate of land contains 60 acres, which are worth by the year 15*s*., price of the acre 3*d*. The 3 acres of meadow are worth by the year 3*s*., price of the acre 12*d*. There are there 30 free tenants who pay by the year at 4 terms 6 marks of rent, viz., at the feasts of St. Michael, St. Andrew, the Annunciation of the Blessed Mary, and the Nativity of the Blessed Mary. The said 2 parts of the mill are worth per annum 13*s*. 4*d*.

Sum of the whole extent by the year 112*s*. 4*d*., whereof in repayment to the King by the year 20*s*., and so the sum is clear £4 12*s*. 4*d*.

Almaric' le Despenser.

Inquisition taken at Stanley Regis before the King's escheator, 17(?) day of January, 34 Edw. I [1306], if it be to the damage of the King or others if the King should grant to Almaric' le Despenser that he may give and assign 2 virgates and 8 acres of land, 1 acre of meadow, and 2 acres of wood in Stanley, which are held of the King in chief, to John Nottlyn and Joan his wife and their heirs, &c., by the oath of William de Clifford, William de Peddesmore, William Basset, William le Bissare, Walter le Essc....., William Beyrile, Robert de Sudleye, Elias de Benmare, Thomas le Bissare, Simon le Essc....., John le Despens', and Adam atte Mulle, who say that

It is not to the damage of the King or others if the King should grant to Almaric' le Despenser that he may give and assign 2 virgates and 8 acres of land, 1 acre of meadow, and 2 acres of wood in Stanley, which are held of the King in chief, to John Nottlyn and Joan his wife, to hold to them and the heirs of their bodies of the King and his heirs by the services thereof due and accustomed. If the said John and Joan shall die without such heirs, then the said lands shall revert to the said Almaric' for ever. The said lands are held of the King by the service of the 16th part of half a knight's fee, because the said Almaric' holds the manor of Stanley Regis of the King by the service of half a knight's fee, and this is the 16th part of the said manor, which said 16th part owes 2 appearings at the view of frankpledge at the hundred of the King of W..... by the year, and 3s. 6½*d.*, which is called le Hundredswite. The said lands.....and 1 messuage, which said messuage is worth by the year 2s. The said 60 acres of land are worth by the year 15s., price of the acre 3*d.* The said acre of meadow is worth by the year 18*d.*, and the 2 acres of wood are worth by the year 12*d.*; price of the acre 6*d.*

The said John Nottlyn has in co. Warwick at Coventry.....60s. (?) of land, wherefrom accrues to the King wardship and marriage by the death of the said John by the tenure abovesaid.

Sum of the whole extent by the year 119s. 6*d.*, whereof in repayment to the King of Hundredswite 3s. 6½*d.*, and so there is clear 116s. 11½*d.*

Roger le Bigod, Earl of Norfolk.

Inquisition taken at Strugoil before the King's Escheator, 29 December, 35 Edw. I [1306], of the lands and tenements which were of Roger le Bigod, Earl of Norfolk, and Marshall of England, in the parts of Strogoil in co. Gloucester, by the oath of John Herlof, John de Perifeld, William Surosone, William de Cosniers, Walter le Muleward, Nicholas Goubi, Nicholas Edwyne, William Atte Halle, Philip Maythlan, Philip le Takkere, John Herlof, junior, and William de Strecche, of the borough of Strogoil, and Philip de la Moore, Roger de Seintnor, Matthew Deneband, Walter de Bendevile, John de Lee, Walter Kemeys, Robert Kemeys, Griffin Meillour, Laurence de Perresfeld, Leinthin Ab Morgan, Walter de Seint Ernan and Roger Ab Ythel, of the liberty of Went, and Walter Waldyng, Robert de Auste, Adam de Wirwode, John le Waleis, Henry Rupe, William Rupe, John Strogoil, Ralph de Lancund, Adam de Parco, Richard Gole, Walter Bynetheweve and Adam Esegan, of the parts of Tudenham, who say that

THE CASTLE AND BOROUGH.

The said Earl held the castle with the borough of Stroigoil, in the said county of the King in chief, on the day that he died, by knights service.....to him and the heirs of his body, of the gift and enfeofment of the King. The said castle is worth nothing beyond the sustentation of the houses being within the same. There are in the said borough burgesses who hold 308 burgages and the third part of 1 burgage, who pay by the year £15 8s. 4d. at the feasts of the Nativity of the Lord, Hockedei, St. John the Baptist and St. Michael, for each burgage 12d. of ancient custom. There is there 1 tenant who holds in the same borough a certain piece of land freely, and pays by the year 1d. at the feast of St. Michael. And another free tenant there who pays by the year at the said terms for a certain plot of land $\frac{1}{2}$ d. And another free tenant there, who likewise, holds a certain plot of land there, and pays by the year at the said terms 7d. The tenants of John Ab Adam in the vill of Beteslegh pay by the year for certain lands and tenements, which they held of the said Earl in the said vill, 10s. at the said terms. The rent of the booths (domorum cendarum) in the market, is worth one year with another 60s. at the said terms. The prisage of the ale of the whole borough is worth per annum £20, because they say that the lord of the same borough ought to take of each tavern, of each burgess, as often as he shall brew, by the year 32 gallons of ale of the best, for which he shall take of the lord 4d.; or give to the lord as often as he shall brew 16 gallons of ale, and 9d. for the said prisage, or 14d. for the said prisage, the said 4d. being deducted. The toll of the market of the same borough, with the customs of those passing through the middle of the said borough, is worth by the year £20. The prisage of fish is worth by the year 2s., because the lord of the said borough takes of each boat bringing or carrying fresh fish, the best fish of the same boat coming to the said borough, but he takes nothing of salt fish. And each of the said burgesses makes 3 suits at 3 hundreds by the year, on the Mondays next after the feast of St. Hilary, Hockedei, and St. Michael. Moreover, he shall come to a certain hundred of the lord from quindene to quindene throughout the whole year, except between the feast of St. Peter ad Vincula up to the feast of St. Michael, if he be in the said borough and be likewise summoned by the bailiff of the said borough, otherwise not. The pleas and perquisites of the same borough are worth by the year, together with those who shall wish to enter into the liberty of the same borough, each of whom owes to the lord 12d., and with the trespass of the bakers, each of whom pays 20d. by the year, 40s.

Sum of the value of the whole borough by the year £61 1s. 0 $\frac{1}{2}$ d., of the which the Prior of Strogail takes yearly 74s. by the name of tithe, and so the value is clear £57 7s. 0 $\frac{1}{2}$ d.

John Besemaunsel.

Inquisition taken at Gloucester before Thomas de Gardinis, Sheriff of Gloucester, on Thursday next after the feast of the Apostles Peter and Paul, 35 Edw. I [1307], by the oath of William de Gopushull, of Clyve, John de Tadynton, Reginald de Bisshelle, Robert Minyet, John de Stanewey, William le Smale, Robert le Glover, Richard de Tredynton, William de Morton, Simon de Erdesle, and Nicholas Whiscard, to inquire if it be to the damage or prejudice of the King or others if the King shall grant to John Besemaunsel and Alice his wife that they may give and assign 3 messuages and 76 acres of land in Aldrynton and Gretton to the Abbot and convent of Teukesbury: to hold to them and their successors for ever, and of whom the said messuages and lands are held, &c., who say that

It is not to the damage or prejudice of the King or others if the King should grant to John Besemaunsel and Alice his wife, that they may give the said messuages and lands to the said Abbot and convent and their successors for ever.

One messuage and 38 acres are held of the Abbot of Teukesbury by the service of 16s. of yearly rent, and 2 messuages and 38 acres are held of William de Dycledon by the service of 1d. of yearly rent.

The said messuages and lands are worth besides the said service 15s. 7d.

As to 1 messuage and 30 acres of land the Abbot of Teukesbury, William de Dyclesdon, and the Earl of Gloucester are the mesnes between the King and the said John and Alice.

Four messuages and 2½ virgates of land, 5 acres of meadow, and 22s. of yearly rent remain to the said John and Alice, besides the said gift and assignment, and they are worth per annum, clear, 60s.

The lands and tenements remaining to the said John and Alice, besides the said gift, suffice for the customs and services duly to be made, as well for the said premises so given as for other lands and tenements retained to themselves, and for all other charges which they sustained or were wont to sustain, as in suits, views of frank pledge, tallages, vigils, fines, redemptions, amercements, contributions, and all other charges whatsoever to be sustained.

And the said John may be put on assizes, juries, and other recognizances whatsoever as he was wont to be put before the said gift. The country by the said gift through the default of the said John will not be charged with a larger payment.

John and Robert Waleraund.

Inquisition taken before the King's escheator at Gloucester, 12 April, 2 Edw. II [1309], of the lands and tenements which were of John Waleraund, and of which Robert Waleraund, uncle of the said John, was seised in his demesne as of fee in co. Gloucester on the day that he died, by the oath of John de Culepenne, John atte Slo, Roger de Aula, Stephen de Draycotte, Richard de Wyk of Erlingham, John le Duk, Roger de Ravenhill, William de Pyddesmor, Gilbert de Colne, William de Wastevile, Hugh atte Waters, and Walter de Soutwode, who say that Robert Waleraund, uncle of John Waleraund, was seised in his demesne as of fee of the manor of Frompton Cotel, which is held of the King in chief by the service of half a knight's fee, &c.

[This Inquisition is a duplicate of the preceding one.]

John Waleraund, idiot.

Inquisition taken before the King's escheator at Wotton, 9 September, 3 Edw. II [1309], of the lands and tenements of John Waleraund, which are in the King's hands by reason of the idiocy of the said John, by the oath of Geoffrey Wynebold, John de la Sloo, Laurence de Tresham, Gilbert de Stanschawe, Adam de Berton, John de Clepenne, William le Waleys, Richard de Wyk, John Goule, William de Clifford, John de Chalkeleye, and William de Pidesmore, who say that John Walrand held the manor of Fromton Cotel of the King in chief by the service of half a knight's fee.

[This Inquisition is a duplicate of the preceding one.]

Chan. Inq. p.m., 2 Edw. II, No. 80.

[Another Inquisition was taken at Wotton, on the same day and year, relating to the manor of Sistone, which is in the King's hand by reason of the idiocy of the said John Waleraund; it is a duplicate of the Inquisition taken at Bristol, 20 March, 2 Edw. II, which follows on next page.]

John and Robert Waleraund.

Inquisition taken before the King's escheator at Bristol 20 March, 2 Edw. II. [1309], of the lands and tenements which are of the inheritance of John Waleraund, and of which Robert Waleraund, his uncle, was seised in his demesne as of fee on the day that he died, by the oath of John de Alkelegh, &c. [see previous Inq.], who say that

The said Robert Waleraund held the manor of Sistone with £4 rent in Cubberlegh for a term of years which has past, by the demise of Alice his sister, and died thereof seised, but not in his demesne as of fee. The said manor is held in chief of the heir of William de Berkeley, who is within age and in the wardship of the King by the service of 1 knight's fee.

There is there a certain capital messuage with a garden, curtilage, and 1 dovecote, which is worth per annum 10s. There are there in the demesne 300 acres of arable land, which are worth per annum 75s., price of the acre 3d.; also 40 acres of meadow, worth per annum 40s., price of the acre 12d.; also 40 acres of several pasture, which are worth per annum 20s., price of the acre 6d. There are there 2 parks without beasts, containing 90 acres, the herbage whereof is worth per annum, with the underwood besides the brushwood of the said parks, 20s. There is there a certain pasture at Doynton, which is worth per annum 30s.

Sum of the demesnes £9 15s.

There are in the same manor 5 free tenants who hold divers tenements, and pay per annum of rent of assize 32s. 7½d. at Easter and Michaelmas by equal portions. The said £4 rent of Cubberlegh ought to be taken of Thomas le Botiler at the feast of St. Michael.

Sum of the rent of assize, 112s. 7½d.

Richard de Wurmelegh holds 1 messuage and 20 acres of land in villeinage, and shall do between the feasts of St. Michael and the Nativity of St. John the Baptist 66 manual works, which are worth 2s. 9d., price of the work ½d.; and between the feasts of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist and St. Michael 26 manual works, which are worth 2s. 2d., price of the work 1d. And he ought to plough at the winter sowing for 3 days, at the Lent sowing 3 days, and at the ploughing of fallow land 3 days, and the said ploughing is worth 18d., price of each 2d. And he shall carry the lord's hay for 1 day, and it is worth 2*d.* And he ought to plant the lord's beans for 1 day, and it is worth $\frac{1}{2}$ d. And he shall give 1 hen at Christmas, which is called Wodehen, and is worth 1*d.* There are there 11 customars, each of whom holds, pays, and does as much as the said Richard. John Barry holds 10 acres of land in villeinage and shall do from the feast of St. Michael up to the same feast of St. Michael 98 manual works, which are worth 5*s.* 2*d.*, price of each work of 72 works $\frac{1}{2}$ d., and of 26 works 1*d.* And he shall plant the lord's beans for 1 day, and it is worth $\frac{1}{2}$ d., and shall weed for 1 day with 1 man, and it is worth $\frac{1}{2}$ d., and shall put the lord's hay into cocks for 1 day, and it is worth 1*d.* There are there 9 customars, each of whom holds, pays, and does like the said John. Roger Tegelyn holds 1 cottage and 1 acre of land, and pays of rent 12*d.* at 4 terms, viz., St. Thomas the Apostle, the Annunciation of the Blessed Mary, the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, and St. Michael, and he shall give 1 hen at Christmas, and it is worth 1*d.*; and he shall raise the lord's hay for 3 days, and it is worth 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ d., price of the work $\frac{1}{2}$ d.; and shall toss the lord's hay for 2 days, and it is worth 2*d.*, price of the work 1*d.* There are there 2 customars, each of whom holds and does like the said Roger. And each of the said customars shall do 3 bedripes in autumn, sum 75, and they are worth 9*s.* 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ d., price of each 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. And the said customars shall give in the feast of St. Martin a certain tallage to the lord's larder, 34*s.* Sum of the service of the said customars £9 1*s.* 4*d.* There are there 24 cottars, each of whom holds 1 cottage and pays per annum 28*s.* 8*d.* at the feasts of St. Thomas the Apostle, the Annunciation of the Blessed Mary, the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, and St. Michael. There are there 44 acres of land new arented to 11 free tenants for 15*s.* at the said 4 terms. The pleas and perquisites are worth per annum 13*s.* 4*d.*

Sum of the whole value of the extent of the said manor, £27 5*s.* 11 $\frac{1}{2}$ d.

The said manor of Sistone with the said £4 of rent ought to revert to Alan, son of Alan Plokenet, son of Alice, daughter of Isabella, daughter of Thomas de Rochesford and Agatha his wife, because Roger de Berkeleye gave the said manor and rent to the said Thomas de Rochesford and Agatha in free marriage. The said Alice, daughter of Isabella, daughter of the said Thomas and Agatha, demised the said manor and rent to Robert Waleraund for a term of years, as is aforesaid, and the said Robert had nothing else in the said manor on the day that he died.

William ate Zhate holds 1 messuage and 1 virgate of land in villeinage, and pays per annum at the feast of the Nativity of the Lord 11d. And he shall work from the feast of St. Michael up to the feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, viz.: for 38 weeks, each week 5 works, and so the sum of the works, deducting festival days happening within the said term, together with

3 festival weeks, viz.: the Nativity of the Lord, Easter, and Pentecost, is 156 works, which are worth 6s. 6d., price of the work $\frac{1}{2}d.$; and he shall plough 1 acre of land at the wheat sowing which is called grashurthe, and the ploughing is worth 3d.; and 1 acre of land at the Lent sowing, and the work is worth 3d.; and he shall harrow the said acre, and the work is worth $1\frac{1}{2}d.$; and he shall plough 1 acre lying fallow, and it is worth 3d. And he shall work from the Nativity of St. John the Baptist up to the gule of August for 5 weeks, viz.: in each week 5 summer works; and so the sum of summer works, deducting therefrom the festival days happening within the said term, is 19 works, which are worth $14\frac{1}{4}d.$, price of the work $\frac{3}{4}d.$; and from the gule of August up to the feast of St. Michael, for 8 weeks, viz.: in each week 5 autumnal works; and so the sum of the autumnal works, deducting the festival days happening within the said time, is 32 works, which are worth 4s., price of the work $1\frac{1}{2}d.$; and he owes 8 bedripes in autumn, which are worth 12d., price of the work $1\frac{1}{2}d.$

There are there 40 customars, each of whom holds, pays, and does in all things like the said William ate Zhate, and so the sum of the rent and works of the said 40 customars is £29 2s. 6d.

John Dod holds 1 messuage and $\frac{1}{2}$ a virgate of land in villeinage, and pays per annum at the feast of the Nativity of the Lord 6d.; and he shall do from the feast of St. Michael up to the feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist 78 works, which are worth 3s. 3d., price of the work $\frac{1}{2}d.$; and he shall plough $\frac{1}{2}$ an acre of land at the wheat sowing, which is worth $1\frac{1}{2}d.$, and 1 acre at the Lent sowing, and it is worth $1\frac{1}{2}d.$; and he shall harrow the said $\frac{1}{2}$ acre, and it is worth $\frac{3}{4}d.$, and $\frac{1}{2}$ an acre lying fallow, and it is worth $1\frac{1}{2}d.$; and he shall do from the feast of St. John the Baptist up to the gule of August 9 works, which are worth $6\frac{3}{4}d.$, price of the work $\frac{3}{4}d.$; and from the gule of August up to the feast of St. Michael 16 works, which are worth 2s., price of the work $1\frac{1}{2}d.$ And he owes 4 bedripes in the autumn, which are worth 6d., price of the work $1\frac{1}{2}d.$

There are there 7 tenants, each of whom holds, pays, and does in all things like the said John Dod; and so the sum of the rent and works of the said 7 tenants is 50s. 9d.

There are three customars, each of whom holds $\frac{1}{2}$ a virgate of land in villeinage, and each of them shall do from the feast of St. Michael up to the feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist 78 works; and so the sum of the works is 234, which are worth 9s. 9d., price of the work $\frac{1}{2}d.$; and each of them shall plough $\frac{1}{2}$ an acre of land for the wheat sowing, which is worth $4\frac{1}{2}d.$, price of the work $1\frac{1}{2}d.$, and half an acre at the Lent sowing, and it is worth $4\frac{1}{2}d.$, price of the work $1\frac{1}{2}d.$; and each of them shall harrow the said half-acre, and it is worth $2\frac{1}{2}d.$, price of the work $\frac{3}{4}d.$, and half an acre lying fallow, and it is worth $4\frac{1}{2}d.$, price of the work $1\frac{1}{2}d.$; and each of them shall do from the feast of St. John the Baptist up to the Gule of August 9 works, and so the sum of the works is 27 works, which are worth $20\frac{1}{2}d.$, price of the work $\frac{3}{4}d.$, and from the Gule of August up to the feast of St. Michael 16 works, and so the sum of the works is 48, which are worth 6s., price of the work $1\frac{1}{2}d.$; and each of them owes 4 bederipps in Autumn, which are worth 18d., price of the work $1\frac{1}{2}d.$

There are there 11 tenants each of whom holds 1 cotland, and they pay per annum of rent of assize 33s. at the 4 terms aforesaid, and each of them shall mow the lord's meadow for 3 days, and the sum of the works is 33, which are worth 4s. $1\frac{1}{2}d.$, price of the work $1\frac{1}{2}d.$. And each of them shall give for his Autumn works $8\frac{1}{2}d.$, and the sum is 7s. $6\frac{3}{4}d.$, and each of them shall give at Christmas 3 hens and one cock, and the sum is 44 hens, which are worth 3s. 8d., price of each 1d.

There are there 13 cottars who hold 13 cottages and pay per annum of rent of assize 16s. 2d., of which said 13 cottars there are 10 each of whom owes one bederipp in Autumn and they are worth 15d., price of the work $1\frac{1}{2}d.$. The said villeins with the other customars shall give at the feast of St. Michael for tallage £8. The toll of the borough is worth per annum 14s. 4d. There is in the said borough a fair on the day of St. James the Apostle, which is worth 6s. 8d. The pleas and perquisites of the cōurt of the borough and manor are worth per annum with the view 26s. 8d. The cert money of the view of Fayreford, Estlech, Aluruntun, Merschtun, and Sch . . . ton are worth per annum 56s. 1d.

And so the sum of the whole extent of the said manor is £76 8s. 2d.

Gilbert de Clare.

Inquisition taken before the King's escheator at Thornbury, 15th August, 8 Edward II [1314], by the oath of Gilbert de Wik, William de Raylge, John le Long, William le Masoun, Robert de Southmede, John Tymed, . . . lier, John Alot, . . . Fremon, Roger Amyot, and William le Whittauwer, who say that Gilbert de Clare, late Earl of Gloucester and Hertford, held in his demesne as of fee on the day that he died the manor of Thornbury of the King in chief by knight's service.

There is there a certain capital messuage which is worth per annum with a curtilage 10s.; also a dovecote which is worth per annum . . .

There is also a dovecote at Wolford with a garden which is worth per annum 5s. There are there . . . worth per annum 3s. 4d. There is there a water-mill next the Severn which is worth per annum . . . s., and a water-mill at Wolford worth per annum 10s. Also a certain fishery in the Severn with a boat or basket, which is worth per annum 20s. There is there a park in which there is no underwood, but the herbage is worth per annum beyond the maintenance of the wild beasts there 3s.; also another park, the herbage whereof is worth per annum beyond the maintenance of the wild beasts 5s. and not more, because all the free tenants there have common; also a fagott wood, the profit whereof is nothing because it is in common. There are in the demesne 300 acres of arable land, which are worth per annum 100s., price of the acre 4d.; also 60 acres of meadow which are worth per annum £4 10s., price of the acre 18d.; also 30 acres of pasture, worth per annum 30s., price of the acre 12d. There is there a certain pasture called Olonde, which is worth per annum with other small pastures 60s. There is there of rent of free tenants £16 19s. 0½d., viz. at the feasts of St. Andrew, Easter, the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, and St. Michael equally. There is there a certain market town wherein are 60 burgesses, who hold 119 burgages and pay at the 4 principal terms of the year in equal portions £6 9s. 7½d.; also 210 tenants who hold at will 100 virgates 10½ acres of land, and pay per annum of cert rent £70 0s. 1½d. at the said terms, of the which 210 tenants there are 72 each of whom owes 3 ploughings at the feast of St. Michael, and they are worth 18s., price of the ploughing 3d., and 128 each of whom owes in Autumn 3 bederipps, and they are worth 48s., price of each work 1½d., and each of them one day's work in Autumn, and they are worth 10s. 8d., price of each work 1d., and not more because the lord shall find him one meal, and they shall give 9s. 1d. at the Advincula of St. Peter for a certain custom which is called Peteruspeni. There is of increase of divers tenements 77s. 0½d. by the hands of divers tenants at the said terms.

Richard Bolecroft holds one messuage and one virgate of land in villeinage, and shall do 49 ploughings between the feast of St. Michael and the Gule of August, and they are worth 10s. 2½d., price of each one 2½d.; and from the Gule of August up to the feast of St. Michael 8 ploughings, and they are worth 2s., price of the ploughing 3d.; and he shall do from the feast of St. Michael up to the feast of St. John the Baptist 181 manual works which are worth 7s. 6½d., price of the work ½d., and from the feast of St. John the Baptist up to the Gule of August 25 works, which are worth 2s. 1d., price of the work 1d.; and from the Gule of August up to the feast of St. Michael 40 works, which are worth 5s., price of the work 1½d. And they owe 9½d. at the feast of St. Michael for 2 bederipps.

There are there of the same tenure 22 virgators, each of whom holds, pays, and does like the said Richard. And so the sum of all the works aforesaid is £30 7s. 9d.

Thomas de Morlewode holds half a virgate of land in villeinage, and shall do 24½ ploughings between the feast of St. Michael and the Gule of August, and they are worth 5s. 1½d., price of each 2½d.; and from the Gule of August up to the feast of St. Michael 4 ploughings, and they are worth 12d., price of each 3d.; and shall do from the said feast of St. Michael up to the feast of St. John the Baptist 90½ manual works, which are worth 3s. 9½d., price of the work ½d.; and from the feast of St. John up to the Gule of August 12½ manual works, and they are worth 12½d., price of the work 1d., and from the Gule of August up to the feast of St. Michael 20 works, which are worth 2s. 6d., price of the work 1½d., and he shall give 4½d. for a certain bederipp at the feast of St. Michael. There are there 17 tenants, each of whom holds, pays, and does like the said Thomas de Morlewode. And so the sum of the said works is £11 14s. 9½d.

Robert Ayhward holds half a virgate of land in villeinage, and shall do from the feast of St. Michael up to the feast of St. John the Baptist 111 manual works, which are worth 4s. 7½d., price of the work ½d.; and from the feast of St. John the Baptist up to the Gule of August 15 manual works, and they are worth 15d., price of the work 1d.; and from the Gule of August up to the feast of St. Michael 24 manual works, and they are worth 3s., price of the work 1½d.; and he shall do one bederipp in the Autumn, and it is worth 1½d. There are there 3 customars, each of whom holds 6 acres of land, and shall do from the feast of St. Michael up to the feast of St. John the Baptist 73 manual works, which are worth 9s. 1½d., price of the work ½d.; and from the feast of St. John the Baptist up to the Gule of August 10 works, and they are worth 22½d., price of the work ¾d.; and from the Gule of August up to the feast of St. Michael 16 manual works, and they are worth 6s., price of the work 1½d. There are there 3 customars, each of whom holds 3 acres of land, and shall do from the feast of St. Michael up to the feast of St. John the Baptist 35 manual works, which are worth 4s. 4½d., price of the work ½d.; and from the feast of St. John the Baptist up to the Gule of August 5 works which are worth 15d., price of the work 1d.; and from the Gule of August up to the feast of St. Michael 8 works, and they are worth 3s., price of the work 1½d. There are there 9 customars, who owe 16 manual works between the feast of St. Michael and the feast of St. John the Baptist, and they are worth 17s. 4d., price of the work ½d., and from the feast of St. John the Baptist up to the Gule of August 61 works, which are worth 5s. 1d., price of the work 1d., and between the Gule of August and the feast of St. Michael 103 manual works, and they are worth 12s. 10½d., price of the work 1½d. And they owe in Autumn 31 bederipps, which are worth 3s. 10½d., price of the work 1½d. The said villeins with the other customars there shall give to the lord for the pannage of their pigs at the feast of St. Martin 40s.

The toll in the borough with the foreign toll is worth per annum 40s. There are in the said borough certain fairs in the feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Mary which are worth 10s. The prisage of ale of the said borough is worth per annum 40s. The pleas and perquisites of the borough are worth per annum 40s. The view of the hockday is worth 66s. 8d. The pleas and perquisites of the said manor are worth per annum 100s.

Sum of the value of the whole manor with the borough, £188 14s. 8d. [Heirs as in preceding inquisition.]

Gilbert de Clare.

Inquisition taken before the King's escheator at Teukesbury, 6th August, 8 Edward II [1314], by the oath of Paulinus de Kaerdyf, William de Gopushull, John de Clyve, John Cole, Robert . . ., Adam Knyht, Robert de Alston, William Patrik, Walter le Portreue, Robert Mungit, Robert Clericus of Harton, and John de Lyssnes, who say that TEUKESBURY.

Gilbert de Clare, late Earl of Gloucester, held in his demesne as of fee on the day that he died the manor of Teukesbury of the King in chief by knight's service.

There is there one capital messuage which is worth per annum with a garden, vineyards, and a vivary adjacent 12s.; also one dovecote, which is worth per annum 2s.; also a park containing 80 acres, the underwood whereof with the herbage is worth per annum 30s. There are there in the demesne 460 acres of arable land, and each acre thereof is worth per annum 4d. And the sum is £6 13s. 4d.; also of meadow that can be mown, 85½ acres, and each acre is worth per annum 2s. Sum, £'8 11s. Also 50 acres of pasture in the demesne, and each acre is worth per annum 12d. Sum, 50s.

There is there of rent of free tenants at the feasts of the Annunciation of Our Lady, Nativity of St. John the Baptist, and St. Michael, £12 12s. 3d. There is there a certain windmill to farm, which pays per annum at the said terms 20s.; also a certain farm of la Home of a certain plot of land in the hands of the customars, which pays at the feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Mary 12s. 8d., and of a certain messuage which the chaplain of Aysschirche holds at the said terms 5s.; and of the messuage which Waller le . . . holds 4s. at the said terms; and of the farm of la Møre 16s. at the said terms. There is there a certain fishery in the Severn, with a boat, and in . . . which pay at the feast of St. Michael 10s.

There are there burgesses holding 114 burgages, the half and the fourth part of one burgage, and they pay per annum at the four usual terms £6 16s. 10d. The same burgesses hold there a certain tillage of land within the bounds of the said town, containing 70 acres of land, the half and the third part of one acre, and they pay per annum 35s. 5d. at the usual terms, viz. for each acre 6d. All the tenants of the said borough pay per annum at the said four terms for a certain custom which is called Falscale 20s., and for a certain custom called stallage 12s.

There are there 48 customars, each of whom holds one virgate of land in villeinage, and shall plough $1\frac{1}{2}$ acres of land from the feast of St. Michael up to the feast of the Nativity of the Lord, and each ploughing is worth 9d.(?). And so the sum of all the ploughings of the said customars is 36s. $4\frac{1}{2}$ d. And each of them shall plough 3 roods of land within the said time of a certain custom called bouerche, and the said ploughing is worth 20s. $2\frac{1}{2}$ d., price of each ploughing 5d. And they shall plough between the feast of the Nativity of the Lord and the feast of the Annunciation of our Lady, each of them $1\frac{1}{2}$ acres of land, and the said ploughing is worth 36s. $4\frac{1}{2}$ d., price of each ploughing 6d. And each of them shall carry the lord's fold from Wych to Teukesbury, and he shall give 1d. whether he shall carry it or not. And the sum is 4s. $0\frac{1}{2}$ d. And each of them shall make one quarter of malt, or shall give 1d. Sum, 4s. $0\frac{1}{2}$ d. The said customars ought to work between the feast of St. Michael and the feast of St. John the Baptist for 38 weeks, each of them 5 works in the week. And so the sum of all the works is 9,215, but there shall be allowed to each of them within the said time 15 works for festival days, and 5 works for the week of the Nativity of the Lord, and 4 works for the weeks of Easter and Pentecost. And so the sum of all the whole reprise of works is 1,164, and so there remain, clear, 8,051 works, which are worth for the same time £16 15s. $5\frac{1}{2}$ d. Each of the said $48\frac{1}{2}$ customars do 20 works for carrying the hay. Sum of the works 970, which are worth 40s. 5d., price of the work $\frac{1}{2}$ d. Each of them shall work in the lord's vines for 3 days, price of the work $\frac{1}{2}$ d. And so the sum of the works is $145\frac{1}{2}$, which are worth 6s. $0\frac{3}{4}$ d., price of the work $\frac{1}{2}$ d. And each of the said virgators shall thresh for one day, and the work is worth $\frac{1}{2}$ d. And so the sum is 2s. $0\frac{1}{4}$ d. And the said customars shall give 3 quarters of one peck(?) of wheat for a certain custom which is called bousede, viz., each of them half a bushel, and the said wheat is worth 12s. $1\frac{1}{2}$ d., price of the quarter 4s. And each of them shall give 4 hens at Christmas, which are worth 16s. 2d., price of the hen 1d. And the said customars shall work from the feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist up to the feast of St. Michael, for 14 weeks, each of them 5 works by the week. And so the sum of the works is 3,007 works, and not more, because there is allowed to each of them 8 works for festival days, and they are worth £18 15s. 10½d., price of the work 1½d. And each of the said 48½ customars shall do in the Autumn 16 bederipps, and the sum is 876, which are worth per annum £4 17s., price of the work 1½d. There are there 13 carucators [carucaru] each of whom holds one virgate of land, and shall do from the feast of St. Michael up to the feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, for 38 weeks, viz., in each week 6 works. And the sum is 2,964, but there is allowed to each of them for festival days during the said time 20 works, and for the weeks of the Nativity of the Lord, Easter, and Pentecost 10 works. Gloucester, Hereford, and Worcester, and if so, then by doing what service or office, etc., etc., by the oath of Richard de Heydon, John de Poltone of Northwode, Nicholas le Palmare of Ruwardyn, William atte Forde of la Nuwelonde, Geoffrey le Rydere of Ruwardyn, Hugh atte Walle of Magna Dene, Gilbert Gamel of Bykenore, Walter le Carpenter of Dene, William Cut of Magna Dene, Robert de Donnynton of Magna Dene, Joseph le Hayward of Parva Dene, Philip Hoke of Parva Dene, John le Mareschal of Longhope, Lawrence de Tresham, John de Oulepenne, John de Alkeleye, Roger Corbet, Walter Sewaker, Thomas de Aston, John Joye, William de Remmesbury, Thomas de Mattesdone, William Dammoysele, and Elias atte Grene, who say that

William de Dene on the day that he died held all his lands and tenements in Magna Dene of the King in chief by the service of 10s. per annum, to be paid yearly at Newenham to the constable of the King's castle of St. Briavel, at the feast of St. Michael, for all service; and all his lands and tenements in Parva Dene of the King in chief by the service of 6*d.* yearly, to be paid at the exchequer of the lord the King by the hands of the sheriff of Gloucester for the time being for all service. He did not hold the same by the service of keeping the bailiwick of the King's woods of Magna and Parva Dene, nor by remaining with the King in his armies in cos. Gloucester, Hereford, and Worcester as is abovesaid.

William de Dene.

These are the evidences for the King that the wardship of the lands of William de Dene and the marriage of his heirs ought to belong to the King. First, the charter which is in the custody of Rennand de Habehale, whereof a transcript is given below. Also the inquisition returned into the Chancery according to the charter.

Also the said Rennad de Abehale is tenant of the moiety of the manor of Dene, and charged with the moiety of the rent contained in the said charter, and so the said Renand cannot deny that his pourparty ought to be in the wardship of the King at all times when wardship has happened, and at all times has been when his ancestors have been within age.

All the towns within the precinct of the forest, as Bykenore, Ruardyn, Staunton, and Blakenie, which are of the same tenure as Dene, have been at all times in the wardship of the Kings when wardship has happened.

CHARTER.

Roger Earl of Hereford, to all his barons, sheriffs, ministers, men, and friends, French and English, greeting. Know ye that I have given and granted to William de Dene and his heirs in fee and inheritance, to hold of me and my heirs, all his tenements as freely and quietly as he held them on the day that he died of Miles the Earl, my father, viz., his ministry of the forest of Dene, with all things to the same belonging, paying therefor every year 2*s.* for all service, except this, that if I shall summon him to go with me in my service within these three counties, viz., Gloucester, Hereford, and Worcester, he shall go with me for 3 days at his own procuration, and if he shall remain with me longer, then it shall be at my cost, and if he shall have lost anything I will restore it to him as to my man. And particularly the assart of Chestiard.

Witnesses: William de Caysnet, Walter, my brother, and Elias Giff, Alan son of Mayn, Osbert de Westberia, then my server, Fulk Trussel, Ralph de Falceio, Richard de Wehym, and Alexander Pyncerna.

William de Dene.

Inquisition taken before the King's escheator at Magna Dene, 28th May, 12 Edward II [1319], of the lands and tenements of the which William de Dene was seised in his demesne as of fee on the day that he died, by the oath of Richard de Heydon, Richard Cudel, Thomas de Aston, Gilbert le Bakar, Thomas le Hunte, John le Marchal, Walter de Kedeford, Adam Roger, William Burrich, Richard Irby, John Ma . ., Richard le Carlere, John de Lodebrok, Philip Baliwrith, William atte Forde, John Rolf, William Hok, Philip atte Chapale, Richard Telew, Elias atte Grene, Robert atte Strode, Waller le Carpenter, Stephen Broun, and Adam atte Merch, who say that William de Dene held of the King in chief one messuage and one carucate of land in Magna Dene by the service of 10s. of yearly rent, to be paid at Newenham to the constable of the castle of St. Briavel, at the feast of St. Michael, for all service, and the said messuage with the garden is worth per annum 7s., and 80 acres of arable land which are worth per annum 13s. 4d., price of the acre 2d., and 3 acres of meadow which are worth per annum 2s., price of the acre 8d.; and 2 water-mills which are worth per annum 22s.; and 30 free tenants, who pay per annum £4 4s. at 2 terms of the year, viz. at the feasts of St. Michael and the Annunciation of the Blessed Mary; and 18 natives, who pay per annum 29s. at the same terms; and each of them shall work in Autumn for 3 days, and the day's work is worth 1d. The pleas and perquisites of the court are worth per annum 7s. And he held 4 acres of assart at Bradele, and paid per annum at Newenham 12d. to the said constable and at the same term.

The said William held at Parva Dene of the King in chief one messuage and one virgate of land by the service of 6d., to be paid at the King's exchequer at the feast of St. Michael for all service, and the said messuage with a garden is worth per annum 3s.; and 48 acres of arable land, which are worth per annum 8s., price of the acre 2d.; and 3 acres of meadow, which are worth per annum 6s., price of the acre 2s.

There are there 18 free tenants who pay per annum £3 17s. 5d. at 4 terms of the year; and 2 natives who pay per annum 3s. 3d. at the same terms, and each of them shall work in Autumn for 3 days, price of the work 1d. The pleas and perquisites of the court are worth per annum 6s. He also held of the King in chief there 8 acres of land of assart, which pay per annum at the said day 2s. at Newenham; also of new assart 90 acres, which pay per annum by the hands of the sheriff 18s. 10d. for all service, and are worth nothing per annum besides the said rent. The said William also held of Thomas le Blount in the manor of Rodleye by the service of 12s. one virgate of land, and 6 erections for fishing [borrach.] in the Severn, and 2 acres of meadow, and the said virgate of land is worth 6s. per annum, the said erections for fishing 6s. per annum, and the said 2 acres of meadow 5s.

The said William also held the manor of Lasselegh of Hugh le Despenser by the service of one knight's fee.

There is there a certain capital messuage with a garden, which is worth per annum 6s.; and 300 acres of arable land which are worth per annum 50s., price of the acre 2d.; and 3 acres of meadow which are worth per annum 3s., and 5 acres of pasture which are worth per annum 2s. 6d., price of the acre 6d.; and 4 acres of wood which are worth nothing per annum. There are there 4 villeins who hold 4 virgates of land, and pay per annum of rent of assize 24s., and each of them owes in autumn one bederipp, price 1d. The pleas and perquisites of court are worth per annum 2s.

Joan and Isabella, daughters of the said William, are his next heirs: the said Joan is aged 5 years, and the said Isabella is aged one month.

Richard de Pulton.

Inquisition taken before the King's escheator at Gloucester, 19th July, 12 Edward II [1318], by John le Marchal, Robert atte Strode, William de Boyfeld, Adam le Haukare, Walter Ordwy, Philip atte Wode, Reginald de Cumbrewelle, Eweyn de Ocle, William atte Hay, John Barbe, Henry de Wyke, Robert de la Felde, John de Ledene, Robert le Heyr (?), Robert Curteys, David Elys, John de la Hay, and John le Fremon, who say that

Richard de Pulton held of the King in chief one messuage, 50 acres of arable land, and 3 acres of meadow in Walmor and Northwode, paying to the King 3 barbed arrows as often as the King in his own proper person shall chase in the forest of Dene: which said tenement the said Richard held by the law of England of the inheritance of Agnes Muschel his wife, and after her death he continued his seisin and died thereof seised: which said Richard and Agnes had two sons, viz. Richard their eldest son and heir and Waller his younger brother: which said Richard the son died after the death of the said Agnes his mother and before the death of the said Richard his father, a certain John de Pulton his son and heir surviving, being left in Ireland and within age, but the said Richard de Pulton, father of the said Richard and Walter, being dead, who held the said tenements by the law of England as is before said; the said Walter his younger son, in the absence of John de Pulton, son and heir of Richard, elder brother of the said Walter, entered into the said tenements, and intruding himself into the same without the King's licence, the said Walter alienated the said premises to Robert atte Watere, who re-enseffed thereof the said Walter and Agnes his wife without licence from the King, on account of which intrusion into and alienation of the premises the King's escheator seised the said premises. The capital messuage is worth per annum . d., and the acre of arable land 1d., and the acre of meadow 6d.

The said John de Pultone, son of Richard de Pulton, heir of the said Richard and Agnes, is the next heir, and is now aged 22 years.

John de Sloughtre.

Inquisition taken at Sloughtre, within the liberty of the Abbot of Fiscamp, before William de Brocworth, bailiff of the said liberty, on Tuesday next after the feast of the Apostles Peter and Paul, 13 Edward II [1320], by the oath of Henry de Scirborne, Robert de Mareys, John Crozoun, Philip de Tenacre, John le Vylein, John de Chaddewell, John Wette, John de Sclipton, Richard de Henore, John Stevens of Stowe, William Haym, and William Medcroft, as to what goods and chattels, lands and tenements John de Sloughtre had in the said liberty, or what lands and tenements the said John had there on the day of the acknowledgment of the debt mentioned in the writ made to Thomas de Berton, vicar of the church of Melkesham, which according to the tenour of the said writ may be appraised and extended, and by due appraisement and extent delivered to the said Thomas de Berton, who say that

The said John de Sloughtre on the day of the making of this inquisition had no goods or chattels, lands or tenements, in the said liberty, nor had any for a long time before the obtaining of the said writ.

The jurors being asked what lands and tenements the said John had on the day of the acknowledgment of the said debt, viz. 28th June, 11 Edward II [1318], say that at that time he had no lands or tenements within the said liberty.

Chan. Inq. p.m., 13 Edward II, No. 37.

John de Sloughtre.

Appraisement of the chattels which John de Sloughtre had at Southcerneye, made before William de Pulham, bailiff of the liberty of Cyrencestre, on Sunday next before the feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, 13 Edward II [1320], by the oath of Robert Barbast, Juridan de Baudyngton, Walter de Caumpeden, Philip de Cotes, Simon le Frankelayn, Walter atte More, William de Penynton, Walter Nouray, John Hughes, Walter de Chaveryngworth, John Payn, and Richard son of Waller, who say that

The said John de Sloughtre has at Southcerneye in chattels the crop of $5\frac{1}{2}$ acres and 1 rood of wheat, which is worth 14s. $4\frac{1}{2}d.$, price of the crop of each acre 2s. 6d.; also the crop of 6 acres and 1 rood of drag [draġ], which is worth 14s. 7d., price of the crop of each acre 2s. 4d. The said John also has 4 acres of meadow, the crop whereof is worth 4s., price of the crop of each acre 12d.; also 4 young oxen, price 12s., price of each 3s., which were removed by the said John before the taking of this appraisement.

Sum of the chattels except the chattels removed 32s. $11\frac{1}{2}d.$, which are delivered to Thomas de Borton, vicar of the church of Melkesham.

Chan. Inq. p.m., 13 Edward II, No. 37.

John de Sloghtre.

Inquisition taken at Sloghtre, within the liberty of the Abbot of Fiscamp, before William de Brokworth, bailiff of the said liberty, on Tuesday next after the feast of St. James the Apostle, 14 Edward II [1320], by the oath of William Pynchepol, Robert de Nethercote, Walter de Shurdyngton, John de Caldecote, John le Freman de Otyngton, William Andreu, John le Cun, Hugh le Spencer, Richard le Mareschal, Thomas de Ycombe, John de Nethercote, and William Blundel, who say that

The said John de Sloghtre had no goods or chattels, lands or tenelements, within the said liberty on the day of the making of this inquisition, or on the day of the acknowledgment of the debt made to Thomas de Berton, vicar of the church of Melkesham, viz. the 28th day of June, 11 Edward II [1318].

Geoffrey de Frethorn.

Inquisition taken at Gloucester before the King's escheator on Saturday next after the Nativity of the Blessed Mary, 14 Edward II

[1320], by the oath of John Notelyn, Henry de Wyke, Richard de Salle, Gilbert de Frethorn, Richard de la Hoke, John Lefy, Elias Segare, John Ferour of Salle, John de Symondeshale, John Hathear, Adam ate Mull, and Robert Agu, who say that

Geoffrey de Frethorn, who lately died, viz. on the 3rd day of August last past, was seised in his demesne as of fee on the day that he died of one messuage and one carucate of land in Frethorn: which said messuage and land the said Geoffrey, who is under age and in the wardship of the King, held of John de Meoles by the service of the fourth part of a knight's fee. The said tenements are worth per annum, clear, 40s. according to the true value of the same.

Geoffrey, son of the said Geoffrey, is his next heir, and is aged 24 years and more.

Roger la Warre.

Inquisition taken at Wykeware, 7th October, 14 Edward II [1320], by the oath of John de Standene, William de Remmesbury, Roger de Horton, John de Weston, John Herman, John atte Slo, John Wodecok, John le Brok, Elias Wyrlok, Thomas Danyel, John de Westcote, and William Batyn, who say that Roger la Warre, who lately died, did not hold any lands or tenements in co. Gloucester on the day that he died, except the manor of Wikewarre: which said manor the said Roger, in the Octaves of Holy Trinity, 9 Edward II [1316], by fine in the court of the lord the King, before the Justices of the Bench, acknowledged to be the right of John la Warre as that which the said John had of the gift of the said Roger: to hold to him and his heirs of the chief lords of that fee by the services thereof due for ever; and for this acknowledgment the said John granted to the said Roger the said manor, and rendered the same to him in the said court: to hold to the said Roger for his whole life by the service of one rose per annum for all service, so that after the death of the said Roger the said manor should revert to the said John and his heirs.

The said manor is held of Thomas Apadam, son and heir of John Apadam, as of his manor of Castelharpetre by the service of half a knight's fee, and 20s. per annum for all service, which said Thomas is within age and in the wardship of the King.

The said manor is worth per annum £15 in all issues, according to the true value thereof.

The said John is the next heir of the said Roger, and is aged 40 years and more.

Thomas de Berkelepe.

Inquisition made before the King's escheator at Berkele on Saturday next before the feast of St. Laurence, 15 Edward II [1321], of the lands and tenements which were of Thomas de Berkelee on the day that he died, by the oath of John son of Nicholas, John de Oulepenne, John de Gloucester, Elias de Filton, John de Salso Marisco, William de Colwyche, Robert le Warner, Stephen de Draycote, John de Alkelee, William de la Haye, Walter Sewacre, and William de Rammesbury, who say that Thomas de Berkelee held in his demesne as of fee on the day that he died the castle of Berkelee with the hundred, and the manors of Hamme, Camme, and Wotton, with the hamlets and other appurtenances in co. Gloucester of the King in chief by barony; doing therefor the service of 3 knight's fees for all service, as well for the said castle and manors as for other lands and tenements which the said Thomas likewise held in co. Somerset on the day that he died.

The site of the said castle is worth per annum nothing beyond reprise and the maintenance of the said castle. There is there one garden, which is worth per annum half a mark; also one park with wild beasts, which is worth per annum 10s.

There are in the said manor of Hamme granges and oxhouses with a close adjoining, which are worth nothing per annum beyond the maintenance of the houses. There is there one dovecote, which is worth per annum 5s. There are in the demesne 300 acres of arable land, which are worth per annum £7 12s., price of the acre 6d.; also 16 acres of meadow, which are worth per annum 32s., price of the acre 2s.; also 20 acres of pasture, which are worth per annum 10s.; also 40 acres of high wood, the pannage whereof is worth per annum half a mark and not more, because all the tenants ought to have common as well in the pasture as in the pannage. There is there of rent of assize as well of freemen as of villeins per annum £24 17s. 3½d. at the terms of the Annunciation of the Blessed Mary and St. Michael by equal portions. There are there 24 villeins, each of whom shall do each week throughout the year 2 works, price of the work ½d. Sum, 104s.

There are in the said manor of Camme granges and oxhouses, which are worth nothing beyond the maintenance of the houses. There is there one dovecote, which is worth per annum 40d. There are in the demesne 200 acres of arable land, which are worth per annum 100s., price of the acre 6d.; also 10 acres of meadow, which are worth per annum 20s., price of the acre 2s.; also 10 acres of pasture, which are worth per annum 5s.; also 40 acres of wood, and they are worth nothing because there is no underwood, and the pasture with the pannage is common. There is there of rent of assize of freemen and villeins by the year £33 8s. 9d., at the said 2 terms equally. There are there 15 villeins, each of whom shall do each week throughout the year 3 works, price of the work $\frac{1}{2}$ d. Sum, £4 17s. 7d. There are there 100 hens of rent at the Nativity of the Lord, price of each 1d. Sum, 8s. 4d.

In the said manor of Wotton there is one messuage with a garden, which is worth per annum half a mark; also one dovecote, which is worth per annum 40d. There are there in the demesne 300 acres of arable land, which are worth per annum 75s., price of the acre 3d.; also 10 acres of meadow, which are worth per annum 20s. There is there a park with wild beasts, which is worth per annum in pannage and herbage 10s. There are there 15 acres of high wood, the profit whereof is nil, because there is there no underwood, and the pasture with the pannage is common. There is there one water-mill, which is worth per annum 20s. There is there of rent of assize of freemen and villeins £13 4s., at the said 2 terms equally. There are there 25 villeins, each of whom shall do each week throughout the year 2 works, price of the work $\frac{1}{2}$ d. Sum, 108s. 4d. There are there 103 hens of rent at the feast of the Nativity of the Lord, price of each 1d. Sum, 8s. 7d.

The pleas and amerciaments of the said hundred of Berkelee are worth per annum 100s. There are at Berkelee 2 leets by the year of all the tenements aforesaid, viz., one immediately after the feast of St. Michael, and the other at the term of hockday, and they are worth per annum with amerciaments of the assize of bread and ale aforesaid at the said days £10. There is there one general court from 3 weeks to 3 weeks of all the tenements aforesaid, the amerciaments whereof with fines of lands, reliefs, and heriots, are worth per annum £20.

Sum-total, £147 1s. 6 $\frac{1}{2}$ d.

Maurice de Berkelee, son of the said Thomas, is his next heir, and is aged 40 years and more.

John de Coueleye.

Inquisition taken at Coueleye before John de Hampton, the King's escheator, at Coueleye on Sunday next before the feast of St. Luke the Evangelist, 19 Edward II [1325], by the oath of Robert le Wariner, Stephen de Draycole, John de Melkesham, John le Skay, John de Kyngeston, William le Botiller, Robert atte Yate, Walter Hathemare, Walter atte Mulle, Warin son of William, Robert son of Elias, and William Coriote, who say that John de Coueleye on the day that he died was seised in his demesne as of fee of one messuage in Coueleye, with a garden and curtilage, and it is worth per annum 2s. There are there 180 acres of arable land, which are worth per annum 26s. 8d., price of the acre 4d.; also 8 acres of meadow, and they are worth per annum 8s., price of the acre 12d.; 2 acres of pasture, and they are worth per annum 16d., price of the acre 8d.; also 10 acres of wood, in the which there is no underwood or pasture because it is common. All the said tenements are held of the King as of his manor of Berkeleye: which said manor is in the hands of the lord the King by reason of the rebellion of Maurice de Berkeleye, and they are held of the said manor of Berkeleye by the service of the fifth part of one knight's fee.

The said John de Coueleye on the day that he died held of the Bishop of Worcester in Hembury one messuage and one virgate of land, which are worth per annum 10s., doing suit at the court of the said Bishop at Hembury from 3 weeks to 3 weeks, and by the service of the sixteenth part of one knight's fee.

Robert, son of the said John de Coueleye, is his next heir, and is aged 30 years.

Robert de Aure.

Inquisition taken at Aure before John de Hampton, escheator of the lord the King in co. Gloucester, on Wednesday next before the feast of Pentecost, 19 Edward II [1326], by the oath of John de Aure, Nicholas Ragomi, . . . Walter de Home, William Waryn, Thomas le Forester, Walter de Anste, John Edy, Walter le Moul, John le White, John Badwin, Henry Wa . . s, and Elias le Taillour, who say that Robert de Aure, deceased, on the day that he died held of the lord the King in chief one messuage and 12 acres of land in St. Briavells, which are worth per annum, clear, 12s., by the service of keeping the vert and venison in the forest of Dene; also one messuage and one virgate of land in Aure of Margaret la Mortimer and Joan de Valencia by the service of 5s. per annum, which are worth per annum, clear, according to the true value, 20s.

John de Aure, son of Robert de Aure, deceased, is the next heir of the said Robert, and is aged 21 years and more.

The lands and tenements which were of the said Robert de Aure are in the hand of the lord the King, by reason of the minority of the said John de Aure, son and heir of the said Robert de Aure, deceased, and for no other reason.

Chan. Inq. p.m., 19 Edward II, No. 32.

Nigel de Kyngescote.

Inquisition taken at Durseleye before John de Hampton, escheator of the lord the King, on Monday next after the feast of the Ascension of the Lord, 19 Edward II [1326], by the oath of John de Oulepenne, Peter de Styntescoumbe, John de Kyngeston, John de Melkesham, John Richard, William le Botiller, Henry de Camme, Hugh le Southerne, Thomas de Haselcole, William de Benleye, Alexander de Bernwode, and John de Bencoumbe, who say that

The lands and tenements which were of Nigel de Kyngescote in Kyngescote, deceased, came to the hands of Thomas de Berkeley by reason of the minority of William, son and heir of the said Nigel, in the name of wardship, because the said Nigel held of the said Thomas the lands and tenements aforesaid by knight's service, viz., by the service of the third part of the half of one knight's fee. The said lands and tenements came to the hands of Maurice de Berkeleye, executor of the will of Thomas de Berkeleye, as the chattels of the said Thomas after his death, and the said lands and tenements, together with other land and tenements, which were of the said Maurice, were taken into the King's hands by reason of the rebellion of the said Maurice, and so they are still in the King's hands in the custody of Robert de Aston, keeper thereof.

The said Nigel on the day that he died held of the said Thomas de Berkeley one messuage and one carucate of land in Kyngescote, which are worth per annum, clear, according to the true value of the same, 60s.

The said William, son of the said Nigel de Kyngescote, is his next heir, and is aged 21 years and more.

Hugh Mustel.

Inquisition taken at Botyndone before John de Hampton, the King's escheator, on Sunday next after the feast of St. Hilary, 19 Edward II [1326], by the oath of John de Parys, Roger atte Halle, Thomas Prike, Reginald atte Tounesende, John de Okyntone, Thomas atte Stowe, John de Alre, Ralph de Walton, John de Derneford, William Deuerous, John de Wythileye, and Peter Horne, who say that Hugh Mustel on the day that he died held no lands or tenements of the King in chief, but he held of William Power, of Shraueleye, in chief at Botyndone, one messuage with a garden and curtilage, which is worth per annum half a mark, one dovecote which is worth per annum 2s. There are there 80 acres of arable land, which are worth per annum 20s., price of the acre 3d.; also 10 acres of meadow, and they are worth per annum 15s., price of the acre 18d.; also 2 acres of pasture, which are worth per annum 2s., price of the acre 12d.; 10 acres of wood, and there may be cut down each year for 10 years one acre, and the underwood thereof is worth per annum 2s. There is there one water-mill, and it is worth per annum 10s. There is there rent of assize of free tenants, which is worth per annum 6s., to be paid at the feasts of St. Michael and the Annunciation of the Blessed Mary by equal portions. There are there 6 natives, whose works and services are worth per annum 24s. The pleas and perquisites of the court there are worth per annum 2s. The said lands and tenements are held of the said William Power by the service of half a knight's fee.

The said Hugh held on the day that he died of Hugh le Despenser, Earl of Winchester, at Heydone, of the manor of Elkeston, 48 acres of arable land, and they are worth per annum 16s., price of the acre 4d., by the service of 15s. per annum, viz., to the said Earl per annum 12d., and to John de Bures 14s.

John Mustel, son of the said Hugh Mustel, is his next heir, and is aged 40 years and more.

Robert de Swynebourne.

Inquisition taken at Wodemonecote next Durslegh before John de Hampton, the King's escheator, in co. Gloucester, on Sunday next after the feast of St. Matthew the Apostle, 19 Edward II [1325], by the oath of Peter de Styntescombe, John de Milkesham, Robert de Couelegg, Stephen de Draycote, John le Duk, Henry de Camme, Robert atte Zate, Alexander de Bernewode, John de Benecombe, William le Botyler, John Symond of Iwelegh, and Robert Passelewe, who say that Robert de Swynebourne held on the day that he died the manor of Wodemonecote next Durslegh, of the King in chief as of his manor of Berkelegh, which was of Maurice de Berkelegh, senior, which said manor is in the hands of the King by reason of the rebellion of the said Maurice by knight's service, viz. by the fourth part of a knight's fee.

There is there a certain capital messuage with a garden and curtilage, which are worth per annum 3s. 4d. There are there 2 water-mills, which are worth per annum 20s. There is there of rent of free tenants 100s. per annum at 4 terms, viz., the Nativity of the Lord, Hockeday, the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, and St. Michael by equal portions. There are there 4 natives, 2 of whom are half-virgators and 2 are 'fferdellarii' (? holding a quarter of an acre), and they pay by the year for all services 40s., at the said terms by equal portions. There are there 120 acres of arable land, which are worth per annum 40s., price of the acre 4d.; also 10 acres of meadow, which are worth per annum 15s., price of the acre 18d.; also 5 acres of pasture, which are worth per annum 2s. 6d., price of the acre 6d.; also 20 acres of large wood, which are not extended because there is no underwood.

Thomas de Swyneburne is the son and next heir of the said Robert, and is aged 35 years.

John de Gyse.

Edward, by the grace of God King of England, etc., to the Sheriff of Gloucester, greeting. Because John de Gyse, knight, on the 1st day of August last past, in our Chancery acknowledged that he owed to Henry de Sancta Osiltha, citizen of London, £120, whereof he ought to have paid to him in the feast of St. Michael then next coming £40, and in the feast of the Nativity of the Lord next coming £40, and in the feast of Easter next coming £40, as appears to us by inspection of the rolls of our chancery, and has not paid them as he says; and the said Henry, according to the statute thereof published, has chosen to have delivered to him for the said £120 all the chattels and the moiety of the land of the said John, to hold according to the form of the said statute: we command you, as we commanded you elsewhere, that you cause all the chattels of the said John, to the value of £40 of the said sum, by reasonable appraisement of the same, except oxen and horses for his plough, in the presence of the said John by you to be thereof warned if he should wish to be present to make it, to be delivered to the said Henry or to his certain attorney: and if those chattels do not amount to the value of the said £40, then you shall cause those chattels so being of less value by reasonable appraisement, and also the moiety of the land of the said John in your bailiwick, by extent likewise to be made in his presence, in the form aforesaid, to be delivered to the said Henry or to his said attorney, to hold as his free tenement until the said £40 shall be thereof levied. And of that which you shall do therein you shall cause to be made manifest to us in our said Chancery in the Morrow of St. Margaret next coming, wherever it shall then be, under your seal distinctly and openly; and you shall have there this writ. We have also commanded our Sheriff of Lincoln that he shall cause all the chattels and the moiety of the land of the said John in his bailiwick to the value of the remaining £8, to be delivered to the said Henry in the form aforesaid.

Witness ourself at Saltwood 31st May, in the 19th year of our reign [1326].

John de Gyse.

Extent and appraisement of all the goods and chattels, lands, and tenements of John de Gyse, made before William Tracy, sheriff of Gloucester . . . on Tuesday next before the feast of St. Kenelm, 20 Edward II [1326], by virtue of a writ directed to the said sheriff, to cause to be delivered to Henry de St. Hosityth, citizen of London, all the goods and chattels . . . except the oxen and horses for his plough, and the moiety of his lands and tenements by reasonable price and extent, to hold as his free tenement to him and his heirs according to the form thereof provided, until he shall have levied fully £40 thereof, as in the said writ to this extent attached it is more fully contained, by the oath of Thomas Passemer, John de Leden, William Eweny, William Pope, John le Cok of Brocworth, John le Frankeleyn of Brocworth, William Droys, William de Caam, Walter Glid . . . , John de Wydicombe, Robert de Ocholte, and Robert le Eyr of Parton, who say that

The said John has at Elmor 3 brass pots, 2 ewers, and one bason for washing, price 16s. He has there also a certain capital messuage with a dove-cote, and it is worth per annum 33s. 3d.; also one garden which is worth per annum 5s. He has also of rent of freemen and natives per annum £10 7s. 6d.; also of the works of natives 57s. 6d. He has also 36 acres of land sown with wheat this year, the crop whereof is worth £7 6s., price of the acre 4s.; also 7 acres of land sown with barley and beans, the crop whereof is worth 18s. 9d., price of the acre 2s. 6d.; also 34 acres of land sown with oats, the crop whereof is worth 63s. 4d., price of the acre 22d.; also 2½ acres of land sown with beans, the crop whereof is worth 2s. 3d., price of the acre 12d. He has there hay which is worth 102s. Also 215 acres of arable land, which are worth per annum 106s. 6d., price of the acre 6d.; also 24 acres of meadow, which are worth per annum 72s., price of the acre 3s.; also 7½ acres, which are worth per annum 7s. 6d., price of the acre 12d. He has there one windmill, which is worth per annum 12s. Also of pleas and perquisites of the court 10s.

Sum-total, £42 19s. 7d., of the which the chattels are worth £17 8s. 4d.; and so the sum is £25 11s. 3d., whereof the moiety is £12 15s. 7½d.

Inquisition taken at Westbury before John de Hamplone, escheator of the lord the King in co. Gloucester, on Wednesday next after the feast of St. Mary Magdalene, 20 Edward II [1326], by the oath of Richard de Hertelaund, Thomas de Howe, Richard de Garswell(?), Anthony de Acle, Peter de Somervile, Reginald de Cumberwell, John de Dysart, Simon de Solers, John le Mareschal, Walter Warde, Henry atte Grene, and Thomas de Astone, who say that Nicholas de Bathon' did not hold any lands or tenements of the King in chief in his demesne as of fee in co. Gloucester on the day that he died, but he held in Westbury next Newenham of John de Bohun, lord of Harsefelde, one messuage with gardens and curtilages, which are worth per annum 3*s.* 4*d.* The said Nicholas also held there 260 acres of arable land, 200 acres whereof are worth per annum 66*s.* 8*d.*, and 60 acres are worth per annum 10*s.*, price of the acre 2*d.* There are there 12 acres of meadow, which are worth per annum 18*s.*, price of the acre 18*d.*; also 2 acres of pasture, which are worth per annum 2*s.*, price of the acre 12*d.*; also 3 acres of wood, in the which there is no underwood or pasture, because they are in common. There is there the rent of assize, as well of freemen as of natives, which is worth per annum 10*s.* 4*d.*, to be paid at the feasts of St. Michael, the Purification of the Blessed Mary, and St. John by equal portions. The pleas and perquisites of the court are worth per annum 2*s.* The said lands and tenements are held of the said John de Bohun, lord of Harsefelde, by the service of half a knight's fee.

The said Nicholas held in Hunteleye one messuage with a curtilage, which is worth per annum 18*d.* There are there 80 acres of arable land, which are worth per annum 26*s.* 8*d.*, price of the acre 4*d.*; also 2 acres of meadow, which are worth per annum 3*s.*, price of the acre 18*d.*; also 2 acres of pasture, which are worth per annum 2*s.*, price of the acre 12*d.* There is there of rent of assize to be taken of 3 free tenants 3*s.* at the feasts of St. Michael and the Annunciation of the Blessed Mary, by equal portions, for which lands and tenements the said Nicholas pays per annum 33*s.* 3½*d.* to Robert de Sapy, lord of Hunteleye, of whom the said tenements are held in chief by the service aforesaid, and also by the service of the sixth part of a knight's fee.

The said Nicholas on the day that he died also held of John Dobyn 12 acres of arable land in Northwode, which are worth per annum 3*s.*, price of the acre 3*d.*, by the service of 2*s.* per annum for all service.

Alina, wife of Robert de Sapy, daughter of the said Nicholas, who is of the age of 30 years and more, and John de Aune, son of Adam de Aune and Elizabeth his wife, sister of the said Alina, aged 15 years, are the next heirs of the said Nicholas.

Chan. Inq. p.m., 20 Edward II, No. 33.

Nicholas de Bathonia.

Edward, by the grace of God King of England, etc., to William Trussel, his escheator beyond the Trent, greeting.

Robert de Sapy and Alina his wife, daughter, and John de Aune, kinsman and heir of Nicholas de Bathon', have shown to us that whereas the said Nicholas demised one messuage, one virgate, and 12 acres of land in Westbury to John de Cromhale and Margaret Kynervan for the life of the said Nicholas, John de Bury, escheator of the lord E., late King of England, our father, in co. Gloucester, pretending that the said messuage and land were held of our said father, whereas they were not held of him, and were alienated without his licence, for that reason took the said messuage and land into the hand of our said father, and so they are still in our hands.

We, therefore, wishing to be certified as to the cause of the said taking and detaining, also to know of whom the said premises are held, viz., whether of us or of others, command you to certify us thereof without delay, returning to us this writ.

Witness myself at York, the 28th day of May, in the 1st year of our reign [1327].

Nicholas de Bathonia.

Inquisition taken before the King's escheator at Westbury on Saturday next after the feast of the Translation of St. Thomas, 1 Edward III [1327], by William Holt, Simon de Solers, Richard Byllyng, Laurence de Abbenhale, Walter Warde, Henry de Chaxhull, Henry de Rodleye, Stephen Wytemon, Peter de Walmon, Peter le Reyner, William Faber, and John de Wyke, who say that

The lands and tenements contained in the writ were taken into the hands of the lord E., father of the King that now is, by John de Bury, then sub-escheator in co. Gloucester, 8 years ago, because the said Nicholas de Bathonia demised the said tenements to John de Cromhale and Margaret Kyvernian for the term of the life of the said Nicholas, pretending that they were held of the King in chief, whereas they were not held of him, and were demised without the licence of the King, for which cause they were taken into the King's hand and for no other reason, and they are still in the King's hand.

The said Nicholas de Bathon' held the said tenements of Sir John de Bohun of Harsefeld by knight's service, as parcel of the manor of Westbury, which said manor Robert de Sapy, and Alina his wife, and John de Aune, kinsman and heir of Nicholas de Bathon', hold of the said Sir John de Boun by the service of half a knight's fee.

Chan. Inq. p.m., 20 Edward II, No. 33.

Richard le Blount.

Inquisition taken at Sobbury before John de Hamptone, escheator of the lord the King in co. Gloucester, on Wednesday next after the feast of St. Hilary, 20 Edward II [1327], by the oath of Henry Chann, John Sautmareys, Ralph de Filton, John Caumpe, Robert Caumpe, John Averay, Robert Burnel, Adam Honypym, John de Hambrok, Philip Selyman, William atte Pyne, and John Gubbes (?), who say that Richard le Blount on the day that he died was seised in his demesne as of fee of the moiety of the manor of Button. There is there one messuage with a close, . . . and curtilage, which are worth per annum 6s. 8d.; also a dovecote, which is worth per annum 2s. There are there 80 acres of arable land, which are worth per annum 20s., price of the acre 3d.; also 12 acres of meadow, which are worth per annum 18s., price of the acre 18d.; also 16 acres of pasture, which are worth per annum 2s. 8d., price of the acre 2d. There is there a certain wood containing 12 acres, the underwood whereof is worth per annum 2s. There are there 30 acres of wood within the King's chace of Kyngeswode, and they are not extended because the lord cannot take anything therefrom by the year. There is there the moiety of a certain water-mill, which moiety is worth per annum half a mark.

There are there 10 free tenants, who pay per annum 32s. at the feasts of St. Michael, St. Nicholas, the Annunciation of the Blessed Mary, and St. John the Baptist by equal portions. Also 10 natives, who pay for their works and services by the year 30s. at the said terms by equal portions.

There is there the moiety of the hundred of Button, the profit whereof is worth per annum half a mark, to be held twice by the year, viz. at the Hokeday and the feast of St. Martin; the moiety of the said manor of Button is held of the King in chief by the service of the moiety of one knight's fee.

The said Richard le Blount was also seised in his demesne as of fee on the day that he died of one messuage with a garden and curtilage in Mangotesfeld, which is worth per annum 40d. There is there one dovecote, which is worth per annum 40d. There are there 40 acres of arable land, which are worth per annum half a mark, price of the acre 2d.; also 5 acres of meadow, which are worth per annum 5s., price of the acre 12d. There are there 18 free tenants, who pay per annum 102s. 4d. at the feasts of St. Michael, St. Andrew, the Annunciation of the Blessed Mary, and St. John the Baptist by equal portions; also 12 natives, who pay per annum for all their works and services 22s. at the said 4 terms by equal portions. The pleas and perquisites of the court there are worth per annum 2s.

The said messuage, lands, and tenements in Mangotsfeld are held of the lord of the manor of Thornbury for the time being, which said manor at that time was of the Earl of Gloucester by the service of half a knight's fee.

Edmund le Blount, brother of the said Richard le Blount, is the next heir of the said Richard, and is aged 30 years and more.

John de la Ware.

Inquisition taken at Claverley before John de Hampton, escheator of the lord the King, in the counties of Gloucester, Worcester, Hereford, Shropshire, Stafford, and the Marches of Wales, 3rd January, 20 Edward II [1327], by the oath of Walter de Gatacre, etc., etc., who say that

It is not to the damage of the King and others if the King should grant to John de la Ware that he may give and assign one acre of land in Albreton and the advowson of the church there, which are held of the King in chief, to the Abbot and Convent of Dore to find 3 monks, chaplains, to celebrate divine service every day in the church of St. Mary of the Abbey of Dore, etc., etc.

The jurors further say that the castle of Ewias Herald, in the Marches of Wales, etc., etc., and the manor of Wykwar, in co. Gloucester, which is worth per annum £40, remain to the said John, besides the said gift and assignment. The said castle, manor, etc., are held of the King in chief, by what service they know not, etc., etc.

Roger Crok.

Inquisition taken at Olveston before John de Hampton, escheator of the lord the King in co. Gloucester, on Wednesday next after the feast of St. Gregory the Pope, 1 Edward III [1327], by the oath of John de Weston, John de Akkeleye, Richard Pesshoun, Richard atte. Mora, Robert Matlok, William de Stoke, John Roynald, Robert Batecok, John Clynes, Osbert le Riche, John de Gydeforde, and William Tony, who say that Roger Crok held in his demesne as of fee on the day that he died in Olveston the tenements underwritten of the Prior of Bath by socage. He had there 2 parts of one capital messuage, with gardens, curtilages, and one dovecote, which are worth per annum 40*d.* There is there one acre and a half of arable land, which are worth per annum 12*d.*, price of the acre 8*d.* There are there 2½ acres of meadow, which are worth per annum 4*s.* 2*d.*, price of the acre 20*d.* There is there a certain pasture, which is called la Grenemore, which is worth per annum . . . There are there 2 parts of one water-mill and of one windmill, which are worth per annum 13*s.* 4*d.* There is there a certain croft called Arnaldescroft, which is worth per annum 3*s.*; also a certain wood called Wolfrugge, which is worth per annum in underwood 2*s.* There are there 2 groves, viz. Maudesdalegrave and Ladygrave, and they are worth per annum in underwood 12*d.*

There are there 23 free tenants, who hold divers tenements and pay per annum £6 4*s.* at the 4 usual terms of the year; also 2 natives, who hold half a virgate of land and 5 acres of land in villeinage and pay per annum in rent and works 23*s.* at the said 4 terms. Edmund de Plescy and Matilda his wife.

William Trussel, escheator of the lord the King on this side the Trent, to Nicholas Burdoun, his sub-escheator in co. Gloucester, greeting. We send you the command of the King in these words, to be executed.

Edward, by the grace of God, etc., to William Trussel, his escheator beyond the Trent, greeting.

Matilda, who was the wife of Edmund de Plescy, deceased, who held of us in chief, has besought us that whereas the said Edmund, formerly her husband, after he married her enfeoffed Hugh le Despenser, late Earl of Winchester, of the manor of Bardesle, to hold to him and his heirs for ever, and the said manor came to the hands of the lord E., late King of England, our father, by the forfeiture of the said Hugh, we will cause to be assigned to her her dower happening to her of the said manor according to the law and custom of our kingdom.

We, wishing to be fully certified as to the premises, and to do what is just therein, command you diligently to enquire whether the said Edmund enfeoffed the said Earl of the said manor after the marriage of the said Edmund and Matilda, or not; and to send us the inquisition so made without delay, together with this writ.

Witness ourself at York, 16th June in the first year of our reign [1327].

Edmund de Plescy and Matilda his wife.

Inquisition taken at Cirencester before the King's escheator on Monday next after the feast of the Translation of St. Thomas, 1 Edward III [1327], by the oath of Warin de Grytz, John de Colne, Adam de Hyde, William Burvast, John atte Asshech, Thomas de Meysy, Nicholas le Northerne, Nicholas within the gate, Waller de Campedene, Simon le Frankelleyne, Benedict le Graunt, and Waller le Fremon, who say that Edmund de Pleysitz enfeoffed Hugh le Despenser, late Earl of Winchester, of his manor of Bardesleye: to hold to him and his heirs for ever, 8 years and more after the solemnization of the marriage between the said Edmund and Matilda his wife; and the said manor came into the hands of the lord E., late King of England, father of the now King, by the forfeiture of the said Hugh, and not for any other cause, and is now in the seisin of Sir Edmund de Wodestok, Earl of Kent, by the gift and feoffment of the now lord the King, and is held of the Earl of Hereford by the service of half a knight's fee, and is worth per annum, clear, £10 per annum.

William de Dene.

Inquisition taken before the King's escheator at Gloucester on Monday next after the feast of St. Dionisius, 1 Edward III [1327], by Richard Kynnes, William de Forwode, William atte Leygrave, John atte Bury, John atte Lane, John Draylas, Robert de Dunyngton, Henry de Foxhull, Nicholas Mody, Richard Adam, Henry de Bonkes, and William de Chalford, who say that William de Dene died seised in his demesne as of fee of one messuage and one carucate of land in Magna Dene, which are held of the King in chief by the service of 10s. of yearly rent, to be paid at Newenham to the constable of the castle of St. Briavell at the feast of St. Michael for all service; the said messuage with a garden and curtilage there is worth 6s., and the said carucate of land is worth per annum 13s. 4d.

The said William held of the King in chief at Parva Dene one messuage and 2 virgates of land by the service of 6d., to be paid into the King's exchequer at the feast of St. Michael for all service; the said messuage with a garden there is worth 3s., and the 48 acres of arable land are worth per annum 8s., price of the acre 2d.

The said William also held the manor of Lassebergh of Sir Hugh le Despenser, late Earl of Winchester, by the service of one knight's fee. There is there a certain capital messuage with a garden, which is worth per annum 4s. There are there 300 acres of arable land, which are worth per annum 50s., price of the acre 2d.; and 3 acres of meadow, which are worth per annum 3s., price of the acre 12d.; also 4 acres of wood, which are worth nothing per annum because there is no underwood.

There are there 4 natives, who pay per annum 24s. for all service. The pleas and perquisites of the court are worth per annum 2s.

Joan and Isabella, daughters of the said William, are the next heirs of the said William de Dene; the said Joan is aged 15 years, and the said Isabella 11 years.

Chan. Inq. p.m., 1 Edward III, 1st Nos., No. 44.

William de Dene.

The rolls and memoranda of the time of Master Richard de Clare, formerly escheator of the lord the King, father of the now King, on this side the Trent, of the 12th year of the said King Edward, the father, having been searched, it is found that William de Dene, of whom mention is made in this writ and this inquisition, died in the same year, on account whereof a like writ was then sent to the said Master Richard, and a like inquisition was made and returned into the King's Chancery, whereby it was found that the said William on the day that he died held his tenements in Magna and Parva Dene of the King in chief by homage and the service of 10s. 6d. per annum. The jurors were not able to say whether the said William owed therefore any service to the King of keeping a certain part of the King's forest of Dene or not.

It was also found that Joan, then aged 5 years, and Isabella, then aged one month, viz., on the 28th day of May in the said 12th year, were the daughters and next heirs of the said William.

Chan. Inq. p.m., 1 Edward III, 1st Nos., No. 44.

William de Dene.

Edward, by the grace of God, etc., to the Treasurer and Barons of the Exchequer, greeting.

Although it is found by an inquisition made by William Trussel, late our escheator beyond the Trent, that William de Dene, deceased, held on the day that he died certain lands and tenements in Magna Dene by the service of 10s., to be paid to us yearly by the hands of the constable of the castle of St. Briavell, and certain lands and tenements in Parva Dene by the service of 6d., to be paid to us yearly into our Exchequer for all service, but because it was not known whether the said William owed therefore any service of keeping part of the forest of Dene, we command you to certify us whether the said William held any lands or tenements by serjeanty or knight's service, whereby the custody of the lands and tenements which were of the said William ought to belong to us.

Witness ourself at York, 16th February, in the 2nd year of our reign.

Chan. Inq. p.m., 1 Edward III, 1st Nos., No. 44.

William de Dene.

Having searched the rolls and memoranda of your Exchequer, we have found in the Memoranda roll for the 5th year of the reign of the lord E., late King of England, your father, that William de Dene, son and heir of William de Dene, held all his lands and tenements in Magna Dene of the King in chief by the service of paying 10s. per annum at the Castle of St. Briavell, and 2 virgates of land in Risflete of the service of paying per annum into your Exchequer 6d. as the said William acknowledged; and he gave to your said father 10s. 6d. for his relief for the said lands. And in like manner William, father of the said William, was charged with his relief for the said lands in the 32nd year of the reign of the lord E., formerly King of England, your grandfather; and in like manner Henry de Dene, grandfather of the said

William, was charged for his relief for the said lands in the 15th year of your said grandfather, as is contained in the roll of the accounts of the said 15th year in Gloucester.

John Giffard.

Inquisition taken before the King's escheator at Caumpedene, 26th December, 1 Edward III [1327], by the oath of Thomas Bealmond, Richard Prodome, Peter Sherebern, John Flemyng, Henry de Doclegh, John Fraunkeleyn, Richard Gatawell, John Burne, John de la Chambre, Nicholas de Stocheslegh, Robert de Stocheslegh (?), and Philip Calf, who say that John Giffard de Weston Underegge died seised in his demesne as of fee of the manors of Norton and Weston Underegge, which are held of the King in chief by the service of one knight's fee and a half.

There is in the manor of Norton a certain capital messuage with a garden and dovecote, which are worth per annum 6s. 8d. There are there 207 acres of arable land in each field by the larger hundred, and the acre is worth per annum 4d., sum £4 2s. 4d.; also 22 acres of meadow, and the acre is worth per annum 20d., sum 36s. 8d.; also 10 acres of pasture, and the acre is worth 12d., sum 10s. There is there of the rent of the free tenants 8s. per annum. There is there one water-mill which is worth per annum 10s. Also of the rent of natives and cottars £11 2s. 4d. per annum.

Sum of the value of the whole manor of Norton, £18 16s. 0d.

There is in the manor of Weston a certain capital messuage with a garden, which are worth nothing beyond reprise. There are there of arable land 167 acres, 80 acres whereof are each worth per annum 4d., and 87 acres are each worth per annum 2d.: sum of the value of the said acres 41s. 2d. There are there 20½ acres of meadow, each whereof is worth per annum 2s.: sum 41s. Also 17 acres of pasture, each acre whereof is worth per annum 12d.: sum 17s. Also 100 acres of wood, which are worth nothing because there is no underwood. There is there of the rent of the free tenants 6s. 10½d. and 1 lb. of cummin per annum, price 1½d. Also of the rent of natives and cottars £14 17s. 0½d. per annum. There is there of works (?) of cottars which are worth per annum 20s. There is there a certain water-mill which is worth per annum 13s. 4d.

Sum of the value of the said manor of Weston, £21 16s. 6½d.

John, son of the said John Giffard, is his next heir, and is aged half a year.

The said manors were taken into the King's hand by William Trussell, the King's escheator, and by him at the King's command delivered to John de Cherlton, lord of Powytz, and so they remain in the custody of the said John.

The said manor of Norton was charged to Simon de Aston and his heirs in 22s. per annum; and to Margery the relict of William Pikerel in 26s. 8d. for the term of the life of the said Margery: sum of the rent resolute 48s. 8d.

And so the said manors of Norton and Weston are worth per annum beyond the rent resolute £38 3s. 10½d.

Chan. Inq. p.m., 1 Edward III, 1st Nos., No. 46.

Matilda de Rodberwe.

Inquisition taken before the King's escheator at Magor in the Marches of Wales, 29th April, 1 Edward III [1327], by the oath of Roger le Seymor, Hugh Duraunt, John . . ., Adam Hardyng, Richard Melior, Robert atte More, Richard Pers, William Molendinar', Roger le White, John Pody, Nicholas Hichecok, and Nicholas Rond, who say that Matilda de Rodberwe held in her demesne as of fee on the day that she died of the King in chief the fourth part of the manor of Magor by homage and fealty and the service of the fourth part of the sixth part of a knight's fee, and she held nothing of any other in co. Gloucester.

There is there a certain messuage which is worth per annum 6d. There are there 124½ acres of arable land, and they are worth per annum 41s. 6d., price of the acre 4d. Also 40 acres of meadow, which are worth per annum 50s. 7½d., price of the acre 15d. Also 2 acres of pasture, which are worth per annum 12d., price of the acre 6d. There is there of the rent of the free tenants at the feast of St. Michael £6 7s. 8d.; and of one of the said tenants in the feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Mary 4s. 6d.; and two of them pay in the term of the "Hokkeday" 5s.; and one of them pays in the feast of Easter one pair of gloves, price ½d. Sum of the rent of the free tenants, £6 17s. 2½d. There are there 18 villeins, each of whom holds 8 acres of land and pays yearly at 4 terms of the year 5s. 8½d., and they ought to work, and there is allowed them for the work, ¾d. from the feast of St. Michael up to the Gule of August, and from the Gule of August up to the feast of St. Michael there is allowed them for the work 1½d., and if they do not work they shall pay the rent aforesaid.

There are there 9 villeins, each of whom holds 4 acres of land and pays yearly 2s. 10d. at the said terms. And if they shall work it is allowed them as to the others. Sum of the rent of the villeins, 116s. 7½d.

There are there 12 cottars who pay per annum in the feast of St. Michael 8s. 4d. Sum of the rent of the cottars, 8s. 4d. The pleas and perquisites of the court there are worth per annum 6s. 8d. And so the said messuage, lands, etc., are worth per annum clear, except the services of the lord the King which belong to the said tenements, £24 19s. 8d.

Thomas de Rodberwe is the son and next heir of the said Matilda, and is aged 28 years and more.

Sum of the value of the said manor of Syde per annum, £4 15s. 11d.

The said John Giffard held the said manor of Beggeworthe by the feoffment of the Earl of Gloucester by the said Earl to him and the heirs of his body lawfully begotten. There is there a certain capital messuage with a garden and curtilage and a dovecote, and they are worth per annum 13s. 4d. There are there 10 acres of arable land newly assarted, which are worth per annum 5s., price of the acre 6d. Also 700 acres of arable land, which are worth per annum £11 13s. 4d., price of the acre 4d. Also 12 acres of meadow, which are worth per annum 48s., price of the acre 4s. There is there a certain water-mill, which is worth per annum 20s. Also a park, which is worth per annum in underwood and herbage 26s. 8d. There are there 19 free tenants, who hold divers tenements and pay per annum of rent of assize at the said 4 terms of the year 74s. 9d. Also 18 customars each of whom holds half a virgate of land in villeinage, and pays and does for his rent and services per annum 19s. And so the sum of the rent and services of the said customars per annum is £17 2s. 0d. There are there 15 customars each of whom holds the fourth part of one virgate of land, and pays and does per annum for his rent and services 9s. 6d. And so the sum of their rent and services per annum is £7 2s. 6d. There are there 8 customars each of whom holds 3 acres of land and pays and does in rent and services per annum 5s. And so the sum of the rents and services of the said customars per annum is 40s. There are there 14 cottars who pay per annum of rent of assize 12s. at the said 4 terms of the year. The said customars shall give each year a certain aid at the feast of the Decollation of St. John the Baptist, which is worth 40s. The pleas and perquisites of the court are worth per annum 60s.

Edward, by the grace of God, etc., to John de Annesle and Robert de Aston, greeting.

Margaret, who was the wife of John Giffard of Brymmesfeld, has entreated us humbly by her petition exhibited before us and our Council that whereas she and John, her son, acquired the manor of Syde to them and their heirs, and afterwards the said Margaret granted to the said John that he might hold the said manor solely for his whole life; which said manor the lord Edward, late King of England, our father, for divers reasons caused to be taken into his hands and gave to Hugh le Despenser, formerly Earl of Winchester, and it is now in our hands by the forfeiture of the said Hugh.

We, willing to restore that manor to the said Margaret, wish to be certified by you whether the said Margaret and John acquired that manor to themselves, and of whom and in what way, and if the said Margaret afterwards granted to the said John that he should hold that manor solely for his life, etc., etc., and therefore we have assigned you to enquire into the truth of the matter, etc., etc.

Witness ourself at Westminster the 24th day of February in the first year of our reign [1327].

Margaret, wife of John de Giffard.

Inquisition taken at Tettebury on Thursday in the feast of St. Gregory the Pope, 1 Edward III [1327], before John de Anesleye and Robert de Astone, in the presence of William Tracy, sheriff of Gloucester, keeper of the manor of Syde, by the oath of John Lehont, Robert Barbast, Nicholas infra Portam, William de Solers, Richard atte Halle of Stratton, John le Franckelayn of Dagingworth, Richard le Smyht of Cranham, Robert Passelewe, John de Avenynge, John Hickes, Walter de Estcourt, and William de Bexwelle, who say that Margaret, who was the wife of John Giffard of Brimesfeld, and John, her son, acquired the said manor of Side to them and the heirs of the said John of a certain Adam Kaylly, to hold to the said Margaret and John and the heirs of the said John for ever. Afterwards the said Margaret by her deed granted to the said John that he should hold the said manor solely for his whole life, but she did not make any other estate thereof to him, nor did she remise her right in any other way. The said manor after the death of the said John was seised into the hands of the lord King Edward, father of the now King, as forfeited to him by reason of the plaint of Thomas, late Earl of Lancaster, in the 15th year of his reign; which said lord the King in the same year gave the said manor to Hugh le Despenser, formerly Earl of Winchester, to hold of the King for his whole life, so that after the death of the said Earl the said manor should remain to Hugh le Despenser, junior, and his heirs for ever. The said Margaret never remised the said manor to the said Hugh, nor in any way changed her estate thereof. The said manor, by the forfeiture of the said Hugh, was seised into the hands of the lord Edward, father of the now King, and for that reason, and for no other, it is still in the hand of the now King. The said manor is held of John de Actone by the service of half a knight's fee, and is worth per annum, clear, £4 1s. 3d.

Margaret, wife of John Giffard.

Inquisition taken at Tettebury on Thursday in the feast of St. Gregory the Pope, 1 Edward III [1327], before John de Annesle and Robert de Astone, in the presence of William Tracy, sheriff of Gloucester, keeper of 200 acres of wood in the manor of Walles, by the oath of William de Arches, Roger de Hortone, William de Rommesbury, William de Dudmarton, John atte Halle, John atte Hulle, John Averay, Florencius de Stoke, Henry atte Lynde, Adam Pope, John de Actone, and Nicholas Wyneband, who say that Margaret, who was the wife of John Giffard, and John her son, acquired the manor of Walles to them and the heirs of the said John for ever of a certain Adam Kaylly, of whom John de Kaylli held the said manor for the term of his life, by reason of which acquisition the said John attorned to the said Margaret and John her son for his fealty. In the 11th year of the lord King Edward, father of the now King, the said Margaret and John recovered the said 200 acres of wood as belonging to the said manor of Walles before the Justices of the Bench by a writ 'de vasto' against the said John de Kailli, holding the said manor for the term of his life by the judgment of the said court. After the said recovery the said Margaret granted to the said John that he might hold the said manor solely for his whole life, but she made no other estate to him thereof, nor did she remise her estate thereof to him, nor change her estate thereof in any way. The said wood after the death of the said John, who held it for his whole life, was seised into the hand of the lord King Edward, father of the now King, as forfeited to him by reason of the plaint of Thomas, late Earl of Lancaster, in the 15th year of his reign, and it is still in the hand of the now King, for that reason and for no other.

The whole manor of Walles is held of the Bishop of Worcester by the service of half a knight's fee, and is worth per annum, clear, half a mark, according to the true value thereof.

John, son of John Giffard of Brymmesfeld.

Inquisition taken at Tettebury before the King's escheator, 20th January, 1 Edward III [1327], by the oath of John Spilmon, Ralph Kynne, John Beauboys, John de Claville, Richard de la Holte, Henry de Masinton, John de Oulepenn, Peter de Styntescombe, John de Milkesham, William de Arches, William de Rommesbury, and Nicholas Wyneband, who say that John, son of John Giffard of Brymmesfeld, purchased the manor of Syde to him and Margaret de Nevile his mother, who still survives, and to the heirs of the said John for ever, of Adam de Cayly, and died so seised in his demesne as of fee. The said manor is worth per annum, clear, 100s., and is held of Simon de Croumbe by the service of the fourth part of one knight's fee.

He also purchased in the same way a certain wood which is called le Walles, and died thereof seised in his demesne as of fee, and it is worth per annum, clear, 6s. 8d., and is held of the Bishop of Worcester by the service of one rose.

John de Kayllewey is the kinsman and next heir of the said John, son of John Giffard of Brymmesfeld, because a certain Elias Giffard, great-grandfather of the said John son of John, married a certain wife named Matilda, by whom he had a son named Elias and a daughter called Berte; which said Elias son of Elias married a wife named Isabella, by whom he had Matilda, the great-grandmother of Roger Bavent, Isabella, the great-grandmother of Thomas de Grymstude, and Mabel, grandmother of Richard Damsy; which said Isabella, wife of the said Elias, died; after whose death the said Elias son of Elias married a certain wife named Alice, by whom he had John Giffard; which said John married a wife called Matilda; by whom he had Katherine, grandmother of James de Audeleye, and *Elia*nora, mother of John Lestrange. And afterwards the said Matilda died; after whose death the said John son of Elias married a certain wife called Margaret, by whom he had the said John, son of John Giffard of Brymmesfeld, who died last. Elias de Kayllewey, great-grandfather of the said John de Kayllewey, married the said Berta, by whom he had Elias de Kayllewey; which said Elias lawfully begot John de Kayllewey; which said John lawfully begot John de Kayllewey that now is. The said John, son of John de Kayllewey that now is, is the kinsman and next heir of the whole blood of the said John, son of John Giffard of Brymmesfeld, and is aged 40 years and more.

Abelina, wife of John Giffard.

Inquisition taken at Cirencester before the King's escheator on Monday in the Morrow of St. Nicholas, 1 Edward III [1327], by the oath of John Beauboys, Robert Barbast, Nicholas infra Portam, Richard ate Hyde, John de Cotès, Thomas de Eggesworth, John de Fromton, Robert Crouste, Henry de Strodord, Richard le Clerk, Stephen de Elyngham, and Henry Badecok, who say that Avelina, who was the wife of John Giffard, held for the term of her life of the demise which Almaric le Despenser made thereof to the said John Giffard and Avelina and the heirs of the said John the manor of Kyngestanleye, and died so seised and in no other way. The said manor is held of the King in chief by the service of half a knight's fee, and is worth per annum, clear, £36 1s. 1d. according to the true value.

Elias Giffard, grandfather of the said John Giffard, had 2 wives, viz., Isabell de la Musarder the first and Alice Mautravers the second; the said Isabell had 2 sons and one daughter, whose names the jurors do not know, which said sons and daughter died without heirs. And after the death of the said Isabell he took to wife the said Alice Mautravers, by whom he had issue John Giffard, father of the said John Giffard who died last, and 3 daughters, viz., Matilda, Isabell, and Mabel.

The said John Giffard, son of Elias, after the death of his said father married Matilda de Longespeye, by whom he had issue *Elia*nora Lestrange and Katherine de Audeleye; the said *Elia*nora had issue John Lestrange, who is now of the age of 22 years; and the said Katherine had issue Nicholas de Audeleye, which said Nicholas had issue James de Audeleye, who is now aged 15 years, and is in the wardship of the King. The said Matilda, daughter of the said Elias, had issue Peter de Skydemor, which said Peter had issue Alice de Bavent, who had issue Roger de Bavent, who is aged 40 years. Of the said Isabell, second daughter of the said Elias, there issued lawfully Gwydo le Tabler, who begot lawfully Edith de Grimstude, who had issue Thomas de Grimstude, who is aged 26 years. From the said Mabel, third daughter of the said Elias, there issued lawfully Richard Danseye; which said Richard begot lawfully Richard Danseye, who is now aged 40 years.

The said Roger de Bavent, Thomas de Grymstude, and Richard Danseye are the next heirs of the said John Giffard who died last.

The said Avelina did not hold any other lands or tenements in my bailiwick on the day that she died, except in the name of her dower, which are in the King's hand.

Thomas, late Earl of Lancaster, held on the day that he died the third part of the manor of Cheddeworthe for the term of his life of Henry de Lancaster, now Earl of Lancaster and Leicester, and of the demise of the said Henry for that the reversion of the said third part belonged to the said Henry on the day that the said Earl died, and still belongs to him. After the death of the said Earl the said third part was seised into the hand of King Edward, father of the King that now is, as forfeited in to him by reason of the plaint [querelle] of Thomas, late Earl of Lancaster, and for that reason is still in the hand of the now King, and is held of the King in chief by the service of the third part of one knight's fee. There are there in the demesne 100 acres of land, each acre whereof is worth per annum 2*d.*; also 6 acres of meadow, each whereof is worth per annum 18*d.*; also 40 acres of wood with a waste place next the said wood, whereof of encroachment 30 acres . . . , of which said 30 acres there may be sold 3 acres every year, price of the acre 2*s.* There are there 10 virgators, each of whom holds one messuage and one virgate of land, and pays per annum in all things at 3 terms, viz., Michaelmas, the Annunciation of the Blessed Mary, and the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, 14*s.* 6*d.* There is there one native, who holds one messuage and one virgate of land, and pays per annum 8*s.* at the said 3 terms. There are there 8 cottars each of whom holds one . . . and . . . acres of land, and pays per annum 4*s.* at the feasts of St. Michael and the Annunciation. There is there a certain cottar who holds one . . . and a half of foreland, and pays per annum 4*d.* at the said 2 terms. There are there certain other tenants who are called cottars, viz., William . . . , who holds one cottage and one acre of land and a half, and pays per annum 13*d.* at the feasts of St. Michael and the Annunciation of the Blessed Mary, and 2 hens at the feast of the Nativity of the Lord and Easter. Richard R . . . , a tenant, holds one cottage and 2 acres of land, and pays per annum at the said 2 terms 12*d.* and 2 hens at the said feasts. John atte Castle holds one cottage . . . , and pays per annum 2*s.* and 2 hens at the said terms. Simon atte Castle hold one cottage and 5 acres of land, and pays per annum 3*s.* 3*d.* and 2 hens at the said terms. Juliana (?) Welykenid holds one cottage and 4 acres of land, and pays per annum 2*s.* 3*d.* and 2 hens at the said terms. Edith Mallen, senior, holds one cottage and one acre of land, and pays per annum 10*d.* and 2 hens at the said terms. Edith Mallen, junior, holds one cottage and pays per annum 8*d.* and 2 hens at the said terms. There is there one cottage and half an acre of land, and they pay per annum 16*d.* at the said terms, and one hen at the feast of the Nativity of the Lord. There is there one cottage called . . . , and it pays per annum 12*d.* for all services.

Henry, now Earl of Lancaster, brother of the said Thomas, late Earl of Lancaster, is his next heir, and is aged 40 years and more.

The said tenants in bondage held all the said lands with the pleas and perquisites of court of the said Thomas in fee farm, and they pay per annum 20 marks in all things.

Roger de Borghull.

Inquisition taken at Westbury before the King's escheator on Saturday next after the feast of St. Dionisius, 1 Edward III [1327], by the oath of William Holt, Richard Billyng, Henry de Chayhull, Henry de Rodleye, John de Hokkeleye, John de Wyk, William Faber, William Viel, John de Palton, Stephen Wylemon, John de Godrynton, and Henry Fulcher, who say that

It is not to the damage or prejudice of the lord the King or others if the King should grant to Roger de Borghull that he may give and grant to William de Styntescombe, chaplain, 11 messuages, 145 acres of land, 19 acres of meadow, and 54*s.* rent in Westbury, which are held of the King in chief. To hold for his whole life of the King and his heirs by the services thereof due and accustomed, so that after the death of the said William the said premises shall wholly revert to the said Roger and his heirs, to hold of the King and his heirs by the said services for ever.

The said messuages, land, meadow, and rent are held of the King in chief by the service of paying one sparrowhawk per annum at the King's Exchequer for all services : the said 11 messuages are worth per annum, clear, 5s. 6d. ; the said 145 acres of land are worth per annum 48s. 4d., price of the acre 4d., and not more because the land is hilly and cold ; the said 19 acres of meadow are worth per annum 28s. 6d., price of the acre 18d., and not more because it lies next the Severne. Sum of the rent of the values of the said messuages, land, and meadow, £6 16s. 4d.

Alianora, wife of Herbert fiz John.

Inquisition taken at Tettebury on Wednesday next before the feast of St. Gregory the Pope, 1 Edward III [1327], before John de Anesleye and Robert de Astone in the presence of William Tracy, sheriff of Gloucester, keeper of the manor of Barndesleye, by the oath of John Notelyn, Henry de Masyntone, Henry Ket, Richard de la Hoke, John de la Hay, Robert le Taillur, John le Welssh, Hugh de Ravenhulle, Richard le Clerk, Henry Badecok, John de Fromptone, and Elias de Bysrugge, who say that Herbert fiz John, on Sunday next after the feast of St. Mark the Evangelist, in the 19th year of the reign of King Edward, grandfather of the King that now is, on which day he married Alianora, who was the wife of the said Herbert at Harescombe, dowered the said Alianora, with the assent and will of John fiz Reynaud, his father, at the door of the church of Harescombe, with the third part of the manors of Barndesleye in co. Gloucester and Crokham in co. Berks, together with the third part of the castle of Blenleveny with the honour of the castle of Bulkedynas, Talkard, Langollan, Kechedyn, and la Mare in Wales.

The said John fiz Reynaud by his deed ratified and of his free will granted and confirmed that dower for £300 which he in hand received from Sir Roger le Rous, father of the said Alianora.

After the death of the said John and Herbert the said Alianora was never seised of any part of the manor of Barndesleye in the name of her dower or in any way, nor of any part of the other manors aforesaid, and after the death of the said Herbert, formerly her husband, the said Alianora never remised or quitclaimed the action which she had about her said dower to Hugh le Despenser, senior, nor to any other lord of the said manor.

The said Herbert died on the Morrow of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, in the 14th year of the reign of King Edward, father of the now King.

The said manor of Barndesleye is in the hand of the King that now is by reason of the forfeiture of the said Hugh le Despenser, senior ; the said manor which was of John fiz Reynaud is held of the King in chief by the service of the fourth part of a knight's fee, and is worth per annum, clear, according to its true value £10.

Maurice, son of Thomas de Berkeley.

Inquisition taken at Gloucester before John de Hampton, the King's escheator in co. Gloucester, on Thursday next after the feast of St. Valentine, 1 Edward III [1327], by the oath of John de Oulepenne, Elias de . . . la Hay, John de Melkesham, Robert de Coueleye, John de Kyngeston, William le Botill', Stephen de Draycote, John de . . . de Styntescombe, John Capol, and William de Eweny, who say that Maurice de Berkeleye, son [of Thomas de] Berkeleye, late Lord of Berkeleye, was seised in his demesne as of fee of the castle and hundred of Berkeleye, and of the manors of [Hamme, Camme] and Wotton, with the hamlets and other appurtenances, and Radeclvestret, with the hundred and 2 messuages and . . . of land in Upton next Gloucester.

The lord Edward, late King of England, father of the now King, charged the said Maurice with being an adherent of Hugh le Despenser, junior, on account of which the said King asserted that the said Maurice was an enemy of the Kingdom of England, by reason whereof on Monday next after the feast of the Purification of the Blessed Mary, in the 15th year of his reign, he took all the said premises into his hand and detained him in his prison at Walyngford, and occupied them all until the said Maurice died in the said prison.

The said castle of Berkele is worth nothing per annum beyond reprises and the maintenance thereof. There is there one garden which is worth per annum 6s. 8d. In the said manor of Hamme there is a grange and ox-house, with a close adjoining, which are worth per annum, clear, 2s. There is there one dovecote, which is worth per annum 3s. 3d. There are there in the demesne 300 acres of arable land, which are worth per annum £7 10s., price of the acre 6d.; also 16 acres of meadow, which are worth per annum 32s., price of the acre 2s.; also 20 acres of pasture, which are worth per annum 10s., price of the acre 6d.; also 40 acres of wood, the pannage whereof is worth per annum 6s. 8d., and there is no underwood there. There is there a certain park in the which there are wild beasts, the pasture whereof is worth per annum 10s., and there is no underwood there. There is there of rent of assize, as well of tree tenants as natives, by the year £24 18s. 3½d., to be paid at the terms of the Annunciation of the Blessed Mary and St. Michael by equal portions. There are there 24 natives, whose works and services are worth per annum 104s.

In the said manor of Camme there is a grange and an ox-house, with a close adjacent, the profits whereof are worth per annum, clear, 3s. 4d. There is there one dovecote, which is worth per annum 2s. There are in the demesne 200 acres of arable land, which are worth per annum 100s., price of the acre 6d.; also 12 acres of meadow, which are worth per annum 24s., price of the acre 2s.; also 10 acres of pasture, which are worth per annum 6s. 8d., price of the acre 8d.; also 40 acres of wood, which are not extended because there is no underwood and because the pasture with the pannage is common. There is there of rent of assize of freemen and natives per annum £33 8s. 9d., to be paid at the terms abovesaid by equal portions. There are there 15 natives, whose works and services are worth per annum £4 17s. 7d.

In the said manor of Watton there is one messuage, with a garden and curtilage, and they are worth per annum 6s. 8d. There is there one dovecote, which is worth per annum 3s. 4d. There are in the demesne 300 acres of arable land, which are worth per annum 75s., price of the acre 3d.; also 10 acres of meadow, which are worth per annum 20s., price of the acre 2s. There is there a certain park with wild beasts, which is worth per annum in pannage and herbage 6s. 8d. There are there 40 acres of wood, which are not extended because there is no underwood there and the pasture with the pannage is common. There is there one water-mill, which is worth per annum 20s. There is there of rent of assize of freemen and natives by the year £13, to be paid at the said 2 terms by equal portions. There are there 25 natives, whose works and services are worth per annum 108s. 4d. The pleas and amercements of the said hundred of Berkeleye are worth per annum 100s.; and there are there 2 leets per annum of all the tenants abovesaid, viz., one after the feast of St. Michael and the other at the term of 'hokkedaye,' and they are worth per annum £10. The pleas and perquisites of the courts of Berkeleye which are held for all the tenants of the manors aforesaid from 3 weeks to 3 weeks are worth in all their profits £20 per annum. There is at Radeclivestret of rent of assize 100s., to be paid at the said terms. There is there one hundred with 2 leets, one whereof is held immediately after the feast of St. Michael and one at hockday, and they are worth per annum 100s. There is there a certain court to be held each week throughout the year of all the tenants there, which is worth per annum 40s.

The said 2 messuages in Upton next Gloucester are worth per annum 6s. 8d. There are there 100 acres of arable land, which are worth per annum 16s. 8d., price of the acre 2d.; also 8 acres of meadow, which are worth per annum 16s., price of the acre 2s.; also 4 acres of pasture, which are worth per annum 2s., price of the acre 6d. There is there of rent of assize of free tenants 10s., to be paid at the feasts of St. Michael,

St. Andrew, the Annunciation of the Blessed Mary, and the feast of St. John the Baptist, by equal portions.

The castle of Berkele, with the hundred and courts there, and the said manors of Hamme, Camme, and Wotton, with their hamlets there, and Radeclivestret, with the hundred and court, together with the other lands and tenements which the said Maurice held in co. Somerset, are held of the King in chief by barony, doing therefor the services of 3 knight's fees for all service. One messuage and one virgate of land of the said 2 messuages and 2 virgates of land in Upton are held of the King in chief by serjeanty, viz., to find at his own costs one archer within the 4 seas for 40 days in the King's army; and the other messuage and virgate of land there are held of the King in chief by the service of 20s. per annum for all service.

Thomas de Berkeley, son of Maurice de Berkeley, is his next heir, and is aged 30 years and more.

Stephen de la More.

Inquisition taken before the King's escheator at Sodbury, 15th September, 2 Edward III [1328], by the oath of Adam Mordefreit, John le Faire, Robert Campe, John Joye, Richard Pesshou, Geoffrey Brown, Henry atte Naysshe, Robert Burnel, Thomas le Knyt, John Averei, John Wade, and Nicholas le Clerk, who say that Stephen de la More held in his demesne as of fee on the day that he died a certain tenement at Holdelonde in Button, in which said tenement there is a certain capital messuage with a garden, curtilage, dovecote, and vivary, which is worth per annum 40d. There is there of rent of assize of free tenants per annum 74s. 5½d., viz., to be paid at the feast of St. Michael 25s. 2½d., at the feast of St. Thomas the Apostle 17s. 3½d., at the feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Mary 17s. 3½d., and at the feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist 17s. 3½d. There is there of the rent of natives 38s. 5d., viz., at the feast of St. Michael 23s. 2d., at the feast of St. Thomas the Apostle 5s. 1d., at the feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Mary 5s. 1d., and at the feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist 5s. 1d. There are there 5 natives whose works and customs are worth per annum 20s. There are there 83 acres of arable land which are worth per annum 20s. 9d., price of the acre 3d.; also 80 acres of arable land which are worth per annum 13s. 4d., price of the acre 2d.; also 28 acres of meadow, which are worth per annum 28s., price of the acre 12d. There is there a certain pasture which is worth per annum 2s., also a mill wholly destroyed [deructum], so that it is of no value.

The said tenement is held of the King in chief by knight's service, viz., by the service of the moiety of one knight's fee. The pleas and perquisites of the said tenement are worth per annum 40d. Sum-total, £10 os. 3½d.

William, son of the said Stephen, is his next heir, and was aged 14 years at the feast of All Saints last past.

Templars Lands.

Inquisition taken at Sloughtre on Tuesday next before the feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Mary, 2 Edward III [1328], before William de Brokworth, keeper of the liberty of the Abbot of Fyscamp of Sloughtre, who has the full return of all writs, by the oath of John Wheete (?), John de Chaddevell, William Caldecote, Henry le Clerk, John le Vyleyn, William le Vyleyn, John Crossun, Robert Crossun, William de Nethercote, John de Nethercote, Robert de Malverne, and Richard le Templer, who say that

At the time that the manor of Temple Gutynge first came to the hands of the Templars there were no vills or hamlets belonging to the said manor within the said liberty, but long afterwards the said Templars acquired the moiety of the manor of Hertford in Newenton of a certain Baldwin de Hertford, within the said liberty, to hold to them and their successors for ever of the said Baldwin and his heirs, by the service of 1 lb. of cummin per annum, and the heirs of the said Baldwin hold of the honour of Gloucester. And the said Templars after that time acquired in the vill of Nywenton within the said liberty 19s. 8d. of yearly rent, which 5 tenants pay per annum, of whom one tenant, viz. Walter le Walkare, pays per annum 4s. for one messuage and one virgate of land, which he held of the said Templars by the same service for all service; and Emma de Schipton pays per annum 7s. for one messuage and one virgate and a half, which she held of the said Templars by the same service for all service; and Sibilla de Eytworth pays per annum 4s. for one messuage and one virgate of land, which she held of the said Templars by the said service; and Geoffrey de Weston pays per annum 4s. for one messuage and one virgate of land, which he held of them by the said service; and Robert de Malverne pays per annum 8d. for one curtilage, which he held of the said Templars by the said service.

After that time the said Templars acquired in Parva Bernynton within the said liberty one messuage and one virgate of land, to hold to them and their successors for ever of the chief lords of that fee by the services therefor due and accustomed: they are held of John Crossun, of Bernynton, by the service of 5s. per annum and 64 acres of arable land in the said vill: to hold to them and their successors for ever in pure and perpetual arms of Alexander Fraunceys and William Flemyng; and 12s. 6d. yearly rent in the said vill, which 4 tenants pay per annum, of whom one, viz. John Crossun, pays per annum 4s. for one messuage and one virgate of land, which he held of the said Templars by the same service; and Nicholas Bythebrok pays per annum 4s. for one messuage and one virgate of land, which he held of them by the said service; and William Crokeden pays per annum 4s. for one messuage and one virgate of land, which he held of the said Templars by the same service; and Henry atte Drove pays per annum 6d. for one curtilage, which he held of the said Templars by the same service.

And the said Templars after that time acquired in Parva Rysyndon a certain meadow which is called Templeham, containing 20 acres, of a certain Sara de Tayden: to hold to them and their heirs for ever of the said Sara and her heirs by the service of 4 marks per annum for all service, and the said meadow is of the honour of Walyngeford.

After that time the said Templars acquired 3s. of yearly rent of the ancestors of Richard le Templer, which the said Richard and his ancestors were wont to pay to the said Templars for one messuage which they held of them for the said service.

The said Templars attached the profits of all the aforesaid lands, rents, and tenements of the said manor of Temple Gutynge, because the preceptors for the time being, having the custody of all their lands and tenements in co. Gloucester, were wont to live in the said manor.

Hugh le Despenser, junior, at the time when the said manor was in his hand, byreason of his great lordship and power, occupied and appropriated to himself all the said lands, rents, and tenements, as belonging to the said manor of Temple Gutynge, whereas they never at any time belonged thereto.

Agnes de la Chaumbre.

Inquisition taken before the King's escheator at Gloucester, 20th June, 2 Edward III [1328], by the oath of Thomas de Newynton, John Burne, Richard Prodhorne, William de Clyze, William Ace, John Fraunkeleyn, Robert Brown, Nicholas le Frensch, Gilbert de Hudecote, William Hayl, Richard Neel, John Strode, and Roger le Cok, who say that

It is not to the damage or prejudice of the lord the King or others if the King should grant to Agnes de la Chaumbre of Weston Subegge that she may grant 3 messuages and 2½ virgates of land in Weston Subegge, which are held of the King in chief, to William de Whatecote and Alice his wife, to hold to them and the heirs of their bodies of the King and his heirs by the services therefor due and of right accustomed for ever; so that if the said William and Alice should die without heirs of their bodies begotten, then the said premises shall revert to the said Agnes and her heirs, to hold to her and her heirs of the King by the said services for ever.

The said messuages and lands are held of the King in chief by knight's service, viz., for the twelfth part of one knight's fee, and are worth per annum, clear, 16s. 6d.

No lands or tenements remain to the said Agnes beyond the said premises.

Richard Talbot and Elizabeth Comyn his wife.

Inquisition taken at Guldeford before John de Stonore and William de Sharesull on Thursday next after the Quindene of Easter, 2 Edward III [1328], by the oath of John de Abernon, William de Henle, William de Weston, Roland de Wykford, Stephen de Frollebury, John Prodhomme, Henry de Stoghtone, Richard de Wyke, Thomas de Westone, William de Wythewell, Thomas de Otteworth, and John de Hoghfeld, who say that

Hugh le Despenser, late Earl of Winchester, Hugh le Despenser, junior, Nicholas de Sudynton, William Staunford, and John de Hasselegh, at Kenynton in co. Surrey, took Elizabeth Comyn, now the wife of Richard Talbot, and there imprisoned her for some time, and thence they took the said Elizabeth against her will to Wockyng, and from Wockyng up to Purefrith in the said county, and there imprisoned her and kept her in prison for one year and more, viz., up to the 20th day of April, 18 Edward II [1325], on which day the said Hugh, Hugh, Nicholas, William, and John, by force, duress of prison, and divers compulsions, forced the said Elizabeth so that she unwillingly and against her will, and forced by threats of death, granted her manor of Payneswick in co. Gloucester to the said Hugh, the county, castle, and manor of Castle Godrich in the Marches of Wales to the said Hugh, junior, by her charters; to hold to them and their heirs for ever. And also on the said day at Purefrith, on account of the said compulsion and duress acknowledged before John de Bousser, one of the Justices of the Bench of King Edward II, that the manor of Paynswick was the right of the said Earl, and that the said castle and manor of Castle Godrich were the right of Hugh, junior, and she delivered them to them, to hold to them and their heirs for ever. And after the said Elizabeth had made the said feoffments and acknowledgments the said Earl, Hugh, and others kept the said

Elizabeth in prison there for half a year, and afterwards allowed her to go out of that prison.

Of whom and by what service the said castle and manors are held the jurors do not know, because they are outside the county of Surrey.

Hugh le Despenser.

Inquisition taken at Munechenehamptone before John de Annesle and Robert de Astone on Monday next before the feast of St. George, 2 Edward III [1328], by the oath of John de Avenyngge, William de Boxwelle, John Hereward, William de Forwode, Waller le Waryner, Adam le Heyward of Astone, Henry Elenaut, Roger de Hayleye, Robert Bracy, Walter le Monck, William atte Halle, and Richard de Longeforde, who say that

Hugh le Despenser, senior, entered into the manor of Lassebergh after the death of William de Dene in the name of wardship by reason of the minority of Joan and Isabella, daughters and heirs of the said William de Dene, 13 Edward II [1319], and in no other way.

On the 10th day of May in the said 13th year the said Hugh by his writing demised the said manor to Geoffrey de Westone until the lawful age of the said heirs, which said Geoffrey by reason of the said grant was seised of the said manor by name of wardship from the said 10th day of May until Sunday in the feast of St. Clement the Pope, 19 Edward II [1325], on which day the said Geoffrey by his writing demised the said manor to Robert de Goldhulle, to hold until the lawful age of the said heirs; which said Robert by reason of the said grant was seised of the said manor in manner aforesaid from the said Sunday up to the 22nd day of July, 1 Edward III [1327], on which day William Trussel, the King's escheator, at that time took the said manor into the King's hands, and ejected the said Robert de Goldhulle out of the same as of his wardship, supposing the said manor to be forfeited by the forfeiture of the said Hugh, who at that time had nothing in the said manor; it is still in the King's hand for that reason and no other.

The said William de Dene, deceased, held the said manor of the said Hugh le Despenser, senior, in chief as of his manor of Somerforde Kaynes by the service of one knight's fee; it is worth per annum, clear, 111s. 8d.

Chan. Inq. p.m., 2 Edward III, 2nd Nos., No. 80.

John le Botiler.

Piscator, Philip le Tannere, Philip le Knicht, John de Exindon, Richard de Walton, Robert Mundy, and William atte Pulle, who say that

It is not to the damage or prejudice of the Lord the King or others if the King should grant to John le Botiler of Launleyt and Beatrice his wife that they may give and assign 5 marks of yearly rent, to be taken out of the manor of the said John and Beatrice of Brewarne, to the Abbot and Convent of the Blessed Mary of Flaxleye, to hold to them and their successors for ever, to find a certain monk, as chaplain, to celebrate divine service every day in the church of that abbey there for the souls of the said John and Beatrice, and for the souls of their ancestors and heirs, and of all the faithful deceased for ever.

The said manor is held of the King in chief by the service of 12*d.* per annum, to be paid yearly by the hands of the sheriff of Gloucester for the time being at the Exchequer of the Lord the King, and doing suit at the King's manor of Berton next Gloucester from 3 weeks to 3 weeks, and is worth per annum, clear, according to its true value, £10. There are no means between the King and the said John and Beatrice for the said manor. There remains to the said John and Beatrice the manor De Parco, which is worth per annum 20 marks, and is held of Matthew son of Herbert, by the service of the fourth part of one knight's fee; also the said manor of la Brewarne, to hold to them and the heirs of the said John, and it is worth per annum, clear, £10, as is aforesaid.

The said manors De Parco and Brewarne are in co. Gloucester, and suffice for the customs and services duly to be made, as well for the said rent so given as for the other lands and tenements retained, and other charges which they sustained and were wont to sustain, as in suits, views of frankpledge, aids, tallages, vigils, fines, redemptions, amercements, contributions, and all other charges whatsoever. And the said John may be put on assizes, juries, and other recognizances, as he was wont to be put before the said gift and assignment. And the country, by the said gift, through the default of the said John may not be charged with a larger payment.

Chan. Inq. p.m., 2 Edward III, 2nd Nos., No. 128.

William le Walssehe.

Inquisition taken at Gloucester before the King's escheator, 9th November, 3 Edward III [1329], by the oath of Audoen de Ocle, Gilbert de Rues, John Cely, John Barber, Almaric de Bares, Walter le Clerik of Maysmor, Robert le Eyr of Partone, William de Eweny, David ap Adam, Henry de la Halle, John de Rouslon, and John ap Ithel, who say that

William le Walssehe of Walvesthop was seised in his demesne as of fee on the day that he died of one messuage and one virgate of land in Wolvesthrop, which he held of the King in chief as of the barton of the lord the King next Gloucester, which is of the ancient demesne of the King, paying therefor 10s. and suit at the court of the said barton from 3 weeks to 3 weeks for all service. Isabella [Queen of] England has the said barton in dower by the assignment of the King that now is. The said messuage is worth per annum 3s. There are there 110 acres of arable land, which are worth per annum 36s. 8d., price of the acre 4d.; also 6 acres of meadow, which are worth per annum 12s., price of the acre 2s.

The said William also held on the day that he died of the Prior of Lantoney next Gloucester one virgate of land at . . . ugg' by knight's service, and he pays at the feast of St. Michael 1 lb. of pepper. The said virgate of land contains 40 acres of land, and they are worth per annum . . . 4d., price of the acre 4d. Also 4 acres of meadow which are worth per annum 6s. 8d., price of the acre 20d.

The said William le Walsshe also held the manor of Lanwaryn in Netherwent of Richard Talebot and Elizabeth his wife of [the inheritance] of the said Elizabeth, one of the heirs of Adomar de Valencia, as parcel of the castle of Godrich, by the service of the tenth part of a knight's fee. There is there one messuage, and it is worth per annum 6s. There are there 300 acres of arable land, which are worth per annum 50s., price of the acre 2d. Also 10 acres of meadow, and they are worth per annum 20s., price of the acre 2s. There is there . . . which is worth per annum 10s. There are there free tenants who pay per annum of cert rent 14s. at the feast of . . .

He also held on the day that he died the manor of Dynan of the Earl Mareschal, as of the honour of Stroguyll, by Welsh knight's service. There is there one messuage, and it is worth per annum 6s. 8d. There are there . . . acres of arable land, and they are worth per annum 66s. 8d., price of the acre 2d. And 12 acres of meadow, which are worth per annum 20s., price . . . Also 6 acres of several pasture, and they are worth per annum 6s., price of the acre 12d. There are there free tenants who pay per annum of cert rent 18s. 6d. at the feasts of Easter and St. Michael by equal portions.

Andrew, son of the said William, is his next heir, and is aged 24 years and more.

Richard Belers.

Inquisition taken at Gloucester before Thomas de Rodbergh, sheriff of Gloucester, on Monday in the Morrow of Palm Sunday, 3 Edward III [1329], by the oath of John Lonhant, Richard de Cronham,

John atte Forde, Thomas atte Orchard, Adam de Oldebury, Thomas Helewow, William Laurence, Simon Passemer, Robert Gille, John de Wydyccombe, Walter le Clerk of Chirchusdon, and John le Ku of Brocworth, who say that

It is not to the damage or prejudice of the King or others if the King should grant to Richard Belers that he may retain and have for his whole life of the King and his heirs, by the service therefor due and accustomed, the manor of Elkeston, except the advowson of the Church of the said manor, which is held of the King in chief, and which he acquired of John de Acton to him and Isabella his wife for their whole lives, the licence of the lord the King thereupon not having been obtained, paying therefor yearly to the said John £10. The said manor is held of the King in chief by the service of one knight's fee, and is worth per annum, clear, according to the true value thereof, £10.

Eighteen marks of rent in Wyneston, which are held of the King in chief by the service of the fourth part of one knight's fee, remain to the said John and his heirs besides the said manor; also the manor of Irne Acton, which is held of Hugh Daudele in chief by the service of one knight's fee, and is worth per annum £5, remains to the said John and his heirs besides the said manor.

Chan. Inq. p.m., 3 Edward III, 2nd Nos., No. 43.

John de Sancto Amando.

Inquisition taken before Simon de Bereford, the King's escheator this side of Trent, at Southcerneye, 18th February, 4 Edward III [1330], as to what manors, lands, and tenements John de Sancto Amando held in his demesne as of fee on the day he died in the co. of Gloucester, by the oath of William Erchebaud, William de Pulham, Robert Barbast, Richard atte Hyde, Walter de Caumpedene, William de Caumpedene, Walter Bolefen, John le Maloun, Roger de Ledecote, Warren le Grys, John le Franckeleyne, and John atte Halle, who say that

The said John had no lands in co. Gloucester, but that formerly he held the manor of Southcerneye in chief of the Earl of Hereford, and with the said manor enfeoffed William de Harewelle, chaplain, long before [his death], to hold to him and his heirs for ever.

Edmund, Earl of Kent.

Inquisition¹ taken before the King's escheator this side of Trent, at Cirencester, on Thursday next after the feast of St. Hilary,

4 Edward III [1331], as to the value of the knights' fees and advowsons of churches which belonged to Edmund, late Earl of Kent, and the lands and tenements which were his in co. Gloucester on the day he died, by the oath of Robert Barbast, Warren le Grys, Walter de Caumpedene, Geoffrey Pacy, John de Wyndesore, John de Cotes, William de Sodgrove, Thomas de Eggesworth, Walter Bolefen, William . . . s, Richard ale Halle of Stratton, and William de Caumpedene, by virtue of a writ of the King hereunto sewn, who say that

BARNDESLE.

The said Earl of Kent held [the manor of] Barndesle. There is there one court next the park, whereof the hall, with the rooms and other houses, and one small . . . are worth nothing per annum beyond the reprise. There is a certain close, the pasture of which is worth 2s. per annum. There is another court in the vill of Barndesle, the easements of the houses of which, with the close adjacent, are worth 3s. 4d. per annum. There are 192 acres of arable land worth 58s. per annum, 40 acres being worth 6d. per acre and 152 acres 3d. per acre. And there is a certain meadow lying at Cirencester, belonging to the lordship of Barndesle, which is called Dittenham [?], the first vesture of which belongs to the said lordship, and it lies within the close of the Abbot of Cirencester. It contains 8 acres and is worth 16s., the price of the acre 2s., and not more, because the whole pasture and the other profit per annum beyond the first vesture belongs to the said Abbot. And there is another meadow at Barndesle called Pountemore, containing 4 acres, worth 6s. per annum, the price of the acre 18d. The pleas and perquisites are worth 6s. 8d. per annum. There is a certain park there, containing 100 acres, the pasture of which is worth 60s. per annum, and not more, on account of the reprise in repairing the walls. There are 54s. 11d. rent per annum, which 9 free tenants pay. And there are 5 villein virgators, who pay 37s. 6d. rent per annum, and their works and customs are worth per annum 12s. 6d. And there are 18 villein half-virgators, who pay 67s. 6d. per annum, and their works and customs are worth 22s. 6d. per annum. And there are 4 villein fardellars, who pay 7s. 6d. per annum, and their works and customs are worth 2s. 6d. per annum. And there are 6 cottagers [?] there, who pay 8s. 9d. per annum, and their works and customs are worth 4s. 2d.

Knights' Fees and Advowsons.

John le Hont holds of the lord of Barndesle half a knight's fee in Colesburne, and it is worth 60s. per annum. Elias Cokerel of Iccombe hold of him half a fee, worth 100s. per annum.

The advowson of the church there belongs to the Earl of Hereford and not to the lord of the manor.

MUSARDERE.

They say that the said Edmund held the manor of Musardere on the day he died. There is there one chief messuage, with certain houses in the park, and no close besides the park, and they are worth nothing beyond the reprise. And there is one meadow containing one acre, worth 12*d.* per annum. And one park, in which there are 7 acres of underwood, one acre of which can be sold every year, worth 12*d.* In the same park there are 40 acres of great timber, from which there is no yearly profit, because there is no underwood, and no pasture because it is beech. There are 60 acres of pasture in the park, worth 40*s.* per annum beyond the repair of the walls and maintenance of the wild animals. There are in demesne 96 acres of arable land, worth 3*d.* per annum per acre, total 24*s.* And 4 acres of wood outside the park, from which there is no yearly profit without waste. The pleas and perquisites are worth 2*s.* yearly. There are 8 free tenants there, who pay 55*s.* 2*d.* per annum. And 4 villein half-virgators, who pay 20*s.*, and their works and customs are worth 13*s.* 4*d.* yearly. And there are 3 villein ferdellars, who pay 8*s.* 6*d.* per annum, and their works and customs are worth 5*s.* per annum. And there is one water-mill, which is demised to William le Muleward for the term of his life, paying yearly 18*s.* And there are 7 cottagers, who pay 12*s.* 3*d.* per annum. And 4 villeins, who hold half a virgate [?] and do no works, paying 26*s.* 8*d.* yearly.

Knights' Fees and Advowsons.

The advowson of the church there belongs to the said manor, and the church is worth 100*s.* yearly. There are no knights' fees belonging to the said manor.

Total value of the manor of Musardere, £11 10*s.* 9*d.*

SODYNTON.

The said Earl held on the day he died the manor of Overe Sodynton. And there is one court there, viz. a hall, chamber, grange, ox-shed, with garden and curtilage, worth yearly beyond reprise 3*s.* And one dovecote, worth 3*s.* 4*d.* per annum. And 204 acres of arable land, each acre worth 3*d.*, total 51*s.* And 38 acres of meadow, worth 12*d.* per acre, 38*s.* And 4 acres of pasture, worth 4*d.* yearly, 16*d.* The pleas and perquisites are worth 3*s.* per annum. There are 10 villein virgators there, who pay 65*s.* 9*d.*, and their works and customs are worth 65*s.* yearly. And one villein half-virgator, who pays 3*s.* 10½*d.* per annum, and his works and customs are worth 3*s.* 3*d.* per annum. And there are 2 cottagers, who pay 2*s.* per annum. The tallage of the villeins is worth 20*s.* yearly.

Knights' Fees and Advowsons.

No knights' fees or advowsons of churches belong to this manor.

LECHELADE.

The said Earl held on the day he died the manor of Lechelade. There is there one court, viz. chambers, grange, ox-shed, and other houses, with garden and curtilage, worth 2s. per annum beyond reprise. And one dovecote, worth 40d. And one close called Mereham, worth 40d. per annum. And 468½ acres of arable land, worth 4d. per acre, total £7 16s. And of meadow to be mown 800 acres, worth 18d. per acre, total £60. There is several pasture, viz. 200 acres worth 3d. per acre, total 50s. The pleas and perquisites, with the tolls of the borough and fair on St. Lawrence's day, are worth £4 yearly. There is of the rent of the borough per annum £4 13s. And there are 33 free tenants, who pay yearly £6 19s. 5½d., and their works and customs are worth yearly 3s. 9d. And 15 villein virgators, who pay £4 17s. 6d. per annum, and their works and customs are worth £9 4s. 3½d. per annum. And there are 18 villein half-virgators there, who pay 58s. 6d., and their works and customs are worth 110s. 7½d. per annum, beyond the reprise which the villeins receive from the lord. And there are 12 cottars there, who pay 10s. 8d. per annum, and their works and customs are worth 5s. 4½d. per annum. And 8 tenants who hold forlands and pay 8s. 1d. per annum, and their works and customs are worth 2s. 1d. per annum. And there is one cottager next the smithy, who pays 18d. per annum. And there is a tallage of the bond tenants, which is fixed at a certain sum per annum, viz. 100s.

Knights' Fees and Advowsons.

The advowson of the Priory of Lecchelade belongs to the lord of the manor, and is worth nothing per annum because he takes nothing, except that he presents the Prior who is elected for the time after a vacancy of the said priory.

The advowson of the vicarage of Lecchelade belongs to the lord of the manor, and the said vicarage is worth £10 per annum.

There are no knights' fees belonging to the said manor.

Total of the value of Lecchelade manor, £115 9s. 7½d.

All the said manors were held by the said Edmund of the King in chief to the same Earl and the heirs of his body lawfully begotten.

The said Edmund held a yearly farm of £65, payable by the men of the vill of . . . [illegible], and a farm of £30 from the Abbot of Cirencester [?] . . . of Cirencester and suit of the hundreds, the which farm the same Abbot . . . to the King's exchequer.

Total of the farms, £95.

New reference, Edward III, File 24.

William de la Grene and John de Bagworth.

Inquisition taken before Simon de Bereford, the King's escheator this side of Trent, at Bristol, on Saturday next before the feast of St. Valentine, 4 Edward III [1330], by virtue of the King's writ hereunto sewn, by the oath of Edmund le Blount, John de Oldbury, John de Standene, Thomas Payn, Geoffrey Broun, William le Waleys, Richard Pesson, Robert Caumpe, John de Alkeleye, Thomas Jurdan, Gilbert de Stanshawe, and Richard le Knyght, who say that

It will be no damage to the King or any other if he permit William de la Grene and John de Bagworth to assign the manor of Westhanam to the Abbot of Keynesham, to hold to him and his successors for ever, in part satisfaction of 10 marks worth of land and rents per annum, which the abbey had permission to acquire, under letters patent of Edward II, from their own fee or any other, excepting only lands held of the said King in chief.

They say the chief messuage, with a carucate of land, 6 acres of meadow, 4 acres of wood, and 15s. rents of that manor, are held of William de la More by the service of 1cs. per annum for all service, and that the premises are worth 66s. 8d. per annum beyond the said rent, and William de la More is the only intermediary between the proposing grantors and the King.

One water-mill, 3 acres of meadow, and 6 acres of wood of the said manor are held of Thomas de Berkeleye, Lord of Berkeleye, by the service of 1 lb. of cummin per annum for all service, which premises are worth yearly, beyond the said rent, 30s. The said Lord of Berkeleye is the only intermediary [as above].

Forty acres of land, 5 acres of meadow, and 6s. of rent of the said manor are held of John de Button by the service of 2d. per annum for all service; they are worth 20s. per annum beyond the said rent. John de Button holds the said premises of Hugh de Audele and Margaret his wife, as of the pourparty falling to her of the Honor of Gloucester. These are the only intermediaries.

One virgate of land at La Beche of the manor aforesaid is held of the Prior of Bath by the service of 5s. per annum for all service, and is worth 13s. 4d. per annum. There are no other intermediaries.

Total value of the whole manor per annum, £6 10s.

There will remain to the said William de la Grene, beyond the said grant, one messuage and one carucate of land in Upton, worth 46s. 8d. per annum. They are held of John de Button by the service of 2s. per annum for all service.

There will remain to the said John de Bagworth one messuage and 2 virgates of land in Okeford in the manor of Marsfeld, worth 60s. per annum.

The said messuages and land are held of the Abbot of Kenysham [sic] by the service of 1 lb. of cummin per annum for all service. These premises will suffice for doing the customs and services due as well from the said manor as from the other lands and tenements retained by them, and for bearing all such other charges, such as suits, views of frankpledge, etc., etc., which they have been accustomed to bear.

Bartholomew de Badelesmere.

Inquisition made at Wynchecombe before the King's escheator, 24th January, 4 Edward III [1331], by virtue of the King's writ hereunto sewn, by the oath of John Athelard, William Moryn, Alexander de Schiplake, Walter Thurbern, Simon de Lekhamtone, Edward de Sprotham, Hugh de Seuerne, William Pollard, Ralph Rikild, Peter de Albon, Geoffrey de Tedynton, and Simon de Astone, who say that Bartholomew de Badelesmere, lately deceased, was seised in his demesne as of fee after his marriage with Margaret his wife, viz. in 5 Edward II [1311], of the manor of Oxindone, held of the heirs of the Earl of Gloucester, as of the manor of Teokesbury, by the service of one knight's fee. It is worth £20 10s. 8d. per annum. The said Bartholomew, after seisin had of the said manor, therewith enfeoffed William Tochet by fine levied before the Justices of Common Pleas, 5 Edward II, to hold to the said William and the heirs of his body lawfully begotten, with reversion, in default of such heirs, to the said Bartholomew and his heirs. William afterwards died without such heir, wherefore the manor has reverted to Giles de Badelesmere, son and heir of the said Bartholomew, who is a minor in the custody of the King.

Edmund de Plecy.

Inquisition taken before the King's escheator (upon a writ framed upon the petition of Maud, who was wife of Edmund de Plecy, for dower in her late husband's lands) at Cirester, 18th February, 5 Edward III [1331], by the oath of William Erchebaut, Thomas Don, Warren le Grys, John de Colne, Richard de Stanford, Geoffrey Patyn, Nicholas atte Hide, Walter Caumpedene, Walter Bolfen, Simon Francleyn, John Francleyn of Dagdingworth, and William Barbast, who say that Edmund de Plecy enfeoffed Hugh le Despenser, the elder, in fee simple, about the feast of the Purification of the B.V.M., 16 Edward II [1322], with a messuage in the vill of Barndeslegh, 2 carucates of land, 10 acres of meadow, and 102s. 11d. annual rent, after the celebration of the marriage of the said Edmund and Maud. On the day of the said feoffment Edmund held the premises to himself and his heirs for ever, as of the inheritance of John le Plecy [sic], his father. They are now in the King's hands by reason of the minority of Edmund, son and heir of Edmund, late Earl of Kent. They are held of the Earl of Herford by the service of half a knight's fee, and are worth £8 13s. per annum.

Nicholas de Plecy, son of the said Edmund, is his next heir, aged 14 and more.

Thomas le Despenser.

Inquisition taken before the King's escheator at Stowe St. Edward on Monday next after the feast of St. Gregory the Pope, 5 Edward III [1331], by the oath of Hugh le Spencer, William de Wotton, William Rolfe, William Thomekyn, William Medecroft, William de Dorne, Robert Huchinnes, William de Nethercote, Stephen atte Cruyce, John de Nethercote, Richard Templer, and William Dod, who say that

It will be no damage to the King or any other to allow Thomas le Despenser to assign one messuage, 10 acres and half a virgate of land, and 8 acres of meadow in Wyke to a certain chaplain to celebrate daily in the church of Wyke in honour of the B.V.M., to hold to the said chaplain and his successors to celebrate as above in aid of their maintenance.

The said messuage, land, and meadow are held of John de Somerton by the service of $\frac{1}{4}d.$ per annum, paid at Michaelmas, for all services; they are worth 20s. per annum. John de Somerton holds the premises of William de Lucy, and he of the heirs of Geoffrey de Geneuile, and they of the King.

There will remain to the said Thomas, after the said gift, one messuage and 2 virgates of land in Wykerisindone, held of William de Lucy by the service of 5s. yearly, and suit at his court every 3 weeks, for all services; they are worth 40s. per annum.

Walter de Borghton.

Inquisition taken before the King's escheator at Stowe St. Edward on Monday next after the feast of St. Gregory the Pope, 5 Edward III [1331], by the oath of Walter de Bradewelle, Walter de Fordinbone, Stephen atte Cruys, William de Nethercote, John le [Franc]leyn, Bartholomew Mariz, John Stephens, John de Nethercote, John atte Welle, William Tomekin, Robert Huchin, and Richard Gotchild, who say that

It will be no damage to the King or any other to allow Walter de Borghtone, vicar of the church of Erdinton, to assign one messuage, one mill, one virgate of land, and 5 acres of meadow in Wykeresindone to a certain chaplain to celebrate divine service daily in the chapel of the Blessed Mary of Borghtone, for the soul of the said Walter and his ancestors, to hold to the said chaplain and his successors in aid of their maintenance. The premises are held of the Prior of Kylneworthe, by the service of paying 2d. every year at Michaelmas for all services; they are worth 30s. per annum. The said Prior holds the premises of the King in chief in frankalmoin.

There will still remain to the said Walter one messuage and one carucate of land in Borghtone, which will suffice for doing all the customs, etc., due, so that the heirs of the said Walter can be put upon all assizes, juries, and other recognizances whatsoever, as his ancestors were before the aforesaid gift.

Master Elias de St. Albans.

Inquisition made at Hameswell before the King's escheator in co. Gloucester, 19th December, 5 Edward III [1331], by the oath of William de Mohun, Roger de Frompton, John Aueray, Adam atte Hyde,

John Poul, Hugh atte Watere, William le Taillour, Nicholas de Wotton, Richard Lange, Adam le Hert, John de Radeford, and William le Hunte, who say that

It will be no damage to the King or any other to allow Master Elias de St. Albans, parson of the church of Wetheresfeld, to assign a moiety of the manor of Tatewyke to the Prior of Bath, to hold to him and his successors for finding two chaplains, viz., one monk chaplain to celebrate in the cathedral church of the said priory, and another secular chaplain in the parish church of Coldasshtone, for the souls of the said Elias and of John de Sobbury, clerk, and their ancestors, and to pay 20s. every year on the anniversary of the said Elias for masses to be celebrated for his soul, and 5s. to be distributed on the same day to the poor. Except that, if the said Elias, or any other secular person holding the said moiety of the manor, were to forfeit to the King, or to owe any tallage, the King (as they understand) ought to have year and day and waste, and, by means of the said grant, would have no profit whatever from the said moiety, nor of the tallage aforesaid. The said moiety is held of the said Prior of Bath by homage and fealty, and by doing suit at the court of the hall of the said priory every 3 weeks; it is worth 5 marks yearly. The Prior and convent hold the said moiety from the King in frank almain. There will still remain to the said Elias the manor of Wollauinton, which is held of the Abbot of Radynges, by what service they know not, and it is worth £20 yearly.

⁽³⁾Henry Husee.

Inquisition taken at Saperton before the King's escheator in co. Gloucester, 8th March, 6 Edward III [1332], by the oath of John de Frompton, Robert Croufte, Adam atte Rokewode, Elias Bistrugge, Thomas Robert, William Porter, Nicholas Rolues, Hugh Ferrey, Thomas atte Rokewode, Henry Michel, Walter atte Forde, and Hugh de Blakewell, who say that Henry Husee held in his demesne as of fee on the day he died. a moiety of the manor of Saperton, from the King in chief by the service of one-fourth part of a knight's fee.

There is there one chief messuage worth nothing beyond reprises ; and 80 acres of arable land worth 20s. per annum, 3d. per acre ; and 6 acres of several pasture worth 12d. per annum, 2d. per acre ; and one acre of meadow worth 18d. per acre ; and 10 acres of great wood, the pasture whereof is worth 12d. per annum, and not more because of the shade. There are 4 customary tenants, who pay 26s. 8d. per annum for their works and services at the 4 principal terms of the year in equal portions. The pleas and perquisites of the court are worth 12d. per annum.

The said Henry also held, as above, a moiety of the manor of Rusyndon from the King in chief by the service of one-fourth part of a knight's fee. There is there one messuage, with a garden adjacent, worth 3s. per annum ; and 120 acres of arable land worth 40s., 4d. per acre ; and 10 acres of meadow worth 20s. per annum, 2s. per acre ; and £4 rents of assize per annum of free and bond tenants, payable equally at the said terms. The pleas and perquisites of the court are worth 2s. per annum. Total, £7 4s.

Henry^{*}Husee, son of the said Henry, is his next heir, and is aged 30 and more.

Thomas, son and heir of Thomas de Aston.

Proof of age taken at Gloucester before the King's escheator, 23rd March, 6 Edward III [1332], by the oath of John Mareschal, aged 50, who says that Thomas, son and heir of Thomas de Aston, was 21 on Thursday, the feast of St. Nicholas, 5 Edward III [1331], and that he was born at Lye, co. Gloucester, and baptized in the church of Westburi on the same day. On the same day the deponent's son John was ordained priest by the Bishop of Worcester in the town of Gloucester.

Peter Somervyl, aged 60, testifies as above, because on that same day John Chaumpayn married his daughter Margaret in the same church of Westburi.

Richard Pipard, aged 47, testifies as above ; his eldest son Robert was born on the same day and baptized in the same church.

Edmund de Bavertone, aged 43, testifies as above ; on the same day he married his first wife Julian in the same church.

John Barbe, aged 50, testifies as above ; on that same day his son Nicholas assumed the religious habit in the order of Friars Preachers of Gloucester.

William atte Pole, aged 40 and more, testifies as above ; on that same day his father John went to the Holy Land, where he died.

John Frankelayn, aged 50 years, testifies as above ; at the birth of the said Thomas the deponent's wife Maud was the midwife of Eleanor, mother of the said heir.

John le Haukere, aged 40 and more, testifies as above ; he has a son William, who was born within 4 weeks of the said heir.

Reynold de Combwell, John son of Peter de Okle, John Seyeshul, Henry le Peyntour, John atte More, and Edmund le Taillour, all aged 40 and more, testify as above ; on the said feast of St. Nicholas they were with the Abbot of Flexle at Flexle, and a certain messenger came announcing the birth of the said Thomas.

John Daubeney.

Inquisition taken at Gloucester before Roger de Chaundos, the King's escheator in co.'s Gloucester, Worcester, Hereford, Salop, and Staffs, with the March of Wales adjoining, on Tuesday next after the feast of St. Michael, 6 Edward III [1332], by the oath of John de Ledene, Thomas de Mattesdone, William Laurence, John atte Groue, William Fynamour, Walter Ingel, William Ingleytz, William Foket, John le Clerk, John Ernezat, John Saunsomp, and Nicholas le Deuenishe, who say that

It will be no damage to the King or any other to allow John Daubeney to enfeof Elias de Godeleye with his manor of Kyngeshome next Gloucester, which is held of the King in chief, to hold to the said Elias and his heirs of the King and his heirs by the services thereupon due and accustomed for ever, so that the said Elias may regrant the same to the said John and Cicely his wife, to hold to them and the heirs of the said John by the said Cicely for ever, with remainder, in default of such heirs, to the right heirs of John. The manor is held by the service of being keeper of the door of the King's pantry at every coronation of a King, and is worth £10 per annum. There will remain to the said John the manor of Henton in co. Southampton, held of the King in chief by the service of finding one armed man in the King's wars, wheresoever it may be within the four seas, at his own expense for 40 days.

Michael Minihot.

Inquisition taken at Gloucester before Roger de Chaundos [as in the last Inquisition], 7th August, 6 Edward III [1332], by the oath of John de Rosceleye, William de Tyderintone, William Mayel, John de Weston, William Folet, Alexander Soiournant, Robert de Cromhale, Thomas Leftz Richard, John atte Wyniard, William Ingleytz, Walter Glode, and John Saunson, who say that

It will be no damage to the King or any other to allow Michael Minihot to retain the manor of Coldrey, which he acquired (without the King's license) from the Prior of Goldclyue, who held it of the King in chief, to hold to the said Michael for his life, and to his executors or assigns for one year after his death, paying the services and customs thereupon due to the King; except that, had the manor been in seisin of the said Prior and Convent, on a vacancy of the said priory, during the said Michael's life, the King would [sic] receive the issues of the said manor, during the vacancy, together with the other lands and tenements to the said priory belonging. The manor is held in frank almain, and by no other service. It is worth 100s. per annum.

Besides the said manor the said priory holds in co. Gloucester the manors of Goldclyve, Assche, and Morberne, worth £40 per annum, held of the King in chief in frank almain.

Margaret, who was wife of John Giffard.

Inquisition taken at Gloucester before John de Annesle and Robert de Astone on the feast of SS. Philip and James, 6 Edward III [1332], according to the tenor of the King's writ (in consequence of the petition of John de Wylington) for Master Pancius de Coutrone, by mandate of the said John de Annesle and Robert de Astone, on the said day at the manor of Gutyng [sic], to be summoned by two free and lawful men, viz. Thomas Botevileyn and Roger le Coke of Farcote, viz. on the Morrow of Palm Sunday last, as the sheriff of Gloucester returned before the said John and Robert, by the oath of Robert Barebast, John de Avenynge, Adam le Heyward, William de Mareys [?], John Lehont, John de Staundene, Roger de Middeltone, John le Broke, John atte Halle, John atte Bury, John de Westone, and Nicholas le Taylour, who say that

Margaret, who was wife of John Giffard, was seised in her demesne as of fee of 62s. rent in Weston Brut, payable by certain tenants, viz., Adam Thomas, Adam le Coke, Richard le Clerk, John Senare, Thomas Jones,

Richard Senare, Agnes Hughes, and William Est, as parcel of the manor of Weston Brut, on the day that Hugh le Despencer the younger forfeited to the King, the which rent, together with the manor aforesaid, the said Margaret had by gift of Maud Brut and Alice, her sister, and Lawrence Trisham, at Easter, 9 Edward II [1315], to hold to the said Margaret and her heirs for ever; by virtue whereof the said Margaret continued her seisin of the said rent till the feast of the Purification, 19 Edward II, on which day the said Hugh unjustly disseised the said Margaret of the said rent, claiming the said rent to be parcel of the manor of Guytinge, which manor he had of the gift and feoffment of the Hospitallers; whereas it was never parcel of that manor, but from time immemorial has been parcel of, and belonging to, the manor of Weston Brut, and so it was by disseisin. And he continued his seisin of the same rent until the feast of SS. Peter and Paul in the same year, when the said Margaret resealed the said rent into her hands, and from that time was seised thereof in peaceful seisin until the feast of the Ascension, 1 Edward III, when she enfeoffed John de Wylynton with the said manor and rent, to hold to him and his heirs for ever, obliging herself and her heirs to warrant the same to the said John and his heirs.

And the said John, by virtue of this feoffment, continued in seisin thereof till the feast of St. Matthew, 5 Edward III, when the said rent was taken into the King's hands by William Trussel, the King's escheator, by the King's writ to him directed; but for what cause the jury know not.

Neither the said Margaret, nor the said John, nor any other having right in the said rent, ever quitclaimed the said rent to the said Hugh, or to the Templars, or to King Edward II, or to the present King.

The rent is held of the Earl of Oremounde by the 20th part of a knight's fee.

Edmund de Babertone of Gloucester.

Inquisition taken at Gloucester before Roger de Chaundos, the King's escheator in co.'s Gloucester, Worcester, Hereford, Salop, and Staffs, with the March of Wales adjoining, 12th October, 6 Edward III [1332], by the oath of William de Whit, John Bokeler, William de Poterne, Hugh de Foyze, Adam Blakemon, Henry Brid, John de Clyfford, John Soty, Richard de Bradenstoke, Richard Austyn, Richard Pode, and John atte Lampulle, who say that

It will be no damage to the King or any other to allow Edmund de Bavertone of Gloucester to assign one messuage and 2½ acres of land in Gloucester, Uptone, and Chirchesdone to the Abbot of St. Peter's, Gloucester, to hold to him and his successors, in part satisfaction of £20 worth of lands and yearly rents, which the abbey has the King's license to acquire in fee. The premises are held of the said Abbot by the service of paying 4s. 4d. per annum, and doing suit to the court of the said Abbot twice a year, viz. at his Barton next Gloucester. The premises are worth 6s. 8d. per annum; there is no intermediary between the King and the said Edmund except the said Abbot.

There will still remain to the said Edmund one messuage and one carucate of land in Bavertone, in co. Hereford, held of Edward de Boun by the service of paying 5s. per annum for all service; also 22s. rent in Gloucester, held of the Abbot of St. Peter's, Gloucester, and of the Prior of St. Oswald's, Gloucester, by the service of 19d. per annum for all service. The messuage and land in Gloucester are worth £4 2s. per annum.

Thomas de Kanynges.

Inquisition taken at Theokesburi before the King's escheator in co. Gloucester, 7th April, 6 Edward III [1332], by the oath of Gregory le Mariner, John Sampson, Simon Pendok, Adam Cr . . . yn, Richard Freman, John de Soleres, Thomas de Stowe, Thomas Odde, William de Flateburi, William Nygas, Walter Jory, and John atte Elme, who say that

It will be no damage to the King or any other to allow Thomas de Kanynges, parson of the church of Tarente Monks', to assign one messuage, one virgate of land, 3½ acres of meadow, and 11s. 1½d. rent in Goringtone and Clyve Bishop's to the Abbot of Teukesburi, to hold to him and his successors for ever, in part satisfaction of the lands and rents to the value of £10 per annum, which the said abbey has the King's license to acquire.

The messuage, land, and 13½d. rent are held of the said Abbot by the service of paying 12d. per annum for all service; 10s. rent and 3½ acres of meadow are held of the Bishop of Hereford [?] by the service of paying 10d. per annum to his manor of Clyve for all service. The premises, exclusive of the said rent, are worth 40s. per annum, and are charged with a yearly rent of 10s. to the church of St. Mary of Clyve, and 12d. to the Brethren of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem, from time immemorial. There are no intermediaries between the said Thomas and the King except the said Abbot and Bishop. There will still remain to him one messuage and one carucate of land in Goderintone, and one carucate of land in Asshetone, held of the said Abbot by the service of half a knight's fee.

Henry, vicar of the church of Asshetone.

Inquisition taken at Lechelade before the King's escheator in co. Gloucester, 11th June, 6 Edward III [1332], by the oath of Thomas Dun, John le Massoun, Geoffrey Patyn, Philip Richard, Richard atte Cote, William Barbast, William de Lydecote, Simon atte Felde, Ralph Cousyn, John Malicorn, Robert Blide, and John le Fremassoun, who say that

It will be no damage to the King or any other to allow Henry, vicar of the church of Asshetone, to assign a certain piece of land in Estleche Turville, 136 feet long by 52 feet wide, contiguous to the parsonage-house of Osbert Dabetot, parson of the church of that vill, to the said Osbert, to hold to him and his successors, parsons of that church, for the enlargement of the said parsonage for ever.

The said land is held of the Abbot of Bruera, without doing any service for the same, as is said; and the Abbot holds of Richard Comyn, and Richard of Theobald de Verdon, and he of the King in chief.

There will still remain to the said Henry 100s. worth of land and rents in Leye, held of the Abbot of Theukesburi by fealty and by the service of doing suit at the said Abbot's court every 3 weeks.

William de Ouille.

Inquisition taken before the King's escheator at Bath on Friday next after the feast of St. Mary Magdalene, 7 Edward III [1333], by the oath of Robert Bauent, John Beket, Thomas Neel, William de Bernewode, John Balou, Thomas de Combe, William le Vynour, Philip Vowel, William de Berewik, William Swayn, Walter de Euerdoñ, and Robert Warde, who say that

The said William Ouille held, on the day he died, the manor of Knolle¹ of the King in chief for the term of his life, as of the Honour of Brunsfeld castle by the service of doing fealty and suit at the court of the manor of Schernton, which is a member of the said castle, every

3 weeks for all service, by demise of Thomas de Gournay of Inglescombe. The said manor of Knolle is worth yearly, viz., in easement of the houses, with the pasture of one garden, 3s. 4d.; one ruinous dovecote, 2s.; 200 acres of arable land, which, when not sown, lie in common, 16s. 8d.; 16½ acres of meadow, 16s. 6d.; 6 acres of several pasture, 18d.; 100 acres of spinney, lying in common and in the King's chase, nothing except housbote and heybote for the said manor, and this by view of the foresters for the time being; rents of assize at Easter, 6s. 1d.; rents of assize at Michaelmas, 7s.; works of the villeins, 8s. 6d. per annum; perquisites of the court, 2s. Total, 63s. 7d.

Another Inquisition taken before Henry le Gulden, the King's escheator, at Bristol, in Templestrete, on Saturday next before the feast of St. Margaret the Virgin, 7 Edward III [1333], by the oath of Robert Bauent, John de Lauyntone, . . . de Woritone, Thomas Wombstrong, William Broune, William de Marlebergh, Henry atte Mulle, John Goce, John Bat', Adam le Vair, Thomas Purs, and William Dammory, who say that

In 2 Edward III William Ouille alienated the said manor of Knolle to Thomas de Gournai of Inglescumbe in fee, who demised it to the said William for term of his life.

Walter Gasselyne.

Inquisition taken at Bristol before John de Peyto the younger, the King's escheator in the counties of Hereford, Gloucester, Worcester, Salop, and Stafford, with the Marches of Wales to the same counties adjoining, 6th May, 7 Edward III [1333], by the oath of Robert Caumpe, Richard Pesson, Adam Neel, John Hambrock, John Auerey, Geoffrey Broun, Adam Honypyn, Robert le Fremon, Simon Fremon, William atte Wode, Henry atte Wode, and John Richard, who say that

Walter Gasselyne had, on the day he died, in his demesne as of fee in co. Gloucester, in the vill of Fromtone Cotel, one messuage with a garden, worth 2s. per annum. There is one dovecote worth 2s. per annum; and 152½ acres of arable land, worth 25s. 5½d., 2d. per acre, because every third year it is fallow; there are 9½ acres of meadow, worth 9s. 3d., 12d. per acre; and 4 acres of meadow worth 2s. 8d. per annum, 8d. per acre, because every third year it lies in common. There is a several pasture containing 2 acres, worth 18d. per annum, 9d. per acre; and a certain piece of wood, the underwood of which is worth 12d. per annum. There are 12 free tenants, who pay 50s. 9d. per annum, each of them paying 4s. 2½d.

All the said tenements are held of the King in chief by the service of one-fourth part of a knight's fee, and by suit at all the county [courts] held at Gloucester from Easter until Michaelmas, for all other service. Total, £4 14s. 4½d.

The said Walter also held, as above, in the vill called Wynterbourne, a certain piece of waste ground worth 16d. per annum. And there are 3 water-mills there, 2 of which pay a toll of 17 quarters of corn per annum, worth 45s. 4d., price per quarter 2s. 8d., and 6 bushels of oat flour, worth 4s. 6d., price 9d. per bushel; and the third mill pays 17s. per annum there. There is a cottage worth 2s. 6d. per annum, and 2 free tenants, who pay 6s. per annum, 3s. each.

All these tenements in Wynterbourne are held of Margery le Moun, Henry de Haddon, John de Brokenbarewe, and Philip de Cerne, by the service of 9s. for all other service. Total, £3 8s. 8d.

The same Walter also held, as above, in the vill of Stoke Gyffard, one messuage worth 12d. yearly; there are 51½ acres of arable land there, worth 12s. 10½d. per annum, 3d. per acre, because common in the third year; and 11 acres of meadow worth 22s. per annum, 2s. per acre; and 2½ acres of meadow worth 3s. 4d. per annum, 16d. per acre; and 4 acres of several pasture worth 3s. 6d. per annum, 10½d. per acre.

All these tenements are held of Margery Gyffard, by the service of suit at her court of Stoke Gyffard twice yearly for all other service. Total, 42s. 8½d.

The said Walter also held, as above, in the vill of Westerleye, 18 acres of furze worth 3s. per annum, because it cannot be cut oftener than every sixth year, of the Bishop of Bath and Wells, by the service of 2s. for all service. Total, 12d.

William, son of Walter Gasselyne, is next heir of the same Walter, and was 11 years old on the third day after the feast of the Epiphany last past.

John de St. Philibert.

Inquisition taken at Gloucester before John de Peyto, the King's escheator [as in last Inquisition], 8th April, 7 Edward III [1333], by the oath of John le Massoun, John de Walleye, John de Southrop, Adam de Dumbelton, William atte Groue, Richard de Mayesmor, Walter Syward, William de Solers, Richard le Smith, John de Bekcote, William Mareys, and John le Vey, who say that John de St. Philibert was seised, on the day he died, in his demesne as of fee of the manor of Thormertone, with the advowson of the church there, and of the manor of Southrop, held of the King in chief by the service of half a knight's fee.

In the manor of Thormerton there is a messuage worth nothing beyond the reprise; 80 acres of arable land worth 20s. per annum, 3*d.* per acre; 2 free tenants, who pay 4*s.* 6*d.* per annum at the 4 chief terms of the year, viz., the feasts of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, St. Michael, St. Thomas the Apostle, and the Annunciation, in equal portions; the pleas and perquisites of the court there, with the 'view,' are worth yearly 2*s.*

In the manor of Southrop is one messuage with a garden, worth 12*d.* per annum; 100 acres of arable land, worth 25*s.* per annum, 3*d.* per acre; one dovecot in bad state, worth 12*d.* per annum; there is one water-mill worth 13*s.* 4*d.* per annum, 2 parts of which belong to the said manor of Southrop, and are worth 8*s.* 10½*d.* There are 10 acres of meadow there, worth 20*s.* yearly; 3 free tenants, who pay 11*s.* 1*d.* at the above-said terms in equal portions; 6 customary tenants, who pay 15*s.* per annum, viz. 2*s.* 6*d.* each at the said terms; 3 cottars, who pay 3*s.*, 12*d.* each. There are 6 customary tenants whose Summer and Autumn works, viz. from Whitsuntide to Martinmas, are worth 30*s.* for the whole time. The pleas and perquisites of the court, with the view of frankpledge, are worth 3*s.* 4*d.* yearly.

The said John de St. Philibert and Ada his wife held jointly in Thormerton one messuage and one carucate of land called Muttonescourt, and 32*s.* yearly rent, which they purchased to themselves jointly from John Pachet, who had previously held the same from John de St. Philibert by homage and fealty, and suit of court, and scutage, when it fell due, in the proportion of the said tenement. This tenement is worth 20*s.* per annum.

John, son of the said John de St. Philibert, is his next heir, and was 6 years old at the feast of the Epiphany last.

Robert de Housom and Lawrence Bruton of Chepyngnorton.

Inquisition taken at Wynchecombe before John de Peyto, the King's escheator [as in Inquisition last but two above], 27th July, 7 Edward III [1333], by the oath of Richard de Blebury, Thomas de Newyntone, John de Bracebrugge, John le Maltman, Thomas de Farnecote, Henry Keys, William de Pysele, Roger le . . ., Nicholas le Welbe, Robert Quayle, Henry le Warde, and William le Carpenter, who say that

It will be no damage to the King or any other to allow Robert de Housom and Lawrence Bruton of Chepyngnorton to assign 10 acres of land in Sudle to the Abbey of Hayles, in part satisfaction of £10 worth of land which that abbey has license under letters patent of Edward II to acquire. The said 10 acres are held of Henry Blundel by the service of one grain of corn for all service; the said Henry holds of John de Sudle by the service of 18d. per annum, and John of the King in chief by the service of one knight's fee. The land is worth 20d. per annum, 2d. per acre, and not more, because it can be sown only every second year.

There will still remain to the said Robert 5 marks rent issuing from divers tenements in Gloucester, held of the King in chief by the service of paying 12d. yearly to the farm of Gloucester, at the exchequer there. And there will remain to the said Lawrence of Chepyngnorton one messuage and a carucate of land in Chepyngnorton in co. Oxon.

Thomas de Rodeberewe.

Inquisition taken at Monks' Hampton (Minchinhampton), 18th May, 8 Edward III [1334], before John de Peyto the younger, the King's escheator [as before], by the oath of Adam de Claule, John de Claule, William de Tyderyntone, Adam Hardyng, Robert Kynne, Henry Glenaunt, William atte Bournor, John atte Mulne, William atte Berewe, Richard Dauwe, Richard Cole, and Geoffrey Coterych, who say that Thomas de Rodebergh died seised in his demesne as of fee of one messuage, 158 acres of arable land, 57 acres of meadow, 10 acres of pasture, 2 water-mills, and one windmill in Mager. The messuage is worth 12*d.* per annum; of the 158 acres 2 parts can be sown, and when sown are worth 4*d.* per acre; they were so sown before the said Thomas' death, and one-third lies fallow, and is worth nothing per annum, because it is in common. The 10 acres of pasture are worth 6*s.* 8*d.* per annum, 8*d.* per acre; the mills are worth 100*s.* There are 3 tenants there who hold by knight's service, viz., William Duraunt, holding half a knight's fee in Suthroc; William de St. Maur, holding half a fee in Wondi; and Robert de Gamages, holding half a fee in Rodyate.

There are 60 free tenants who pay £7 3*s.* 5½*d.* per annum, viz. at Michaelmas £6 13*s.* 11¼*d.* and at Hockeday 9*s.* 6½*d.* There are 27 tenants in villeinage, who pay £6 11*s.* 3*d.* per annum, viz., at Michaelmas, 37*s.* 9*d.*; at the feast of St. Thomas the Apostle, 31*s.* 2*d.*; at the feast of the Annunciation, 31*s.* 2*d.*; and at the feast of St. John the Baptist, 31*s.* 2*d.* The pleas and perquisites of the court there are worth 6*s.* 8*d.* per annum. The whole is held of the King in chief by the service of one-fourth of one-sixth of one knight's fee. Total, £24 15*d.*

The said Thomas died seised [as above] of 24 acres of arable land called Chaumberleyneslond, worth 6*s.* per annum, 3*d.* per acre; and there are 48*s.* rent there from a certain fee called Avenelesfe. This land and rent are held of the Earl Marshal as of the castle of Strugull, by what service they know not. Total, 54*s.*

The said Thomas held in the manor of Munchenehamptone one messuage and garden worth 2*s.* per annum; there is one dovecot newly built and not stocked, worth 2*s.* per annum; there are in demesne 40 acres of arable land, 2 parts of which can be sown yearly, and when sown are worth 3*d.* per acre, and the third part is worth nothing because it lies fallow and in common; and there are 3 acres of meadow worth 3*s.* per annum, 12*d.* per acre. There is no pasture there. There is a certain profit in the common wood of Muchenehamptone, from the tenants dwelling there, which is worth 3*s.* 4*d.* per annum, and if the tenants do not dwell there, then it is worth nothing per annum, because it cannot be sold or given. And there are 7 free tenants there who pay 17*s.* 10*d.* per annum, at the feasts of the Annunciation and of St. Michael in equal portions. These tenements are held of the Abbess of Caen, as of her manor of Munchenehamptone, in socage, by the service of paying 19*s.* 7*d.* yearly at the 2 said terms in equal portions, and ploughing a 3 days' ploughing yearly (which is worth 9*d.*, 3*d.* per day), and by carrying the lady's corn in Autumn for one day (and this carriage is worth 4*d.* per annum), and by doing one bederepe with 2 men for one day (worth 4*d.*). Total, 36*s.* 3*d.*

The said Thomas also held one messuage at Hawnepenne, which

(with the close) is worth 12*d.*; and there are 80 acres of arable land, half of which can be sown yearly, and when sown is worth 6*s.* 8*d.* (2*d.* per acre), and not more, because the land is hilly and stony; and the other half is worth nothing yearly, because it lies fallow and in common. And there are 3 acres of meadow worth 3*s.* (12*d.* per acre); and a certain parcel of pasture worth 12*d.* per annum; and 9 free tenants who pay 39*s.* at the said 2 feasts in equal portions. These tenements are held of the Prior of St. John of Jerusalem as of his manor of Quenyntone, in socage, by the service of paying 5*l.* yearly at the feasts of Michaelmas, St. Thomas the Apostle, the Annunciation, and St. John the Baptist. Total, £31 2*s.* 2½*d.*

Hugh, son of Hugh de Rodberg, is cousin and next heir of the said Thomas, and was 13 at the feast of All Saints last past.

William, son of William le Marchal of Kyngestanley.

Proof of age of William, son of William le Marchal of Kyngestanley, made there 22nd May, 8 Edward III. [1334], before John de Peyto the younger, the King's escheator [as above], by the oath of John Nocelyn, John Clauyle, Gilbert le Carpynter, William Dispenser, Walter de Fétstret, Thomas le Bacar, Hugh de Dodebrugge, Richard Thursteyn, Walter le Deyer, John le Gurnay, John le Weler, and Richard Pynnock, who say that

The said William, son of William Marchal, is aged 21 years and 6 weeks and more. He was born in the vill of Kyngestanleye, and baptized in the church of that vill on Thursday, the feast of Rogations, 2 Edward II.

John Nocelyn says that on that same Thursday his daughter Alice died at Gloucester, and was then buried at the church of St. Oswald.

John Clauyle says that on the preceding Wednesday William de Tyderyntone married Margaret de Heygraue, his kinswoman, at Stauertone next Gloucester.

Gilbert le Carpenter says that on the Saturday after that Thursday the Bishop of Landaad [sic] came to Kyngestanley and consecrated a certain altar of St. Katherine in the church thereof.

William Dispenser says that on that same Thursday John de Feckenham, chaplain, was instituted in the church of Bradeley.

Thomas le Bacar says that on the Friday following Agnes, his wife, had gone to Gloucester, and on the way she fell and broke her right leg.

Hugh de Dodebrugge says that on the previous Monday his son Adam became a brother in the House of St. Augustine at Oxoneford.

Richard Thursteyn says that on that same Thursday he and several others were robbed in the forest of Dene, between Gloucester and Tynterne Abbey.

Walter le Deyer says that on that same Thursday John le Taverner of Circestre came to his house by the road next the wood of Weyendone, and met with thieves, who murdered the said John and despoiled him of £10 of silver.

John le Gurnay says that on the preceding Wednesday his brother Sir Richard, vicar of Ledeneye, was buried.

John le Weler says that on the Friday following his sister Elizabeth fell into a certain marlpit in his close next "le Leyecroft" and broke her neck.

Richard Pynnock says that on that Thursday he was godfather to John, son of William Despenser, who was baptized in the same water as the said William.

Henry de Berkleye.

Inquisition taken at Dursleye, 5th July, 8 Edward III [1334], before John de Peyto the younger [as above], as to the cause of the taking of 8 acres of meadow of Henry de Camme in Dursleye, by the oath of Peter Staynescombe, Robert atte Zate, William le Boteler, Walter atte Mulle, Walter le Clerk, Richard le Harpur, John atte Wodehende, Robert Passelewe, Alexander Bernewode, Richard atte Zate, Thomas Hallyng, and William de Stonhuse, who say that Henry de Berkleye held the manor of Dursleye to him and his heirs from Edward II in chief by the service of one knight's fee, and he granted to Ralph de Camme and Henry, his son, for their lives 8 acres of meadow in the said manor, without license from the King, and for this reason the King's escheator seized the said 8 acres 10 years since. The land is worth 13s. 4d. per annum.

Henry de Berkeley, Ralph de Camme, and Henry de Camme are all dead. John de Berkeley is next heir of the said Henry, and is aged 40.

William de Grandisson.

Inquisition made at Oxenhale before Adam de Wileby, the King's escheator [as above], 12th July, 9 Edward III [1335], by the oath of John de Okle, Richard de Hertelande, Henry de Hertelande, Walter

Markoulf, Thomas Not, Walter Hathewy, John de la Moure, Walter Sterdene, John de Reued, William atte Groue, Richard Waryn, and William de Kelforde, who say that

William de Grandisson held in his demesne as of fee on the day he died the manor of Dymmok of the King in chief, of the King's ancient demesnes, by the service of paying 1*d.* yearly to the King at Christmas for all services. There are no buildings or demesnes in the same manor, but there are 3 acres of meadow, worth 4*s.* 6*d.* per annum, 18*d.* per acre; and a water-mill, worth 13*s.* 4*d.* per annum, and not more, because it is ruinous; and a wood, in which there is no underwood and the pasture common. There are rents of assize of sokemen, £28 per annum at the feasts of the Annunciation, St. John the Baptist, St. Michael, and St. Andrew in equal portions. The pleas and perquisites of the court there are worth 6*s.* 8*d.* per annum.

The said William also held [as above] the manor of Oxenhale of the heirs of Geoffrey de Genevyle by the service of half a knight's fee. There is a messuage there, worth nothing beyond the maintenance of the houses; a courtyard, worth 6*d.* per annum; one carucate of land, worth 20*s.*, and not more, because every year one-third lies fallow and in common, and it is also sandy. There is a small park, the pasture of which is worth nothing beyond the maintenance of the wild animals, and the underwood is worth 40*d.* per annum. There is a large wood, the underwood of which is none and the pasture common; 3 acres of meadow, worth 3*s.* 6*d.* per annum, 14*d.* per acre; 60*s.*, the rents of assize of free tenants at the 4 abovesaid terms; 13*s.* 4*d.*, the rents of assize of customary tenants payable at the said terms. The pleas and perquisites of the court there are worth 12*d.* per annum.

Peter de Grandisson, son of the said William, is his next heir, and was 30 at Christmas last.

Thomas de Canyngges.

Inquisition made at Teukesbury, 8th July, 9 Edward III [1335], before Adam de Wileby, the King's escheator [as above], by the oath of John Strayt, John Russel, Robert Mudy, John le Tannere, Philip le Knyght, Richard Louecok, Nicholas de Manyngford, Henry ate Were, William de Cliue, John le Spicer, Richard Foliot, and Richard de Wallone, who say that

It will not be to the damage of the King or any other if he allow Thomas de Canyngges, parson of the church of Tarente Moneketone, to assign one messuage and 2 virgates of land in Twenyngge to the Abbey of Teukesbury in part satisfaction of the lands and rents to the value of £10 yearly, which they have license to acquire under letters patent of Edward II. The said messuage and land are held of William de la Zouche of the inheritance of Eleanor his wife by the service of carrying the letters of the lord of Teukesbury wheresoever the lord shall will within the four seas, viz. in England and Wales, and his own cost, and paying 6s. 8d. per annum, and doing 16 bedripes in the Autumn season, and finding one man for 16 days at the Summer working to make hay, and for another 16 days at hand labour in digging the vines and collecting grapes on the vines for 3 days, and by the service of being keeper of the lord's victuals whenever the lord wills, and being the lord's granger. And the premises are worth 6s. 8d. per annum.

William de la Zouche, by reason of the inheritance of Eleanor his wife, is intermediary between the King and the said Thomas with regard to the premises.

There will remain to the said Thomas one messuage and one carucate of land in Staneweie, held of the Abbot of Teukesbury by paying 16s. per annum, and doing suit at the Abbot's court of Staneweie; they are worth 40s. per annum.

Robert de Sapy.

Inquisition taken at Gloucester before the King's escheator in that county, 2nd January, 10 Edward III [1337], by the oath of Henry de Chakshulle, Richard Billing, Richard Vyel, John de Heydone, John de Cromhale, Nicholas Pultone, John Coly, Walter Hanuyll, John de Okle, Richard de Hurstesle, Richard de Carswell, and Henry Bynare, who say that Robert de Sapy, deceased, held no lands of the King in chief in his demesne as of fee in co. Gloucester on the day he died; but he held of the inheritance of his wife Alina, who survives, one-fourth of the manor of Westbury of Edmund de Bohun by the service of one-fourth part of a knight's fee.

There is there one capital messuage, worth nothing per annum beyond reprises; and 80 acres of arable land, worth 40s., 6d. per acre; and 10 acres of meadow, worth 20s., 2s. per acre; and 26s. 8d. of rents of assize at the 4 chief terms of the year in equal portions. There is one water-mill, worth 10s. per annum. The perquisites of the court are worth 12d. per annum.

The said Robert and Alina also held jointly the manor of Huntele from the Earl of Lancaster, as of Monemuthe castle, by the service of one-tenth of a knight's fee for the term of their lives, with remainder to John de Wysham and his heirs for ever by gift and grant of William de Rostele. There is a messuage there, worth 3s. 4d. per annum; and 120 acres of land, worth 2d. per acre; 6 acres of meadow, worth 9s. per annum, 18d. per acre; and 30s. of rents of assize at the 4 terms of the year in equal portions. There is one water-mill, worth 6s. per annum; 40 acres of great timber, the pasture whereof is worth 20d. per annum, and not more, because of the shade. The pleas and perquisites of the court there are worth 2s. per annum.

William, son of John de Sapy, nephew [nepos] of the said Robert, is his next heir, and is aged 29 and more.

John de Sudley.

Inquisition taken at Wynchecombe before the King's escheator, 25th April, 10 Edward III [1336], by the oath of Robert de Charyngworth, Ralph Bastyn, John Dykoun, John Ippewell, Richard Warde, Thomas le Carpenter, John Whyte, Henry Blundel, Richard Patyn, John Maltman, Richard le Frend, and Thomas Coleman, who say that John Sudley held no lands of the King in chief, nor of any other, in his demesne as of fee on the day he died in co. Gloucester, but he held the manor of Sudley for the term of his life by the enfeofment of Ralph de Derset by fine levied in the court of Edward II, with the license of that King, holding the same of the King and his heirs, with remainder to John, son of Bartholomew de Sudley, and Eleanor de Scales, and the heirs of the bodies of the said John and Eleanor.

The manor is held of the King in chief by the service of 1½ knight's fee. There is a capital messuage, worth nothing beyond reprises; 300 acres of land, worth 75s., 3d. per acre when they are sown, and nothing when they are not sown, because they lie in common. This year 140 acres thereof were sown before John's death at the Winter sowing, and 80 acres were sown at the Lent sowing before his death, and the rest lie fallow and in the common field. There are 20 acres of several pasture, worth 10s. per annum, 6d. per acre; and 10 acres of meadow, worth 15s., 18d. per acre; 100 acres of wood, of which 10 acres can be felled every seventh year, and are then worth 2s. per acre; 10 acres were felled this year before John's death. There are £16 rents of assize of free and bond tenants, viz., at the feast of St. Kenelm £8, at Michaelmas 60s., and at the feast of the Annunciation 100s. The pleas and perquisites of the court there are worth 10s.

John, son of Bartholomew de Sudley, is kinsman and next heir of the said John the elder, and is 30 years old.

Margaret, who was wife of Fulke le Fitz Waryn.

Inquisition taken at Alweston before the King's escheator in co. Gloucester, with the March of Wales adjacent, 10th July, 10 Edward III [1336], by the oath of Henry de Brokkeworth, William de Puryton, John de Weston, William de Tiderington, John de Alkeleye, Richard de Alkeleye, John de Veel, Richard Launderey, Osebert le Rych, William le Bryd, Adam Alpays, and Roger Corbet, who say that Margaret, who was wife of Fulke le Fitz Waryn, held one-third of the manor of Alweston for the term of her life, of the inheritance of Walter, son and heir of Walter de Gloucestre, deceased, a minor in the custody of the King, by the service of one-third of a knight's fee.

There are 69 acres of arable land there, worth, when sown, 17s. 6d. per annum, 3d. per acre. There were sown this year, before the death of the said Margaret, 23 acres at the Winter sowing, and 23 acres at the Lent sowing, and 23 acres are lying fallow, the value of which is 1d. per acre, and not more, because they lie in common for the greater part.

There is one-third of a messuage, with a garden adjacent, worth 12d. per annum. And the third of 2 dovescotes, worth 2s. per annum; and 6½ acres of meadow, worth 9s. 9d. per annum, 18d. per acre; and a several pasture worth 4s. per annum. There are 40 acres of great timber, the pasture whereof is worth 3s. 4d. per annum, and not more, on account of the shade; and the underwood therein is worth 3s. per annum. There are 24s. 1d. [sic] rents of assize, viz., at Michaelmas 7s. 2d., at Christmas 7s. 8d., at the feast of the Annunciation 8s., and at the feast of St. John the Baptist 2s. 3d. There are the works of 1½ customary tenants worth 18s. per annum, viz., at Michaelmas 3s. 4d., between Michaelmas and Easter 6s., between Easter and the Gule of August 2s., thence to Michaelmas 2s. There is one-third of a windmill, worth 3s. per annum; one-third of the Hundred, worth 2s.; one-third of 2 views of frankpledge held at Michaelmas and Hokeday, worth 13s. 4d. per annum.

Walter de Gloucestre, son of the said Walter de Gloucestre, deceased, is next heir of the said Walter, and is 21 and more [sic].

John de Bohun, Earl of Hereford.

Inquisition taken at Gloucester before the King's escheator, 19th February, 10 Edward III [1336], by the oath of Nicholas de la Newelonde, Henry Kek, Richard ate Hoke, John Wyldesuyr, Elias Segar, Richard le Smyth of Hexlynge, William de Maldone, John Dudebrugge, John Barbe, Adam in the Felde, and William le Walkare, who say that John de Bohun, late Earl of Hereford, held in his demesne as of fee, on the day he died, the manor of Whitenhirste of the King in chief by knight service, but by how much service the jury do not know.

There is there a capital messuage, with a courtyard adjacent, worth 3s. 4d. per annum; 268 acres of arable land, worth, when sown, £8 19s. 3d., 8d. per acre; of these there were sown this year at the Winter sowing 160 acres, and the rest lie fallow and in common. There are 48 acres of meadow, worth £7 4s. per annum, 3s. per acre; and 38½ acres of several pasture, worth, from the feast of the Invention of the Cross to Martinmas, 48s. 1½d., 15d. per acre; and from Martinmas till the feast of the Invention of the Cross, nothing, because it lies in common. There are 30 acres of wood, of which 6 acres can be cut every seventh year, and are then worth 6s. The underwood thereof was cut one year before the death of the Earl, so that no underwood can be sold there within the next 6 years. There is a water-mill demised at a yearly rent of 50s., payable at the feasts of St. Michael and the Annunciation. There is a fulling mill demised at farm from old time for 28s. yearly at the said feasts; and 25s. 2d. rents of assize of free tenants in equal portions at the said feasts; and 35s. of the rents of customary tenants, payable as above, for certain lands thus demised to them from old time. There is a certain custom of the customary tenants at Michaelmas, 13s. 4d. The works of the customary tenants, between Michaelmas and the feast of the Purification, are worth 60s.; thence to the Gule of August, 40s.; thence to Michaelmas, £4. There is a tallage of the customary tenants at Michaelmas, 20s. The pleas and perquisites of the courts, with the fines, are worth 30s. per annum. Total, £32 11s.

Humphrey de Bohun, brother of John de Bohun, late Earl of Hereford, is next heir of the said John, aged 25 and more.

Thomas Crook of Gloucester and Robert Dabetot.

Inquisition taken at Gloucester before the King's escheator in co. Gloucester, 8th October, 10 Edward III [1336], by the oath of Adam Pode, Stephen le Eyr, Peter de London, Adam de Clyue, Roger de Clyfford, Richard de Rodmerlye, William Ernald, John Lamput, Ralph le Visshere, William Crysp, Thomas Swayn, and William Deyesons, who say that

It will be no damage to the King or any other to allow Thomas Crook of Gloucester, clerk, to grant a messuage and 4 shops in Gloucester, and Robert Dabetot $4\frac{1}{2}$ acres of land in Colethrop, to the Abbey of St. Peter of Gloucester, in part satisfaction of £20 worth of land and rents which they have the King's licenses by letters patent to acquire. The premises are held of the abbey by the service of paying 10s. yearly, and the abbey holds of the King in frankalmoin. The said messuage and shops are worth yearly 6s. 8d.; and the land 2s. 3d., viz. 6d. per acre. There will still remain to Thomas Crook 10s. rent in the vill of Gloucester, held of the said abbey by the service of paying 2s. yearly. Robert Dabetot will still retain 100s. lands and rents in Colethrop, held of the said abbey in free socage, by paying yearly one red rose at the feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist for all service.

Isolda, who was wife of Hugh de Audeleye, chivaler.

Inquisition taken at Stanle before the King's escheator in co. Gloucester, 4th July, 10 Edward III [1336], by the oath of William Stonhous, Gilbert de Colne, William le Despencer, Elyas . . . , Henry le Despencer, Thomas Clerkesone, William de Wyke, Richard atte Hoke, Elyas Segar, Walter le Dyar, . . . Lessy, William de Maldon, John Godman, and Walter le Heyward, who say that

It will be no damage to the King or any other to allow Isolda, who was wife of Hugh de Audeleye, chivaler, to assign 2 messuages and 58 acres of land in Estyntone to a certain chaplain to celebrate daily for the souls of Waller de Balun, chivaler, of the said Hugh and Isolda, their ancestors and heirs, in the church of St. Mary of Estyntone. The premises are held of John de Meoles in socage by fealty; the messuage is worth 2s. per annum and the land 19s. 4d. John de Meoles holds the premises of the Earl of Hereford, and he of the King.

There will still remain to the said Isolda the manor of Estyntone, held of the said John de Meoles by the service of one-fourth of a knight's fee; it is worth £30 per annum.

Henry, Earl of Lancaster.

Inquisition taken at Flaxleye, 13th April, 10 Edward III [1336], before Robert de Sapy and John de Lodelowe, in the presence of John Joce, lieutenant of Guy Brian, keeper of the Forest of Dene, summoned by the said Robert and John, by the oath of Osbert Malemort, Elias de Blakeney, John de Bykenore, Robert ate Strode, John Rolf, William le Wodeward, Peter le Marreys, William le Fauconn, Henry Bonkes, Roger Jurdan, Richard de Falleye, and John Drailasz, who say that Henry, Earl of Lancaster, lord of the manor of Rodleye, and his ancestors, and all lords of the said manor, which is in the forest aforesaid, from time immemorial have been accustomed to have estovers of their weirs of the manor aforesaid of the branches, for repair thereof, and daily to look for such branches with two horses once every day in the King's said forest, from the feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross until the feast of the Invention of the Holy Cross, and not longer in the year. And such estovers are worth yearly between the two said feasts 4s. The said lords have moreover been accustomed to have estovers of great timber for the repair of their said weirs, when they were broken down by floods, which estover is worth, in common years, 6s. 8d. Neither the said Earl, nor his predecessors, have ever remitted to the King or his progenitors their right in such estovers. The said Earl was first hindered by Guy Brian, now keeper of the said forest, at Christmas, 9 Edward III, the said Guy refusing to deliver such estovers without the King's special precept. The Earl's tenants of the said manor have no right or custom to have estovers for their weirs.

John, son of John Chaumpeneys.

Inquisition taken at Sobbury before the King's escheator in co. Gloucester, 7th July, 10 Edward III [1336], by the oath of Philip Longe, William de Rennesbury, Robert Dane, Robert Gopeshull, William Hereward, Robert . . . l, Robert Dalkeleye, John de Wykwyk, John Joye, John Ponel, Adam Mortestreyt, and John Hereman, who say that

It will be no damage to the King or any other to allow John, son of John Champeneys, to retain a messuage and one carucate of land, which he acquired from John Lydierd, and Lydierd from John Champeneys, and he from Thomas Trepyn, and Trepyn from Thomas Noreys, and he from Anselm Gourney, who held from Edward I in chief, all without license from the King.

The said carucate of land contains 4 virgates, and 20s. annual rent, and 2 windmills, the whole held of the King in chief as parcel of the manor of Aylberton by the service of 2d. yearly for all service. The messuage is worth 2s. per annum, and the land 20s., viz. 5s. per virgate, and the 2 mills 10s.

John Lyderd retains no lands or tenements beyond the abovesaid premises.

Hugh Poyntz.

Inquisition taken at Tokyntone before the King's escheator in co. Gloucester, 10th June, 11 Edward III [1337], by the oath of Thomas de Doudeswell, John de Brokenebergh, William de Cnere, John de Westone, John de Alkele, Richard Pesshou, Richard de Alkele, John Tony, John Nichol, Robert Bosse, John le Veel, and Richard Laundry, who say that

Hugh Poyntz did not hold any lands or tenements of the King in chief, or of any other, in his demesne as of fee on the day he died in co. Gloucester, but he held the manor of Tokyntone for the term of his life by feoffment of Nicholas Poyntz, parson of the church of St. Mary of Hoo, and of Hugh de Meliplashe, parson of the church of Corymalot, by fine levied thereof in the King's court, to hold for his life, with remainder to Nicholas Poyntz, son of the said Hugh, and the heirs of his body begotten.

The said manor is held of Hugh Daudele as of his manor of Thornburi, which is parcel of the earldom of Gloucester, by the service of one-half of a knight's fee. There is in the said manor a capital messuage, worth nothing per annum beyond reprises; 122 acres of arable land, worth 30s. 6d. per annum, 3d. per acre, when they are sown, and worth nothing when not sown because they lie in the common field. This year 80 acres thereof were sown before Hugh's death at the Winter and Lent sowings, and the rest lies fallow and in the common field. There are 42 acres of meadow, worth £4 4s. per annum, 2s. per acre; a certain park, the pasture whereof is worth nothing because of the shade of the trees, and there is no underwood. There is £22 10s. of the rents of assize of free and customary tenants, together with the works of the same customary tenants, the rents payable in equal portions at the terms of St. Michael, St. Andrew, the Annunciation, and the Nativity of St. John the Baptist. The pleas and perquisites of the courts there are worth 6s. 8d. per annum. Total, £28 11s. 2d.

Nicholas Poyntz, son of the said Hugh, is his next heir, and is aged 17.

Eleanor, who was wife of Hugh le Despenser.

Inquisition taken at Teukesbury before the King's escheator in co. Gloucester, 18th July, 11 Edward III [1337], by the oath of John le Tanner, Robert Mundy, William March, John le Heyr, Robert de Alstone, William le Knych, Stephen Lucas, William Belle, John Toulemounde, John Cosel, William de Pulle, and Simon Launde, who say that

Eleanor, who was wife of Hugh le Despenser, held in her demesne as of fee on the day she died the manor of Teukesbury of the King in chief by the service of one knight's fee. In this manor there is a capital messuage, with a close adjoining, worth nothing per annum beyond the keeping up of the houses. There are 400 acres of arable land in demesne, of which 270 acres were sown before the said Eleanor's death, and are worth £4 10s. per annum, 4d. per acre; 130 acres cannot be valued, because they lie fallow and in common for the whole year. There are 85 acres of meadow, worth £6 7s. 6d. per annum, 18d. per acre; 54 acres thereof were mown before the said Eleanor's death. There are 40 acres of pasture, worth 20s. per annum; and a certain park with wild animals, where there is no underwood because it was laid waste in the time of the said Eleanor, and the pasture is worth nothing beyond the maintenance of the said wild animals. There is a windmill there, which cannot be valued because it is in a bad state and so broken down that it cannot grind. There is a fishery, which pays 9d. at Michaelmas; and rents of assize of free tenants £12 12s., at the feasts of Christmas, the Annunciation, the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, and St. Michael equally. There are 114 burgess tenants, and $\frac{1}{2}$ and $\frac{1}{4}$ of a burgage, who pay yearly at the said terms 114s. 9d. They also pay at the said terms 35s. 5d. for 70 $\frac{1}{2}$ acres of arable land, which they hold at fee farm. And they pay at the said terms of a certain custom, which is called "Fulstale," and for stallages 24s. There are 46 customary tenants there, who give at the Winter sowing 2 quarters 7 bushels of corn, worth 9s. 7d., viz. 3s. 4d. the quarter. And they plough at the Winter and Lent sowings 16 acres 1 rood, or give among them 30s. 8d., viz. 6d. per acre [sic]. And they give at Christmas 184 hens, worth 15s. 4d., viz. 1d. per hen. And each of the said customary tenants works, from Michaelmas to the feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, every week 5 works, each work worth $\frac{1}{2}$ d., except on feast-days, Saturdays [sabat.], Christmas week, the 3 days in Easter week, and the 3 days in Whitweek; and from the said feast of St. John to Michaelmas each of them does 5 works per week, each work worth 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ d., excepting Saturdays and feast-days when they occur. And there are 2 views of frankpledge there, held at Michaelmas and Hokeday, worth £7 12s., viz. at Hokeday 72s. and at Michaelmas £4. The pleas and perquisites of the court there are worth 13s. 4d. per annum.

The said Eleanor held as above a certain hamlet in Archerestoke of the King in chief by the service of one-twentieth part of a knight's fee. In this hamlet there is a capital messuage, worth nothing per annum beyond the keeping up of the houses. There are 100 acres of arable land, of which 60 acres were sown before the said Eleanor's death, and are worth 20s. per annum, 4d. per acre; and 40 acres cannot be valued because they lie fallow and in common. And there are 3 acres of meadow, worth 4s. 6d. per annum, 18d. per acre. There is no several pasture. There is one mill there, which is demised at 10s. by the year, and not more, because it can grind only in the Winter. And 44s. of the rents of free tenants, payable at the said 4 terms. There are 8 customary tenants, each of whom works, from Michaelmas to the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, every week 2 works, each work worth $\frac{1}{2}$ d.; and from the said feast of St. John to Michaelmas, every week 2 works, worth 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ d.

per work. And at Christmas they give 18 hens, worth 18*d*. There are 2 views of frankpledge, held at Martinmas and Hokeday, worth 2*s*. The pleas and perquisites of the court there are worth 12*d*.

Hugh le Despenser, son of the said Eleanor, is her next heir, and is aged 28.

FAYREFORD.

Inquisition taken at Fayreford before the King's escheator this side of Trent, 20th July, 11 Edward III [1337], by the oath of Robert Barbast, Geoffrey Aylwyne, John le Mason, Walter de Caumpedene, William de Mareys, Geoffrey le Mareschal, Geoffrey Patyn, John Wlipsis, John de Colne, William le Mason, John Hyghes, and Richard de Brustowe, who say that

The said Eleanor was seised [as above] of the manor of Fayreford of the King in chief by the service of one knight's fee. In this manor there is a capital messuage, worth nothing per annum beyond the reprises of the houses; one dovecote, worth 3*s*. 4*d*. per annum. There are 480 acres of arable land in demesne, of which 240 were sown before the death of the said Eleanor, and are worth £4 per annum, 4*d*. per acre; 240 acres cannot be valued because they lie fallow and in common. There are 100 acres of meadow, worth £6 5*s*. per annum, 15*d*. per acre, of which 67 acres were mown before the death of the said Eleanor. There are 40 acres of pasture, worth 10*s*. per annum, 3*d*. per acre; a water-mill demised by the year to farm at 22*s*., payable at the feasts of the Annunciation and St. Michael equally. There is £9 13*s*. 7*d*. of the rents of the burgesses, payable at Christmas, the feasts of the Annunciation, the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, and St. Michael in equal portions. The toll of the market there is worth 10*s*. per annum by estimation. There are 35 customary tenants, each of whom works, from Michaelmas to the feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, every week 5 works, excepting the Saturdays and feast-days, and excepting the weeks of Christmas, Easter, and Whitsuntide, each work being worth ½*d*. And each of them ploughs at the Winter sowing one acre of land, and at the Lent sowing one acre, or gives for those 2 works 6*d*. And all the customary tenants owe among them, at the feast of St. Thomas the Apostle, 43*s*. And from the said feast of St. John to the Gules of August each of them does every week 5 works, excepting Saturdays and feast-days as above, and each work is worth ¾*d*. And from the Gules of August to Michaelmas each does 5 works per week, as above, each work being worth 1½*d*. Each of them does 8 boon works in the Autumn, worth 1½*d*. per work; and the said customary tenants pay amongst them in tallage, at Michaelmas, £8. There is from 2 views of frankpledge, as fixed payment at Hokeday and Michaelmas, 40*s*. The pleas and perquisites of the courts are worth 10*s*. per annum.

SOBBURI.

The said Eleanor held [as above] the manor of Sobburī of the King in chief by the service of one knight's fee. In this manor there is a capital messuage, worth nothing per annum beyond the keeping up of the houses, because the houses cost more than they yield; a dovecote, worth 3s. 4d. per annum; 460 acres of arable land, of which 307 acres were sold before the said Eleanor's death, worth 102s. 4d. per annum, 4d. per acre; 153 acres cannot be valued because they lie fallow and in common. There are 125 acres of meadow, worth £8 6s. 8d. per annum, 16d. per acre, 90 acres of which were mown before the said Eleanor's death. There are 50 acres of pasture, worth 12s. 6d. per annum, 3d. per acre. There is a park with wild animals, with no underwood, and the pasture there is worth nothing beyond the maintenance of the said animals. There is a windmill, worth 6s. 8d. per annum, and not more, because it is in a bad state and broken down; and rents of assize of free and customary tenants £11 14s. 10½d., viz., at the feasts of St. Mark 2s. 6d., of the Purification 53s. 8½d., of Easter 12s. 4d., of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist 64s. 9½d., and of St. Michael 101s. 6½d. There is rent of the burgesses £9 18s. 6½d., viz., at the feasts of St. Thomas the Apostle 5s. 9d., of Easter 6s. 4½d., of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist 6s. 9d., and of St. Michael £8 19s. 7d. There is a rent of the chymenagium of carts 2s., at the feasts of Christmas, the Annunciation, the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, and St. Michael equally. There are 2 fairs yearly, viz., one on the feast of the Ascension, worth 30s. by estimation, and the other at the feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, worth 40s. by estimation. There is a toll of the market-place there, worth 5s. per annum by estimation. There are 15 customary tenants, each of whom works, from Michaelmas to the feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, every week 2 works, excepting 2 weeks at Christmas and the weeks of Easter and Whitsuntide. And from the said feast of St. John to the Gule of August they do 2 works weekly, worth 1½d. each work; and thence to Michaelmas 3½ works per week, each work worth 2d. And each of them does 3 boon works with one man in Autumn, worth 2d. each work. The pleas and perquisites of the court there are worth 10s. per annum.

Inquisition made at Totteworth before the King's escheator, 2nd November, 11 Edward III [1337], by the oath of John Mounteny, John Agase, Richard de Kerstone, Thomas de Eggeworthe, Richard de Mortone, Thomas atte More, Philip le Coke, Roger de Wendlesworthe, Brian de Batford, Simon Aldai, William de Whiteby, and John Bray, who say that Margaret de Moeles [who was wife of Nicholas de Moeles] holds one-fifth of one knight's fee in Totteworth in the name of dower, as of the right and inheritance of John de Moeles, deceased; it is worth £10 per annum, and is now held of the said Margaret by Peter le Veel, knight. [Ibid.]

[Muriel and Isabel are daughters and heirs of the said John, aged respectively 15 and 13. A writ dated 6th October of the same year refers to Thomas de Courtenay, husband of the said Muriel.]

Manor of Whytyntone.

Inquisition taken at Bristol before the King's escheator in co. Gloucester, 31st March, 11 Edward III [1337] [upon a writ of certiorari as to tenure, etc., of the said manor], by the oath of William Polham, Robert Barebast, Geoffrey Aylwyne, Robert de Penyntone, Richard atte Hyde, William Lyllebroke, Walter de Caumpedene, John Louehot, Walter atte Hyde, Ralph Hamond, Richard atte Hale, and William Mareys, who say that

The manor of Whytyntone is held of the King in chief by great serjeanty, viz. finding for the King in each of his wars 2 armed men for 40 days at the expense of the lord of the same manor.

William de Somerville.

Inquisition taken before William Trussell, the King's escheator this side of Trent, at Tatlethrope, on Saturday next after the feast of the Epiphany, 11 Edward III [1338], by the oath of John de Slougham,

Walter atte Bradewelle, Elias de Icombe, Thomas de Icombe, William de Nethercote, John de Nethercote, Walter de Shrudyntone, Richard . . . , John de Stelherne, John de Hamwelle, Walter de Stowe, and Adam de Swelle, who say that

It will be no damage to the King or any other to allow William de Someruylle, clerk, to assign one messuage, 15½ acres of land, 2 acres of meadow, and rents of 1*d.*, and one rose in Tatlethrope to the abbey of Euesham [in part satisfaction of £10 worth of lands and rents, which the said abbey has license to acquire under letters patent of Edward II].¹ The premises are held of the said abbey by the service of 5*s.* per annum. The messuage is worth 2*s.* per annum; the arable land 5*s.* 1*d.*, viz. 4*d.* per acre; the 2 acres of meadow 4*s.* The premises are worth, beyond the service due to the lord of the fee, 6*s.* 2*d.* and one rose. The said abbey is the only intermediary between the said William and the King.

The manor of Aston Someruyll will remain to the said William and his heirs, held of the said abbey by the service of half a knight's fee, worth £20 per annum beyond reprises.

Assarts in the Forest of Dene.

Inquisition taken at Mucheldene before Philip de Clannon, Richard de la Biere, and John de Macclesfeld, clerk, lieutenants of Sir Bartholomew de Burghersh, keeper of the King's forest this side of Trent, on Wednesday next after the feast of St. Catherine the Virgin, 11 Edward III [1337], by the oath of John Joce, lieutenant of Guy Brian, keeper of the Forest of Dene and constable of the castle of St. Briauel, and of William Hathewy, William Waryn, John de Aure, John Botore, William de Staure, Henry de Dene, Henry Hathewy, John de Kedeford, William de Bikenore, John Goodwy, Robert Joce, and Henry atte Greene, foresters of fee in the same forest, and of Peter de Mareis, rider in that forest, of John de Heidon, Richard Billyng, Henry de Chaxhull, and Richard Viel, verdurers thereof, of John de Okele, Robert de Strode, and Henry de Clifford, regards thereof, of John Wyther, John le Gaynere, Walter Waties, Henry de Bonkes, William le Frenshe, Humphrey atte Boxe, Elias le Gardiner, John de Nasse, and Roger Laurence, regards elected for the day's work [pro dieta] in the place of regards dead, and of Osbert le Gaynere, John de Bikenore, John Rolfe, William Roger, Adam de Ocle, Roger Burrich', Alexander Houk', Richard de Falleye, Ralph Houk', Philip Houk', Adam Smart, and Walter Seisel, twelve lawful men dwelling within the said forest, who say that

It will be no damage to the King or any other if he allows 106 acres of the waste of his own soil in St. Briauel, Newelonde, Drakehord, Ouereuese, and Holiwall, within the bounds of the said forest, to be assarted and brought into cultivation, and to be granted and demised to certain tenants wishing to receive them, to hold to them and their heirs at certain rents to be paid yearly into the King's exchequer, because the said waste is 2 leagues distant from the cover of the said forest, and the King's wild animals do not resort there much, and because hitherto the King has received no profit from the said waste, and will receive none in the future unless it is rented out. Each acre is worth 2*d.* per annum.

Commede, John Crok', Adam Keny, Nicholas Kyngiot, Henry Smarch, Adam de Grauenhull, and Thomas Noth, who say that

The said Bogo held of the King in chief on the day he died in his demesne as of fee in co. Gloucester 6 librates of land in Grauenhull [which pay a rent of 10s. 4½d. per annum at the feasts of the Annunciation and St. Michael equally] by the service of one-twentieth part of a knight's fee.

He held also, as above, one assart containing 36 acres of land in Zarkleye next Lydeneye in the Forest of Dene, paying 10s. yearly to the King for the same, at Easter and Michaelmas equally, for all services. The assart is worth nothing beyond the said rent.

He also held for term of his life, jointly with Joan his wife, by fine levied in 12 Edward II [1318-19], one messuage, with the appurtenances, in Kylkote and Little Teynton, worth nothing per annum beyond reprises; there are 60 acres of arable land there, worth 15s. per annum, viz. 3d. per acre when it can be sown, and 20 acres were sown before the death of the said Bogo this year, and 20 acres are lying fallow for the Lent season, and the pasture is worth nothing, because they lie in common, and 20 acres are lying fallow till next year, and in common, and therefore worth nothing. There are 8 acres of meadow, worth 13s. 4d., viz. 20d. per acre when they can be mowed, and after the mowing they lie in common, and therefore the pasture is worth nothing. And all the pasture there is hilly and in common, and therefore worth nothing. There are 2 free tenants, who pay 6s. 8½d. per annum at the feasts of the Annunciation and St. Michael equally. There are 5 customary tenants there, who pay 13s. 6d. at the feast of the Annunciation, and from that feast until Michaelmas each of them will work 2 days each week, and each day's work is worth ¾d. The said tenements are held of Henry de Penebruge, as of the inheritance of Sir Robert Walrond, knight, in free socage. The pleas and perquisites of the courts in Kyllecote and Teynton are worth 3s per annum.

John, son and next heir of the said Bogo, is aged 23 and more.

The said John held no lands of the King in chief in the said county or the March of Wales adjacent in his demesne as of fee on the day he died, but he held jointly with Joan his wife, who still survives, by license under the charter of the now King, the manor of Frompton Cotel . . . as of the Honour of Wallingford by the service of one-fourth of a knight's fee. There is in that manor a capital messuage, worth nothing per annum [beyond reprises]; 80 acres of arable land, worth 20s., viz. 3d. per acre when they can be sown, and when they lie unsown or fallow they are worth nothing . . . ; 40 acres thereof were sown before the death of the said John this year, 20 acres are lying ready for sowing at Lent, and 20 acres lie fallow and in common. [There are 7 acres] of meadow, worth 10s. 6d. per annum, viz. 18d. per acre when they can be mown, and after the mowing they lie in common, and therefore the pasture is worth nothing. [And there are 6 acres of] several [pasture], worth 6s. per annum, viz. 12d. per acre. And £8 rents of assize of free tenants payable at Easter and Michaelmas; 5 customary tenants pay 24s. 6½d. per annum equally at the said feasts. There is one water-mill, worth . . . The pleas and perquisites of the court there are worth 6s. 8d. per annum.

The said John held in his demesne as of fee on the day he died . . . yate in the said county from the Bishop of Hereford by the service of half a knight's fee. There is one capital messuage there worth nothing per annum beyond reprises; one dovecote, worth 5s. per annum; one windmill, worth 10s. per annum; 100 acres of arable land, worth 25s. per annum, viz. 3d. per acre when they can be sown, and nothing when they lie unsown or fallow, because they lie in common; 44 acres [were sown] this year [before] the said John's death, 30 acres lie ready for the Lent sowing, and 26 acres are lying fallow. [There are 54] acres of meadow, worth 27s., viz. 18d. per acre; 3 acres of several pasture, worth 3s. The rents of assize of free tenants £10, payable equally at Easter and Michaelmas. There are 10 customary tenants, of whom . . . 5s. if they do not work. There is one park there, the herbage and pasture whereof are worth 3s. 4d. yearly, and not more, because the pasture . . . The pleas and perquisites of court are worth 20s. per annum.

The said John held in his demesne as of fee £19 [?] [of the rents] of free tenants in Abbyngton, payable equally at Easter and Michaelmas. The said rent is held of the Bishop of Hereford [by the service of] . . . payable to the said bishop yearly for all service.

The said John held in his demesne as of fee the manor of Sandhurst in the aforesaid [county] of the Earl of Hereford by the service of one pair of gilt spurs payable yearly at Michaelmas for all services. There is [one capital messuage], worth nothing yearly beyond reprises; 60 acres of arable land, worth 10s., viz. 2d. per acre, and not more, because . . . acres were sown before the death of the said John this year, 20 acres lie ready for the Lent sowing, and 20 acres lie fallow. [There are] 10 acres of meadow, worth 12s. 4d. per annum, viz. 14d. per acre [sic]. There are 6 customary tenants, each of whom holds half a virgate, and they will work . . . and the worth of the day's work between Michaelmas and the feast of St. John the Baptist is $\frac{1}{2}d.$, and from that feast to Michaelmas 1d. [The pleas and perquisites of the courts] there are worth 6s. 8d. per annum.

The said John held in his demesne as of fee at Polton in the Forest of Dene one messuage, worth nothing per annum beyond reprises; 40 acres of arable land there, worth 10s. per annum; 5 acres of meadow, worth 10s. per annum. These tenements are held of the Earl of Warwick by the service of one-thirtieth of a knight's fee.

Ralph de Wylington, son and heir of the said John, is aged 30 and more.

The Abbot of St. Peter's, Gloucester.

Inquisition taken at Micheldeuere on the feast of St. Andrew the Apostle, 12 Edward III [1338], before John de Maclesfeld, lieutenant of Lord Bartholomew de Burghersh, keeper of the King's forest this side of Trent, by the oath of John Joco, lieutenant of Guy de Brian, keeper of the Forest of Dene, William Hathewy, forester in fee of the same forest, and of William Waryn, John de Dure, Philip Boler, William de Staure, Henry de Dene, Henry atte Grene, Richard Wyther, Robert Elys, Robert Joco, Philip de Aylbrithone, William Maiotesone, William de Bykenore, William Mighel, John Hullere, Ro . . . de Pilesdone, Henry Robert, Henry Hathewy, John de Kedesford, forester on foot [forestař peditũ (sic)] in the same forest, of John de Norton, horseman in the said forest, John de Haydon, Richard Vyele, Richard Billyng, Henry de Chaxhulle, verdurer of the same forest, Robert de Strode, John de Ocle, Ivo de Ocle, and John de Polton, regards of the forest aforesaid, Walter Watȝes, John de Nasse, John de Reued, Thomas Dylwy, Walter Martolf, William le Bakere, Humphrey atte Boxe, and John de Blideslowe, regards elected for the day, John Wycher, Osbert Gayner, John de Bykenore, John Rolf, William Lombard, Thomas atte Welle, Thomas Gamel, Peter de Mareys, Geoffrey Gamel, Henry Boukes, Pagan de Norton, John Gayner, Adam Smart, Walter de Rugge, Robert Waldyng, Richard de Falleie, Nicholas Mody, William Faukon, and William Borrich, free tenants dwelling in the said forest, John le Frenssh, William Cholheued, John Bouerel, John Heued, and Roger Jurdan, good and free men dwelling outside the said forest, who say upon their oath that

The Abbot of St. Peter's, Gloucester, and his predecessors had the right of making, and did so make, from time immemorial, their profit of the whole wood of Hopemaloyssel at their will, as well before the perambulation of the Forest of Dene as afterwards, without disturbance from the keepers or ministers of the same forest, or the constables of the castle of St. Briaul, until they were unjustly hindered by Sir Robert de Sapy, late keeper of the said forest and constable of the same castle, the which Robert, as keeper and constable aforesaid, and his ministers of the said forest disturbed the said Abbot in making his said profit in the tenth year of the now King.

They say, moreover, that the bounds between the said Abbot's wood of Hopemaloyssel and the King's wood of the Forest of Dene aforesaid begin from the north side at Pirihalesford, leading thence by a certain path called Meresty, which divides the said wood from the bailiwick of la Lee as far as Whiteston, and from Whiteston the said bounds lead between the said wood and the bailiwick of Great Dene as far as Driebrok', and over Driebrok' to Little Haseleye, and so as far as Driebrokeswalle, and thence ascending by "le Meresty" between the bailiwick of Ruwardyn and the said wood, along which Meresty is made the ditch enclosing the assarts of Alexander de Bykenore the younger, by Oldewercheynesassh' as far as Berleyessoke.

Brymmesfeld Castle and Manor.

Extent of the castle and manor of Brymmesfeld made at Brymmesfeld before the King's escheator, 16th March, 12 Edward III [1338], by the oath of John Kenheuet [?], John de Fyfhide, William Laurence, William Pope, Simon Passemer, Thomas de Mattesdon, Thomas Passemer, William Solers of Colesbourne, Robert Kynne, John le Ven [?], John le Clerk of . . . , and Richard atte Holle, who say that

There is a certain castle there in a bad state, worth nothing per annum beyond reprises; a court [curia] outside the castle ditch, the easements of the houses of which are worth 6s. 8d. per annum; a courtyard [curtilagium], worth 2s.; a dovecot, worth 6s. 8d. per annum; 5 carucates of land, each containing 4 virgates, and each virgate 48 acres of land, worth £12, viz. 3d. per acre; 4 acres of meadow, worth 8s. per annum; 24 acres of several pasture, worth 8s. per annum; a sheep house, with a close adjoining containing 15 acres of pasture, the said house being worth 12d. a year and the pasture 4d. per acre, together 6s. per annum. And there is a park of beeches containing 200 acres, in which there is no underwood; the pasture of 100 acres under the great wood is worth 16s. 8d. per annum, viz. 2d. per acre, and the pasture of the other 100 acres 33s. 4d. per annum, viz. the pasture in the said park outside the wood, 4d. per acre. And there is a coneygarth there containing 60 acres of pasture, worth 20s. per annum, but there are no coneys there. And there is a beech wood called Bocholte, containing 300 acres, without any underwood, the pasture whereof is worth nothing, because it lies in common, but the pannage thereof is worth in common years 3s. 4d. There is a liberty there of a certain toll for carts, wains, and drays [dreyis] journeying outside the liberty of the said manor, viz., taking for each cart 2d., for each wain 4d., and for each dray 6d.; this toll is worth in common years 3s. 4d. per annum. The rents and services of the free and bond tenants there are worth £10 6s. per annum. The pleas and perquisites of the courts are worth 6s. 8d. per annum. Total, £28 6s. 8d.

Giles de Badlesmere.

Inquisition taken at Teukesbury before the King's escheator, 11th July, 12 Edward III [1338], by the oath of Robert de Alston, Nicholas the Smith [Fabri], Richard de Walton, John le Wakkare, Robert Mondy, Adam de Muche, Nicholas de Maningfor, Stephen Lucas, Reynold Knyet, William le Knyet, and John Botrych, who say that

Giles de Badlesmere, who lately died, held in his demesne as of fee the manor of Oxyndon of Hugh le Despenser by the service of half a knight's fee and suit to his court of Teukesbury every 3 weeks for all services.

There is there one capital messuage, with a garden, worth 10s. beyond reprises; one dovecot, worth 6s. per annum; 160 acres of arable land, worth £8, viz. 12d. per acre; two-thirds thereof are sown, and the remaining third is lying fallow and ready for sowing this year. There are 20 acres of meadow, worth 40s. The rents of assize of free tenants, 53s. 11½d., at the 4 terms of the year in equal portions, besides the rent of John le Pouwer, who pays 17s. 6d. per annum, viz., at Michaelmas 6s. 10½d., at the feast of St. Andrew 22½d., at the feast of the Annunciation 6s. 10½d., at the feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist 22½d. There are 8 virgators there, each of whom pays 16s. 8d. at the 4 said terms in equal portions if they do not work; and if they work, each of them is allowed out of the said sum for every working day, except Saturdays and holidays, in every week between the feasts of St. Michael and St. Peter ad Vincula ½d. per day, and between the last feast and Michaelmas 1½d. per day.

Robert Stasy holds one messuage and 2 virgates of land and meadow in Ayshdon in the manor of Oxyndon, paying 24s. 3d. per annum in equal portions at the said terms. John Dawe holds there from the said manor one messuage and one virgate of land, paying 12s. 4d. yearly as above. There are 6 customary tenants, each of whom holds one messuage and 6 acres of land, and pays 7s. 4d., as above, if they do not work. And if they work they are each allowed, between Michaelmas and the feast of St. Peter ad Vincula, 1d. for 2 days per week, and between that feast and Michaelmas, 3d. per week for 2 days. There are 4 cottars there, each of whom holds one messuage and one acre of land, and pays 4s. per annum, as above, if they do not work; and if they work an allowance is made to them as to the virgators. There is a several pasture in the spinney, worth 10s. per annum. There is a hilly pasture for the cows, worth 10s. per annum. The pleas and perquisites of the courts there are worth 20s. per annum. Total, £27 17s. 4½d.

Elizabeth, Margaret, Margery, and Maud, sisters of the said Giles, are his next heirs and of full age.

The said Giles held no knight's fees nor advowsons of churches in the said county and march.

Inquisition taken at Oxindon before the King's escheator this side of Trent, 28th May, 13 Edward III [1339], by the oath of John le Heir, William Aleyn, Thomas Alwyn, John Abot, Richard Fybet, Thomas le Smyth, William Reynald, John atte Fosse, Ralph Fyket, Arnulph Brabon, William Reyner, and John Wymer, who say that Giles de Badlesmere had in his demesne as of fee on the day he died one-sixth of one knight's fee, which John le Heyr holds in Oxindon and Pamynton, worth 100s. per annum; and one-eighth of a fee, which John le Pouer holds in Oxindon and Assheton, worth 60s. per annum.

William atte More.

Inquisition made before Richard de Venables, the King's escheator in cos. Gloucester, Worcester, Hereford, Salop, and Stafford, and the March of Wales adjacent, at Oldelond, 24th September, 14 Edward III [1340], by the oath of John de Oldebury, William Caumpe, Elias de Oldebury, Roger Auice, Robert Burnel, John Joye, John Underhull, Adam atte Hale, John Broun, Nicholas Wade, Lewelin Reyner, and Peter le Forester, who say that William atte More, deceased, held in his demesne as of fee the manor of Oldelond from the King in chief by the service of half a knight's fee. In which manor there is a capital messuage, worth nothing per annum beyond the reprises of the houses; but there is a dovecot, worth 18*d.*; an orchard, the profit of which is 2*s.* per annum, together with the profit of the courtyard and garden there. There are 180 acres of arable land in demesne, worth 60*s.* per annum, viz. 4*d.* per acre, and not more, because the land is poor and stony, and one-third lies fallow every year in common. There are 16 acres of meadow, worth 24*s.* per annum; a piece of several pasture, worth 2*s.* per annum. There are 100 acres of wood, and they are in the King's forest of Kyngeswode, the underwood of which cannot be cut on account of the receiving of the King's wild animals; the pasture thereof is worth nothing per annum, because it all lies under cover of the said forest, excepting common for his beasts. There is one-half of a water-mill, worth 10*s.* per annum; rents of assize of free and customary tenants, 112*s.*, which ought to be paid at the terms of St. Michael, St. Thomas the Apostle, the Annunciation, and the Nativity of St. John the Baptist in equal portions. The works of 4 customary tenants there, viz. for every week in the year for 2 days until the ninth hour, excepting 6 weeks in the year in the Autumn, at $\frac{1}{2}$ d. each day's work, for 46 weeks, 15*s.* 4*d.* The pleas and perquisites of the courts there are worth 6*s.* 8*d.* per annum.

The said William held 5 acres of wood, one piece of pasture, and 16*s.* 6*d.* rent in Oldelond and Upton from the Earl of Gloucester by fealty and suit at his court of Oldelond every year for all service. The underwood of that piece of wood is worth 12*d.* per annum, and the said pasture adjacent 2*s.* per annum. The pleas and perquisites there are none.

John atte More, son of the said William, is his next heir, and was aged 3 and more at the feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist last past.

Joan, who was wife of John Notelyn.

Inquisition made before John Fitz Herberd of Twycros, the King's escheator in the cos. of Gloucester, Worcester, Hereford, Salop, Stafford, and the March of Wales adjoining, at Gloucester, 12th December, 14 Edward III [1340], by the oath of Hugh le Balou, John Luffey, William de Wyke, William de Maldon, William Dunfrey, William le Mareschal, William le Despencer, Roger Horn, John Wildefyr, William atte Hoke, William le Proude, and John de Bouleye, who say that Joan, who was the wife of John Notelyn, held in her demesne as of fee of the King in chief one messuage, 60 acres of land, 2 acres of meadow, and 2 acres of wood at Kyngesstanleye, by the service of one-fiftieth part of one knight's fee. The said messuage is worth nothing, because it is all ruinous; the 60 acres of land are worth 5s. per annum when they are sown, and not more, because they lie in common and the land is stony. The 2 acres of meadow are worth yearly in Summer 2s., the 2 acres of wood nothing, because there is no underwood there, and the pasture is common.

John Notelyn, son of the said Joan, is her next heir, and was aged 35 at Michaelmas last.

Joan, who was wife of Henry le Moyne.

Inquisition taken at Shipton Moyne before the King's escheator in co. Gloucester, 26th April, 14 Edward III [1340], by the oath of William Richard, Ralph atte Wode Mulle, Walter le Warner, John son of Ralph, Robert Kynne, Robert Aylemaund, Roger Bordon, Richard de Northcote, John Dalterton, John de Wockeseye, Robert Bordon, and William West, who say that

Joan, who was wife of Henry le Moyne, held for her life, of the inheritance of the said Henry, the manor of Shipton Moyne, with the advowson of the church of that manor, by feoffment to herself and her said husband from Master Thomas de Cobeham, by fine thereof levied in the court of Edward II, to hold to them and the heirs of their bodies, with contingent remainder to the right heirs of the said Henry. It is held of the King by great serjeanty, viz. being the King's larderer. There is a capital messuage there, with a garden, worth 40*d.* per annum; a dovecote, worth 40*d.*, and not more, because it is in a bad state; 240 acres of arable land, worth 66*s.* 8*d.* per annum, viz. 4*d.* per acre when sown, and when not sown they lie in common; two-thirds thereof were sown before the death of the said Joan this year, and the remaining third is lying fallow and in common. There are 15 acres of meadow, worth 30*s.*, and after the mowing they lie in common; 6 acres of several pasture, worth 4*s.* per annum; 6 acres of great timber, but there is no underwood, and the pasture is worth nothing, because it lies in common throughout the year. There are rents of assize of free tenants, 37*s.* 6*d.* per annum, payable in equal portions at the feasts of St. Andrew, the Annunciation, the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, and St. Michael. There are 3 virgators and 4 half-virgators in bondage, who pay 66*s.* equally at the said 4 terms yearly. The pleas and perquisites of the courts there are worth 5*s.* per annum.

John le Moyne, son of the said Henry and Joan, is next heir of the said Henry, and is aged 30 and more.

Writ [in very bad state] dated 25th April, [14] Edward III [1340], directed to the Treasurer and Barons of the Exchequer, to make a search as to certain tenements held by William le Mareschal and Isabel his wife, parcel of the manor of Lechlade or of 2 parts of the manor of Bardeslegh, late belonging to Edmund, Earl of Kent, deceased, and which are in the King's hands by reason of the minority of the said Earl's heir.

On the back is endorsed the following return to the above writ:—Although by the inquisition taken of the things contained in this mandate, preserved in the Exchequer, it was found that the messuage, [water-]mill, and moiety [of a virgate of land and pasture?] in this writ contained were parcel of the said manor of Lichelade, and were contained in the extent of the manors of Lichelade, Sodynton, and 2 parts of the manor of Bardeslegh, and that William le Mareschal and Isabel his wife have paid the extent of the said messuage, mill, and moiety to Thomas de Bradeston, from the 13th January within contained; but because, before the demise made to the said Thomas of the said manors of Lichelade and Sodynton, and two-thirds of the manor of Bardeslegh, the said messuage [etc.] were committed to the said William and Isabel, and in the commissions made to the said Thomas of the said manors no mention was made of any reversions belonging to the aforesaid manors whereby the court can be informed as to the King's estate in the premises for the discharge of the said William and Isabel in this behalf, no proceedings have yet been taken.

Gloucester Castle.

Writ dated at Westminster, 4th April, 14 Edward III [1340], directed to the Prior of Lantony, to take an inquisition as to the state of the wall of Gloucester castle.

Mandate of the Prior of Lantony, as commissioner appointed for the above purpose, to the Sheriff of Gloucester, dated at Lantony on Thursday in Easter week, 14 Edward III [1340], commanding him in the King's name to cause 12 lawful men of the town of Gloucester to come before the said Prior on Saturday in Easter week, to hear and perform the things which shall then be enjoined them by the Prior on behalf of the King; and to attend himself, bringing with him the names of those so summoned, the King's letter close directed to the sheriff in this matter, and this mandate itself. On the back thereof is written: Thomas de Berkele of Cubberleye, sheriff, answers thus: This mandate was returned to William Ragoun and Henry le Draper, bailiffs of the liberty of the vill of Gloucester, who answer to me as appears in the panel hereunto annexed [viz. of the names of the twelve jurors].

The King's writ to the sheriff, as above referred to, dated 6th April, 14 Edward III [1340], directing him to summon the jurors and attend the enquiry.

Inquisition taken before the Prior of Lantony at Gloucester on Saturday in Easter week, 14 Edward III [1340], by the oath of ¹[Andrew] de Pen[edok], Edward le Taverner, Adam de Hope, Richard Shot, William Bruyn, John Cheuerel, John Bars, John le Dyare, John [de Fortho], Adam atte Hulle, Richard de Bradestoke, and William le Spycer, who say that

A certain part of the wall of Gloucester castle, viz. in the inner part thereof, 50 feet in length and 24 feet in depth, which fell on the feast of the Purification last on account of the frost which then occurred and of its bad condition, is broken down, and cannot be rebuilt for less than

Writ dated 3rd March, 14 Edward III [1340], directed to the Sheriff of Gloucester, in the matter of the recognizance made by the said John de London in the King's chancery, 8th November, 18 Edward II [1324], to John de Cotum of London, skinner, for £60, which remains unpaid. A writ of summons was issued by the sheriff for John de London to answer therefor in the chancery, but no return was made to that writ by Stephen le Spyser and Robert de Wryngton, bailiffs of the liberty of the vill of Bristol. The sheriff was thereupon ordered to enter the said liberty and summon the said John to make answer in the chancery on the Octave of Easter, 12 Edward III [1338]. The sheriff returned that the said John was not found in his bailiwick, and had no goods there; the sheriff then received a mandate to summon the tenants of the said John's land to answer as above. David Benet, the tenant, was duly summoned, but failed to appear. The sheriff is now commanded to make an extent of the said land in the presence of the said David, if he wishes to be present, and to deliver half thereof to John de Cotum, or his attorney, to hold until the amount of the said debt be raised therefrom.

Extent of the land abovesaid made at Bristol on Monday after the feast of the Ascension, 14 Edward III [1340], before Thomas de Berkele of Cubberleye, Sheriff of Gloucester, in the presence of the said David, by the oath of John Reymond, Peter de Romeneye, Clement de Romeneye, Robert atte Backe, John atte beler, John Fichet, Richard Edmund, John Spert, John atte Walle, John de Wodhull, John de Cobyndon, and John de Lym, who say that

The said David holds of the land which John de London held one tenement in Bristol, paying yearly for the same 55s. 11½d., as John de London did, and it is worth nothing beyond the said rent and the reprises for maintaining and repairing the houses.

Gloucester, 26th April, 14 Edward III [1340], by the oath of Thomas atte Hulle, Adam Mortifreyt, John atte Halle, John de Lenthale, Nicholas Wynebaut, Peter Wynebaut, John de Alkleye, Richard de Alkleye, Thomas le Bakare, John Borart, John de Weston, and Edward Hanekyn, who say that

It will be no damage [etc.] to allow John de la Ryuere to assign one messuage and 2 carucates of land in Tormarton to a certain chaplain to celebrate daily in the chapel of St. Mary in the church of Tormarton for the souls of the said John, his ancestors and his heirs. The premises are held of Sir Ralph de Wylyngton, knight, by the service of one-twentieth of a knight's fee, and are worth 60s. per annum. The said Sir Ralph is the intermediary between the said John and the King. There will still remain to the said John 20 marks' worth of land and rents in Tormarton and Luttelton, held of the said Sir Ralph by knight service.

Ralph de Shipton Moigne.

Inquisition taken at Tettebury before Richard de Venables, the King's escheator in cos. Gloucester, Worcester, Hereford, Salop, and Staffs, and the March of Wales adjacent, 2nd September, 14 Edward III [1340], by the oath of William de Kyngescote, Richard de Cherlton, Walter le [W]arner, John Hykkes, Robert Kynne, Richard de Combe, Nicholas de Milkesham, Robert de Stonhenge, Henry le Glasyare, John Caperoun, John le Bowyare, and Robert atte Halle, who say that

It will be no damage [etc.] to allow Ralph de Shipton Moigne to assign one messuage and 1½ virgates of land in Horsleye, co. Gloucester, to the Priory of Briwetone, in part satisfaction of £10 of lands, etc., which they have license to acquire under the King's letters patent. The premises are held of the said priory by the service of 3s. yearly for all service, and are worth 20s. per annum beyond the said service. There will remain to the said Ralph one messuage, one carucate of land, and 40s. rent in Shipton Moigne, held of Sir John le Moigne, knight, by the service of 12d. yearly for all service, and worth 100s. per annum.

Reynold de Abbehale.

Inquisition taken at Great Dene before John de Pertone, the King's escheator in cos. [as above], 6th September, 15 Edward III [1341], by the oath of John le Bolde, Philip le Marchal, Richard Bes . . ., Richard Yrby, John de Cromhale, John Bleyt, Peter le Mareys, Henry de Dene, Henry le Palmare, John de Lodebrok', John Draylis, and Thomas Gamel, who say that Reynold de Abbehale held in his demesne as of fee of the King in chief the manor of Abbehale, by the service of paying 30s., payable at Neuwenham to the constable of the King's castle of St. Briauel at Michaelmas every year, for all service. There is a capital messuage there, with a garden, worth 3s. 4d. per annum; a dovecote, worth 3s. 4d. per annum, and not more, because it is in a bad state; 80 acres of arable land, worth 13s. 4d. per annum, viz. 2d. per acre, when they are sown, and when they are not sown they lie in common throughout the year, and after the corn is reaped they are not several. There is no park there, nor several pasture. There are 2 water-mills, worth 20s. per annum, and not more, because they are in a bad state and ruinous. There are 4 acres of underwood, which can be cut every seventh year, and are then worth 2s., and these acres were cut this year before the death of the said Reynold. There are 24 free tenants, who pay 100s. per annum at the feasts of Michaelmas and the Annunciation equally. There are 12 customary tenants, whose rents, customs, and services are worth 22s. 5d. yearly, payable at the said terms in equal portions. The pleas and perquisites of the courts there are worth 6s. 8d. per annum.

The said Reynold held, as above, the keepership of a certain wood of the King's in the Forest of Dene by certain bounds, and malefactors to be attached there for vert and venison, and taken to the castle of St. Briauel; taking for the said keepership 'housbote' and 'heybote,' and old . . . honey, sparrow-hawks, trunks of oaks and beeches, and the bark thereof.

He held also, as above, at Stantweye, of the Earl of Lancaster, by the service of 7s. and suit at his court of Rodleye yearly for all service, one capital messuage, worth nothing per annum beyond reprises; 120 acres of arable, worth 40s. per annum, viz. 4d. per acre, when they are sown, and when not sown they are worth nothing per annum, because they lie in common all through the year. There are 50 acres of meadow, worth £4 3s. 4d., viz. 20d. per acre, which were mown before the death of the said Reynold this year, and after mowing they lie in common and the pasture is worth nothing.

Ralph de Abbehele, son of the said Reynold, is his next heir, and was 24 at the feast of the Annunciation last past.

It will be no damage [etc.] to allow John de Heyford to assign 2 messuages, 4 acres and half a virgate of land, and rents of 12s. 11d. and 1 lb. of pepper in Rodbroke, Ouerquentone, and Netherquentone, to a certain chaplain and his successors to celebrate daily for ever for the said John, and the souls of Joan his late wife, his father and mother, and all his ancestors, at the altar of the Blessed Mary in the parish church of Quentone; and also the reversion of one messuage and 3½ acres of land in Ouerquentone and Netherquentone, which John Wygot and Isabel his wife hold for their lives from the said John de Heyford, with reversion to him and his heirs, and half an acre of land in the same places, which

Richard Reed [?] holds for life, with reversion as above, and half a virgate there, which Nicholas Lefey holds for life, with reversion as above.

The 2 messuages, 4 acres and half a virgate of land in Rodbroke are held of Maud Marmyon by the service of 6d. per annum for all service; Maud holds them of Henry, Earl of Lancaster. [The remainder of the document is illegible.]

Inquisition taken at Newenham before John de Pertone [as above], 14th November, 15 Edward III [1341], by the oath of William de Scaure, John Bleyth, John de Aure, John Draylas, Henry Hanne, Nicholas Mody, Alexander Holle, Ralph Hok', Henry atte Grene, Osbert Mal . . ., John de Nasse, and John de Blytheslowe, who say that

It will be no damage [etc.] to allow Richard de Dene to enfeof John de Monemuthe with 10 acres of land in the vill of St. Briauel and with the bailiwick of keeping the park of St. Briauel and the Forest of Dene, which are held of the King in chief, to hold to the said John and his heirs. The said land and bailiwick are held of the King by the service of keeping the said park and forest for all service, and are worth 3s. 4d. per annum. The profit of the said bailiwick is in the hands of the keeper of the said forest, because all attachments made by the said keeper in the bailiwick aforesaid belong to the castle of St. Briauel, which is in the King's hand. Nothing will remain to the said Richard de Dene after this grant is made.

The Castle and Manor of St. Briabel.

Return made by the Treasurer and Barons of the Exchequer to a writ dated 31st January, 15 Edward III [1341], directing them to search the records of the Exchequer to ascertain the value, etc., etc., of the castle of St. Briavel and the Forest of Dene.

Richard de Clifford rendered an account to Henry III for the farm of the said castle and forest for the last half of the 31st year and the first half of the 32nd year of that King, £166 and 1 mark. Peter Chaceport had the said castle and forest, with all their issues, in the 33rd year and for 7 years following, saving to the King the fines, wards, reliefs, and marriages, paying yearly to the King £170. James Freysel, afterwards keeper of the forest and manor aforesaid, accounted for the issues thereof from 13th January, 39 Henry III [1255], to 16th November, 40 Henry III [1255], as they were put to farm for that time; and for £22 10s. for the King's great forge; and £8 4s. 6d. of the issues of the out-forges in the same forest; and £4 9s. 3d. for the forges raised there by the said James; and £23 16d. of the issues of the greater and lesser mines and sea-coals; and £21 for the herbage and twitch [cop'onibus] sold; 100s. for the King's demesne at St. Briavel (all the above being farmed for the said time); 6s. 8d. for small nuts sold; £15 2s. 2d. of the pleas and perquisites of the courts. Total, £162 7s. 5d.

Robert Walraund immediately afterwards had the castle and manor, with the said forest (except the King's great forge therein), at farm for £140 per annum.

Ralph de Sandwich, afterwards keeper of the King's demesnes, accounts in the 4th year of King Edward I [1275-6] for the said manor and forest thus: £42 0s. 6d. rents of assize in the same manor; £26 16s. 3d. of the issue of the water of Severn by custom; £23 16s. 9½d. from the great and little mines, with sea-coals; £11 16d. rent of smithies in the forest; £6 22d. for fallen wood sold; 115s. for ashes [cineribus] sold in the same forest; 8s. 5½d. for pannage sold; 60s. for cheminage in the same; £6 10s. 1½d. for herbage, as well in the forest as in the demesne lands; £102 for great timber and underwood sold by the King's letter patent directed to the said Ralph; 71s. 8d. for profit of corn sold after purchase of the same; £21 3s. 10d. of the pleas and perquisites, as well in the manor as the forest. Total, £252 0s. 9½d.

In 5 Edward I [1276-7] the said Ralph thus accounted for the issues of the manor and forest: £42 0s. 6d. rents of assize; £26 2s., the issue of the water of Severn by custom; £23 18s. 11d. from the greater and lesser mines, with sea-coal; £13 6s. 1½d., the rent of the smithies in the forest; £4 17s. 6d. for fallen wood sold; £6 18s. 9d. for ashes sold in the forest; £24 12d. for pannage there; 66s. 8d. cheminage; £6 0s. 7d. for herbage [and] nuts sold; £24 3s. 10d. of the pleas and perquisites of the manor and forest; £515 4s. 11d. for trunks of great oaks and underwood sold. Total, £690 0s. 9½d.

The said Ralph's account of the said demesnes for the 6th year [1277-8] is as follows: £42 0s. 6d. rents of assize; £24 12s. arising from the issues of the ferry of the water of Severn; £24 6s. from the greater and lesser mines of iron and sea-coal; £14 10s. rent of smithies in the forest; £6 10s. for fallen wood sold; £26 3s. 4d. for pannage; 66s. 8d. cheminage; £4 12s. 8d. for nuts and herbage sold; £195 for beams, great trunks, and underwood sold; 8s. 4d. for 2½ quarters of peas; £22 5s. for 5 stotts and 245 wethers and their fleeces sold; £26 7s. the pleas and perquisites of the courts of the manor and forest. Total of the manor this year, £390 18*d.* And for the customary issues of the manor for the 7th year [1278-9] £166 19*s.* 7*d.*, besides corn, stock, and wood sold during that time.

In the 8th and 9th years [1279-80, 1280-1] the said Ralph accounts thus: In the 8th year £42 0*s.* 6*d.*, rents of assize in the said manor of St. Briavel; £23 arising from the issues of the water of Severn; £23 19*s.*, the issues of the greater and lesser mines of iron, with coal, sold during the year; £12; the rent of the smithies in the Forest of Dene; 100*s.* for fallen wood sold; £6 15*s.* 3*d.* for pannage sold; 56*s.* 6*d.* cheminage; £7 7*s.* for great timber and underwood sold to divers persons to make coals, which are called in those parts veleres fossata; £4 3*s.* 4*d.* for . . . ; £8 0*s.* 1*d.* for a stack of old corn of the 7th year sold as a whole; £8 for 80 quarters of oats sold of the issues of the grange this year; £16 . . . pleas and perquisites of the courts of the forest and manor; £131 0*s.* 11*d.* for wood sold in the forest under the King's patent writ. Total, £301 2*s.* 5*d.* And in the 9th year [1280-1] £147 11*s.* 8*d.* for the like issues of the manor, besides corn and stock.

In the 10th year of his reign [1281-2] Edward I committed the said castle and forest to Grimbald Pauncefoot for a yearly rent of £140 . . . s., and Grimbald held this farm for 5 years.

In his 15th year [1286-7] Edward I granted the farm to William de Hathew for £160 yearly; and the said William, and John Botelourt, John de Hanlo, John de Wysham, and other farmers, continued to pay the same rent from that time to the 5th year of the present king [1331-2], when Robert de Sapy, farmer of the said forest and castle, had an allowance of 30*s.* made to him on his said farm yearly, the value of half the weir of Wytheokeswere, with the fishery there, which were belonging to the said farm by virtue of the King's writ directed to the Treasurer and Barons, in which it is contained that Edward II, on 16th October in his 20th year [1326], had granted a moiety of the said weir to the Abbot of Tynterne in frankalmoin; no allowance had previously been made for the same, but from the said 5th year the allowance was made to the said Robert de Sapy and Guy Bryan [?], and other farmers, till the 14th year [1330-1]. This allowance has been the only decrease made in the amount of the farm.

From 34 Edward I [1305-6] an account has always been made by the hands of the sheriff and others by divers particulars of £37 4*s.* 8½*d.* yearly for wastes rented in the forests, which rents do not belong to the farm of the castle and manor.

Nothing has been found among the records of the Exchequer as to assarts in the forest or the perambulation thereof.

John de Stanton.

Inquisition taken at Newenham before Simon Basset [as above] on Tuesday after the feast of the Translation of St. Thomas the Martyr, 16 Edward III [1342], by the oath of John de Bykemore, John Bleckh, Osbert Malemozt, John atte Bolde, Roger Laurence, Roger Burrich, Philip Burrich, Adam de Okle, Nicholas le Lech, John Hathewy, Walter le Clerk, and John Holou, who say that John de Stanton in his lifetime granted one messuage, one carucate of land, 20 acres of meadow, 12 acres of wood, and 20s. rent in Stanton, parcel of the manor of Stanton, to Thomas de Waldyng his son and Margaret his wife (the King's license having been obtained by letters patent), by reason of the marriage had between them, to hold to the said Thomas and Margaret in tail, with contingent remainder to the said John and his heirs. John had likewise enfeoffed John Waldyng the younger and Roger de la Hulle, chaplain (under the King's license contained in the same letters patent), with the residue of the manor of Stanton and the advowson of the church of that manor, for the purpose of a re-grant to himself for life, with remainder to the said Thomas and Margaret as above. The whole manor is held of the King in chief by the service of doing fealty and paying 2 marks at Michaelmas to the castle of St. Briauel. The residue abovesaid of the manor contains one messuage, one windmill, 80 acres of land, 6 acres of pasture, and 100s. rent; the messuage is worth 3s. per annum, the mill 40d., because it is in a bad state, the land 4d. per acre, the pasture 2d. per acre [sic], and the perquisites of the court 40d. per annum.

The said John was seised in his demesne as of fee of a certain bailiwick, called the bailiwick of Stanton, in the Forest of Dene, held of the King by the service of carrying the King's bow before him in the bailiwick aforesaid when he comes there to hunt, and by homage, ward, and marriage; and he shall have for the custody of the said bailiwick 'hosbote' and 'haybote,' and one vetus fossatum,¹ and sparrow-hawks, and the barks of the oak-trees given or delivered by the King.

Thomas de Stanton, son and heir of the said John, is aged 30.

Walter de Belyoun.

Inquisition taken at Gloucester before Simon Basset [as above] on Monday before the feast of St. John the Baptist, 16 Edward III [1342], by the oath of Richard le Clerk of Pagenhull, William Aytrich,

William Bitheweys, John atte Strode, Henry Abbenasse, Richard Brillyng [sic], Ralph Donwan [?], Robert atte Strode, John le Freman, Henry le Frankeleyn, William Engleys, and Henry Broun, who say that

Walter de Helyoun held of the archbishopric of York, now vacant and in the King's hands, in his demesne as of fee' 2 parts of the manor of Lassyndon by the serjeanty of half a knight's fee, and suit at the Archbishop's court of Cherchesdon every 3 weeks for all service. There are there 2 parts of a court, worth 2s. per annum beyond reprise; and in the said 2 parts 40 acres of arable land, worth half a mark, viz. 2d. per acre; 8 acres of meadow, worth 5s. 4d.; a pasture containing 8 acres, 2 parts of which are worth 16d., viz. 4d. per acre [sic]. There are in the said 2 parts the rents of assize of free and bond tenants, 2 marks, payable at the feasts of St. Michael, St. Andrew, the Annunciation, and the Nativity of St. John the Baptist in equal portions. Two parts of the pleas and perquisites of the courts there are worth 2s. per annum.

The said Walter held in like manner 2 parts of the manor of Eggesworth of Sir Richard Talbot, knight, as of his manor of Payneswyk', by the service of 2 parts of half a knight's fee, and . . . of the said manor when they occur. There are there 2 parts of one court, with houses, garden, and courtyard, worth nothing per annum beyond reprises; and in the said 2 parts 60 acres of arable land of the hilly land, worth 5s. per annum; and 3 acres of meadow, worth 3s.; 2 acres of pasture, worth 12d. per annum; 2 marks of the yearly rents of free and bond tenants, payable in equal portions at the abovesaid terms. He held also 2 parts of the manor of Leye from Alina de Sapy, Roger de Borghull, William de Gamages, and Thomas de Aston, in free socage, worth 10cs. per annum beyond reprises. He also held in the manor of Munstreworth from Henry, Earl of Lancaster, in free socage, 3 acres of meadow, worth 6s. per annum; in the manor of Rodleye, from the same Earl as above, 4 acres of arable land, worth 16d. per annum, and 3 acres of meadow, worth 4s. 6d. per annum. And in the aforesaid 2 parts there are 6s. 8d. rents of assize [sic]. He held also in the manor of Westbury, from the Earl of Hereford, 20s. annual rent by the service of half one-fourth of one knight's fee.

Roisia, wife of John de Raleys, John, son of Maud Helyon, sister of the said Roisia, and Eva, sister of Roisia, are his next heirs. Roisia and Eva are of full age, and the said John is aged 18.

Warin son of Warin.

Writ directed to Simon Basset [as above], dated 10th June, 16 Edward III [1342]. Warin son of Warin has declared that the manor of Woodmancote is of his inheritance; and, although by the Inquisition taken by John de Pertoñ, late escheator, of the lands, etc., held for life by Margery, who was wife of Thomas de Swynburne, it was not found that she died seised of the said manor, Basset has delivered it to John Darcy the elder in consequence of the King's grant of the custody of all the lands, etc., of which the said Margery died seised to the said John Darcy, as though the said Margery had died seised thereof. An inquiry is to be made as to whether the said Margery held the said manor or not.

Inquisition taken at Nymdesfeld before the said Simon Basset on Friday before the feast of the Exaltation of the Cross, 16 Edward III [1342], by the oath of Alexander de Bernewode, Walter le White, William Dau, Richard Heynes, Robert Daungervyle, Robert Hachemare, Nicholas Wynebaud, John ate Hall, William le Deuenissh, Roger Joye, John le Hunte, and John Jachun [?], who say that Margery, who was wife of Thomas de Swyneburne, did not hold the manor of Wodemancote of the King in chief; it is held of the Lord of Berkele by knight service. The said Margery was not seised thereof, but Warin son of Warin held it on the day she died.

Inquisition taken at Nymdesfeld before Simon Basset [as above], 24th January, 16 Edward III [1343], by the oath of Walter le Clerk, Robert Hachemare, Alexander de Bernewode, Nicholas Lidierd, Henry atte Berwe, Richard Russel, Nicholas Simond, John Lynham, Simon le Cok, Walter Janet, Adam Wennesleye, and Stephen Gerard, who say that

It will be no damage [etc.] to allow John, son of Nicholas de Hulle, to grant to Edmund de Beuchaumpe of Netherwent and Margaret his wife the reversion after the death of William Martel, who holds for life, of a messuage, 3 virgates of land, and 20s. rent in Hulle, to hold for the life of the said Edmund and Margaret, with reversion to the said John and his heirs. The premises are held of the King in chief by so much knight service as belongs to so much land in the manor of Hulle. The said messuage is worth 2s. per annum beyond reprises; the 3 virgates of land 15s., and not more, because it lies in the marsh and on the sea. John will retain the whole of the residue of the said manor of Hulle, which is held of the King in chief by the service of half a knight's fee, and is worth 40s. per annum in all its issues.

Inquisition taken at Dymmok' before Simon Basset [as above] on Monday after the feast of St. Mark the Evangelist, 16 Edward III [1342], by the oath of John de Okle, John Jakes, John Reued, Robert de Dyk, John le Frensh, Nicholas de Lydynton, Adam Itheffelde, John de Markle, John ate Mere, William le Palmere, John Seycel, and Richard ate Hethe, who say that

It will be no damage [etc.] to allow William de Penbrugge to grant his manor of Dimmok' to Henry, son of William de Penbrugge, and Margaret his wife, in tail, with contingent remainder to the said William and his heirs. There is a capital messuage there, worth nothing beyond reprises; a dovecote in bad state, worth 2s. per annum; a garden, with a close for fruit and herbage, worth 10s. per annum; 13 free tenants, who pay 75s. per annum; 12 customary tenants, whose rents, services, and customs are worth 75s. per annum. The pleas and perquisites of the court are worth 10s. per annum. The said manor is held of the King by the service of one knight's fee. The said William will still retain the manor of Malmeshulle Gamage, which is worth £10 per annum, and is held of the Honour of Wenneleye by the service of half a knight's fee.

Inquisition taken before Simon Basset [as above] at Gloucester on Monday before the feast of St. James the Apostle, 16 Edward III [1342], by the oath of William le Moun, Roger de Frompton, Thomas atte Hull, N . . . Wyneb . . , William de Rennesbur', John atte Halle, Richard de Chalkeleye, William de Dudmerton, John de Bikewyk', John Hercyon, John Oldeb . . , and Elias de Oldebur', who say that

It will be no damage [etc.] to allow Ralph, Bishop of Bath and Wells, to give 20 acres of land in Pokulchurch to William de Chilterham in exchange for 20 acres of land in the same vill.

The first-mentioned parcel is parcel of the manor of Pokelchurch, which is held of the King in chief by the service of half a knight's fee; the second parcel is held of the said Bishop by the service of 2s. per annum for all services. Each parcel is worth 40d. per annum. There is no intermediary between the King and the Bishop in the first case, and the Bishop is intermediary between the King and William de Chilterham in the second. There will still remain to William one messuage and one carucate of land there, worth 60s. per annum, held of the Bishop by the service of 2s. per annum.

Robert de Aston.

Inquisition taken at Gloucester before Simon Basset [as above], 8th March, 16 Edward III [1342], by the oath of John atte Berton, John Glede, Robert de Clifford, Hugh le Hopere, William Pleynamour, John Clifford, William atte Oke, John le Carpenter, John de Cors, Henry Ace, William le Frankeleyn, and Richard le Clerk, who say that

It will be no damage [etc.] to allow Robert de Aston to assign 6 messuages, 11s. 7½d., and one rose rent in the suburb of Gloucester, Wottone, and la Hyde to the Priory of St. Oswald, Gloucester; and also the reversion of one messuage and 1½ acres of land in the said suburb and Wottone after the death of William le Webbe, and of one messuage and 8 acres of land in la Hyde and the suburb aforesaid after the death of Adam de Cliue and Isabel his wife, in part satisfaction of £10 worth of lands, etc., which the said priory has license to acquire under the King's letters patent. Threë messuages of the said 6 messuages are held of the said priory by the service of paying 24s. per annum; one messuage is held of the Abbot of Evesham by the service of 8s. per annum; 2 messuages are held of the Abbot of Wynhecumbe by the service of 18s. per annum.

The parcels held by Adam de Clive and his wife, and William le Webbe, for which they pay 11s. 7½d. and one rose rent, are held of the said Priory of St. Oswald by the service of 10s. per annum. The 6 messuages are worth 6s. per annum beyond the services due; the other parcels 2s. The said Prior and Abbots hold the premises of the Archbishop of York, and he of the King.

There will still remain to Robert one messuage, one carucate of land, and 20s. rent in Aston, held of the said Priory of St. Oswald by the service of 12d. per annum and suit at their court of Aston, and worth 50s. per annum.

Bath Priory.

Inquisition taken before Simon Basset, the King's escheator in co. Gloucester, at Olveston, 15th May, 18 Edward III [1344], by the oath of John le Sexteyn, John Thony, John atte Hawe, William Ricardes, Walter de Dene, John Barfol, Stephen le Taillor, William le Frere, Richard Morcok, Robert Dolyte, John le Parmenter, and Walter de Stanborough, who say that

It will be no damage to the King or any other to allow the Prior and Convent of Bath to grant their manor of Oluestone, with the appurtenances, except the advowson of the church of that manor, to Robert Guyene of Bristol for the term of his life. The manor is held of Sir Walter de Gloucester by the service of doing suit to his Hundred of Langeleigh every three weeks, for all services, and is worth yearly in all its issues £20.

Joan, wife of John de Wylynton.

Inquisition taken before Simon Basset, escheator [etc.], on Saturday before the Feast of St. James the Apostle, 19 Edward III [1345], by the oath of Nicholas de Westone, John Henries, William le Meleward, Waller le Walsche, John Becherugge, William Brode, John Broun, Adam Blakeneye, Thomas Bruncroft, Ralph Ady, Adam Smith, and Nicholas Hardhed, who say that Joan, who was wife of John de Wylynton, held nothing of the King in fee the day she died, but she held the manor of Fromtonecotel from the King for the term of her life, and that the said John acquired that manor from William de Lucy, to hold to the said John and Joan, and the heirs of John; and she held no other lands or tenements from the King in chief, nor from others, in "my bailiwick." The said manor is worth yearly in all issues £18 4s. 2d.

Ralph de Wylynton, son and heir of John, is next heir of the said Joan, and is aged 30.

Joan died on Tuesday before the Feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist last.

Cicely, who was wife of John Daubeney.

Inquisition taken at la Kyngeshome before Simon Basset, escheator [etc.], on Monday next before the Feast of St. Luke the Evangelist, 19 Edward III [1345], by the oath of Henry de Bootworthe [?], Simon Passemer, Robert Rychemon, John Palmere, William Hathewy, William atte Mersche, John de Wyke, William Ingeleys, William le Brock, William atte Wynezard, John de Cors, and John Bonerel, who say that Cicely, who was wife of John Daubeney, held the manor of la Kyngeshome for the term of her life, of the gift and feoffment of Elyas de Godeleye, who had it of the gift of John Daubeny (the King's license therefor having been obtained, as appears by the King's charter).

There is a capital messuage there, with close, garden, and dovecot, which is worth 10s. yearly; 115½ acres of land worth 16s. 3½d., the price of the acre 3d.; 24½ acres of meadow worth 49s., the price per acre 2s.; 4 acres of pasture worth 2s. yearly, the price per acre 6d.; 16 free tenants, who pay 32s. 8d. at the 4 terms of the year, viz., Michaelmas, St. Andrew, the Annunciation, and the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, in equal portions. There are 3 bond tenants, whose works and services are worth in all issues 21s. yearly.

She held the said manor of the King by the service of keeping the door of the pantry on the King's coronation day. She held nothing else of the King or any other lord.

Cicely died on Monday next after Michaelmas.

Elyas Daubeney, son and heir of John Daubeney, is next heir of the said Cicely, and is aged 30 years.

William de Cusancia, chivaler.

Commission, dated at Westminster, 30th Jan., 20 Edward III [1345], directed to John de Frelond, Walter de Ciryncestre, Robert Russel, and Walter atte Bergh, stating that, by an inquisition taken upon a writ of diem clausit extremum, it was found that the said William died seised of the manor of Wyke, held of the King in chief by the service of one-fourth of a knight's fee, and that Peter de Cusancia, his son and heir, was aged 15 at the Feast of the Purification last past. Whereupon Henry, Earl of Lancaster, has petitioned, saying that the said manor came to the Crown by the forfeiture of Hugh le Despencer, the father, when it was held of a lord other than the King, and that those who hold the manor ought to hold it by the same services by which it was held before it became forfeited to the Crown, and that the manor of Donnameneye, which the said William held of the said earl by knight service, and of which the earl ought to have custody till the lawful age of the heir, has been seised into the King's hands amongst other lands. The above-named Commissioners are therefore to make further inquiry.

Inquisition taken at Donnameneye on Saturday next after the Feast of St. Mark the Evangelist, 20 Edward III [1346], before John de Frelond and Robert Russel, in the presence of the King's escheator of the county of Gloucester, by the oath of Robert Barbast [?], Geoffrey Aylwyne, William de Anneford, Richard atte Hyde, Walter Bolefen, Richard de Baudynton, William de Mareys, John atte Halle, John Pecok, Walter de Campedene, Simon le Frankelayn, and William George, who say that

What in the commission is called the manor of Wyke is not a manor in itself, but is a messuage and one carucate of land in Donnameneye, called Donnameneyeswyke, and is parcel of the manor of Donnameneye, and that the said Hugh held the said lands and tenements of Donnameneyeswyke in fee simple, before his forfeiture, from Margaret de

Valers, then lady of Donnameneye, by the service of one-fourth of a knight's fee, and that the said lands came to the Crown by the said forfeiture, and not otherwise.

The writ of diem clausit extremum above referred to, dated at Westminster, 4th January, 19 Edward III [1346].

Inquisition taken at Gloucester before Simon Basset, escheator, etc., on Monday next after the Epiphany, 19 Edward III [1346], by the oath of Richard Benet, William de Anneforde, John de Solers, Robert Barbast, Richard atte Stable, John atte Halle, John de Opkote, John Russel, Richard atte Halle, William de Campedene, William de Solers, and Roger de Leghe, who say that William de Cusancia, chivaler, held in his demesne as of fee on the day he died the manor of Wyke from the King in chief, by the service of one-fourth of a knight's fee.

There is in the same manor one messuage with a close, worth 12*d.* yearly; one dovecot worth 12*d.*, and not more, because it is ruinous; 80 acres of arable land worth 20*s.*, price per acre 3*d.*, and not more, because the land is hilly and stony; 6 acres of meadow worth 9*s.*, price per acre 18*d.*; 4 acres of several pasture worth 4*s.* yearly; and 2*s.* rent of assize yearly. Total, 36*s.*

The said William likewise held the manor of Donnameneye, in his demesne as of fee, from the Earl of Lancaster as of his manor of Kynemareshorde, by the service of half a knight's fee.

There is in the same manor a capital messuage, with a garden, worth 3*s.* yearly beyond reprises; one dovecot worth 3*s.* 4*d.* yearly; one water-mill worth 10*s.* yearly; 160 acres of arable land worth 53*s.* 4*d.* yearly; 40 acres of meadow worth 60*s.* yearly, price per acre 18*d.*; 6 acres of pasture worth 6*s.* per annum, price per acre 12*d.*; rents of assize of free and bond tenants, £7 7*s.* The pleas and perquisites of court are worth 3*s.* 4*d.* yearly. Total, £13 6*s.*

The said William died on the Feast of St. Nicholas last. His heir as above.

Writ, dated at Westminster, 10th April, 19 Edward III [1345], directed to the sheriff of Gloucester to extend the goods and lands of the said Nicholas, in consequence of an undischarged recognizance in £400, into which he entered 24th April last, to John de Stonforde.

The sheriff is to extend to the value of 210 marks, writs having been sent to the sheriffs of Kent, Cambridge, Wilts, Somerset, and Dorset to extend severally to the amounts of 120, 40, 60, 100, and 20 marks.

Inquisition taken at Tokyntone on Thursday next after the Octave of Trinity, 19 Edward III [1345], before Simon Basset, sheriff of Gloucester, by the oath of Nicholas de Westone, John Rolues, John de Tidryntone, Richard Warde, John Goos, John Sexteyn, Thomas atte Walle, John Heynes, Richard de Alcleye, Nicholas le Taillour, and Roger Corbet the younger and the elder, who say that Nicholas Poyns, chivaler, has in his manor of Tokyntone 34 acres of land sown with corn, worth £11 6s. 8d., price per acre 6s. 8d.; 14½ acres sown for beans, worth 70s., price 5s. per acre; 5 acres sown with pulse, worth 16s. 8d., price per acre 40d.; and 19 acres sown with oats, worth 57s., price per acre 3s. Two mares worth 8s.; one filly colt worth 2s.; 2 heifers calving, worth 20s.; 2 wethers after shearing worth 3s.; 104 hoggasters after shearing worth 104s.; 4 ewes worth 4s.; 6 lambs worth 4s.; 25 pigs worth 17s. 6d.; 18 sucking-pigs worth 2s. 6d. Total, £26 17s. 4d.

There is there one court, the easements of the houses of which are worth yearly beyond reprises 6s. 8d.; 3 gardens, the fruit and herbage of which is worth 20s. yearly; one courtyard with herbs worth 6s. 8d. yearly; one dovecot worth 6s. 8d. yearly; one water-mill worth 13s. 4d. yearly; one windmill worth 26s. 8d. yearly; 126 acres of arable land worth £6 16s. 6d. yearly, price 13d. per acre; 46 acres of meadow worth £6 18s. yearly, price per acre 3s.; pasture in divers parcels worth 3s. yearly; one park and the agistment of the cattle there, worth 26s. 8d. yearly; the underwood there is worth 40s. yearly. There is an outwood there, of which the underwood is worth 13s. 4d. yearly. There are divers tenants, as well free as villein, who pay £58 11s. 9d. yearly at the 4 terms of the year. The pleas and perquisites of court are worth 100s. yearly. Total, £84 9s. 3d., whereof the moiety is £42 4s. 7½d.

The Priory of Lanthony next Gloucester.

Inquisition taken at Gloucester on Thursday, the Morrow of the Purification, 19 Edward III [1345], before Simon Basset, sheriff of Gloucester, by the oath of John Elys, John Wyther, William de Bray, Philip le Longe, William Waryn, Richard Wyther, William atte Hurste, William de Dysworthe, John Lumbarde, Simon Passemer, Thomas Passemer the younger, and William Foket, who say that

It will be no damage to the King or any other to allow the Prior of Lanthony and his successors to take and have for ever reasonable customs from all ships, "creiers," and boats, laden with merchandise and goods for sale, putting in and unloading in the water of Wosepulle, as the King and other lords in maritime places, where there is such putting in and unloading of ships and boats, have heretofore been accustomed to take and have. They say the said water of Wosepulle, beyond the water of Severne, is the proper soil and lordship of the aforesaid prior and convent of their manors of Aluyntone and Ailbryghtone next Lydeneye in the county aforesaid. Such a custom might be worth half a mark yearly to the said priory.

Inquisition taken at Dursleye on Monday next before the Feast of St. Andrew the Apostle, 19 Edward III [1345], before Simon Basset, the King's escheator in co. Gloucester, by the oath of John de Draykote, John de Egyntone, John Porlewent [?], John ate Boure, John Sewaker, Nicholas de Bradeforde, John de Gossyntone, John le Knizt, William le Clerke, Stephen Keneltres, Roger de Camme, and John ate Wode ende, who say that

It will be no prejudice to the King or any other to allow John de Berkleye of Durseleye, chivaler, to grant to Robert ate Elme and Agnes his wife one messuage and $\frac{1}{2}$ virgate of land in Durseleye; to William le Wodeward and Agnes his wife, and John their son, another messuage and $\frac{1}{2}$ virgate of land there; to Robert le Smyth and Agnes his wife, a messuage and $\frac{1}{4}$ virgate there; to John Wilemot and Amicia his wife, the like; to John Wilemot and Roger le Frend, the like; to William le Deuenysche and Joan his wife, the like; to Thomas Haukynis and Margery his wife, one messuage there; to William le Northorne of Coldenewentone, one messuage and $\frac{1}{2}$ virgate of land in Coldenewentone; to Richard de Braynford and Cicely his wife, one messuage and $\frac{1}{4}$ virgate there; to Thomas Noreys and Isabel his wife, the like; to Reynold le Southerne, one messuage and $\frac{1}{2}$ virgate there; and to Margery Godyner, one messuage and 4 acres of land there. All the premises are held of the King in chief by the service of one-sixth of a knight's fee. The grants in each case are to be for the lives of the grantees, with reversion to the grantor and his heirs. The premises are worth 40s. yearly, and not more, because the land is hilly and stony. There will remain to the said John de Berkleye, beyond the premises, half a knight's fee in Durseleye, Coldenewenton, and Stanleze St. Leonard, held of the King in chief.

Thomas, parson of the church of Bebereston, and Henry le Fishere.

Inquisition taken before Simon Basset, escheator [etc.], at Haukesbury, on Wednesday next after the Feast of St. Luke the Evangelist, 19 Edward III [1345], by the oath of Nicholas Wynechaud, Roger de Hortone, Richard le . . ., Richard Danyel, Adam ate Mulle, John Inkepenne, John de Puter [?], Thomas Launce, and Roger Umfray, who say that

It will be no damage to allow Thomas, parson of the church of Bevereston, and Henry le Fishere of Malmesbury to grant to the Abbot and Convent of Pershore the reversion of one messuage, 2 tofts, 100 acres of land, one acre of meadow, and 12s. rent in Haukesbury, after the death of Walter atte Halle and Margery his wife; and of 8 messuages, 157 acres of land, and 5 acres of meadow there, after the death of Alice, who was wife of John atte Halle; and of one messuage and 7 acres of land there, after the death of John Derby, Edith his wife, and Isabel their daughter; and of one messuage and 7 acres of land there, after the death of Agnes atte Halle and Isabel her daughter; and of one messuage and 8 acres of land there, after the death of Elias atte Halle and Felicia his wife; and of 4 acres of land there, after the death of Richard le Harre and Maud his wife; and of 7 acres of land there, after the death of Alice Turk; and of one acre of meadow there, after the death of John de Tidrintone. The grants to be in part satisfaction of lands and rents worth £10 yearly, which the said abbey has license to acquire.

All the premises are held of the said abbey by a yearly rent of 32s., and doing suit at their court of Haukesbury every 3 weeks; and are worth yearly, beyond the said rent, 55s. 5d. There will still remain to the grantors 2 carucates of land in Bevereston, held of Sir Thomas de Berkeleye by knight service, worth 9 marks yearly.

Roger Normaund.

Inquisition taken before Simon Basset [as above] at Bibery [?], on Thursday, the Morrow of St. Hilary, 23 Edward III [1350], by the oath of Adam Martil, William Pelham, Richard atte Hide, William Marys [?], John le Solers, Walter le Brut, William Caumpedene, John Clifstone, Henry Maister, William Betoun, Walter Withemuthe zate, and Geoffrey Ailewyne, who say that Roger Normaund held in Aluryntone in his demesne as of fee on the day he died one messuage, with a close, worth nothing beyond reprises. He held also 170 acres of land, the moiety of which is worth 7s. 1d. yearly, the other moiety worth nothing, because it lies fallow. He held also 6 acres of meadow, worth 9s. yearly, because it lies in common after mowing; also a several pasture, worth 12d.; a water-mill in bad state, worth 2s. 8d. yearly. He had there 3 free tenants, who pay 4s. 6d. yearly at the Feasts of the Annunciation and St. Michael. He had 5 bond tenants there, each of whom holds half a virgate of land, and pays 25s. yearly at the 4 usual terms of the year for all service, except one bederip in autumn, worth 1d.

They say the said Roger held nothing of the King on the day he died in the county aforesaid, but he held the lands aforesaid of the inheritance of the Earl of Gloucester by knight service.

The said Roger died on Monday next after the Feast of the Annunciation last.

Giles, son of Roger Normauud the younger, is cousin and heir of the said Roger, and was 5 years old at the time of his death.

Margaret, who was wife of John la Warre.

Inquisition taken at Wykewarre before Simon Basset [as before], on Sunday, 11th October, 23 Edward III [1349], by the oath of William de la Hay, Roger Barbast, John de Wyckewike, Edward Hane kyn, Henry Isgar, Geoffrey Hermon, Thomas le Skynnar, Laurence de Wykewarre, William Corewell, William le Brid, Walter Lucas, and William Osmound, who say that Margaret, who was wife of John la Warre, held 2 parts of the manor of Wikewarre for the whole of her life of the gift of Sir John de Cleydone, parson of the church of Mamcestre, to hold to her and the said John le Warre and their heirs by fine levied in the King's court, and produced, as more fully appears from the fine aforesaid. And she held the said 2 parts from Sir Thomas de Berkeleye by the service of 2 parts of a moiety of one knight's fee, paying therefor yearly 13s. 4d. at Easter and Michaelmas in equal portions.

In the said 2 parts there are 2 parts of a messuage, worth nothing beyond reprises; one dovecot, the 2 parts whereof are worth 2s. yearly; 160 acres of arable land, worth 1d. yearly, 2 parts whereof were sown before the death of the aforesaid Margaret, and the pasture thereof after the corn is carried is worth nothing, because it is common to the free tenants, and the rest is worth nothing, because it is lying fallow and is common to the tenants, as above. There are 20 acres of meadow, worth 6d. per acre and not more, because it is clayey and frequently under water, and it was mown before the death of the said Margaret; the pasture thereof after the grass is carried is worth nothing, because it is common, as above. There are 40 acres of wood there, in which there is no underwood nor pasture; the pannage is worth 12d. when it comes in, but this year there was none. There is a water-mill, the 2 parts whereof are worth 4s. yearly and not more, because it cannot work in summer for want of water. Of rents of assize of free and 4 bond tenants there is 40s., payable at the Feasts of Christmas, Easter, the Nativity of St. John, and Michaelmas; the winter works of these bond tenants, from Michaelmas to the Gule of August, are worth 6s. 8d., price of each work $\frac{1}{2}$ d.; the autumn works, from the Gule of August to Michaelmas, are worth 2s. 8d., price of each work 1d. The perquisites of the courts are worth 12d. yearly.

The said Margaret died on Thursday next after the Feast of the Assumption last.

Sir Roger la Warre, knight, son of the said John and Margaret, is her next heir, and was 22 at the Feast of St. Andrew the Apostle last.

and the ploughing is worth 2s. 8½d., each being worth 2½d. And he will harrow for the lord for 13 days, which is worth 19½d. And he will cart by waggon [auerabit] for 23 days, the carting being worth 3s. 4½d. [?] . . . hay and 8 cartings [?] for corn, worth 3s., besides the carriage, 4d., and 4 hens at Christmas, worth 4d. There are also 7 . . . aḡ, each of whom holds . . . [and will do] from Michaelmas to the Feast of St. John the Baptist for 38 weeks, 2 works per week; total of the customary works aforesaid 532, of which . . . and 508 works are worth 21s. 2d., the price of the work ½d. And from the Feast of St. John to the Gule of August each will do two works per week, total 70, worth 8s. 9d., at 1½d. per work. And from the Gule of August to Michaelmas each of them will do 3 works weekly, total 168 works, worth 21s., at 1½d. per work. And they will mow 65 times, which is worth 8s. 6d. [sic], at 1½d. per work. And each of them will give at Christmas 2 hens, each hen worth 1d. Also there is a certain cottar there, who holds one cottage [cotaṛ], and he will do from Michaelmas to the Feast of St. John 38 works, worth 19d., and from the latter Feast to Michaelmas 14 works, worth 21d. There is a free chase called "The Chase of Cors," the profit of which is nothing beyond reprises.

Inquisition¹ taken before Simon Basset at Teukesberi, 10th March, 23 Edward III [1349], by the oath of jurors as in the last inquisition, the illegible names there being here shown as Hugh Wre . . . , Geoffrey le Tauerner, John Cary [?], Richard Coles, and Adam T . . . , who say that

The said Hugh le Despencer held in his demesne as of fee on the day he died the manor of Teukesbury of the King in chief by knight service. And there is there a chief messuage [with garden ?] and small preserve, which is worth yearly half a mark and not more, because the preserve is worth nothing. And there is a dovecot worth 3s. yearly; and a park containing 80 acres, the underwood and herbage whereof is worth yearly 20s., and not more [because it is not sufficiently enclosed ?]. There are 460 acres of arable land, worth 4d. yearly per acre, total £7 13s. 4d.; and 85 acres of mowable meadow, worth . . . ; there are 50 acres of pasture in demesne, worth 12d. per acre yearly. The rents of free tenants at the Feasts of St. Andrew, the Annunciation, the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, and St. Michael, £12 12s. 3d. There is a windmill, which pays yearly at the said terms 20s. There is a certain rent of 'la Home' from a piece of land in the hands of customary tenants, who pay 13s. 8d. at the Feast of the Annunciation. And there is one messuage there, which one . . . de . . . formerly held, and he used to pay 5s.

yearly at the said terms, which messuage the lord gave to John de Euesham, paying one rose yearly. And from the messuage which Walter le Bruggewryth holds, 4s. at the said terms. And from "la Mor[?e]" 16s. at the said terms. And there is a fishery there in the Severn, with boats, [and?] in the Avon, which pays 10s. at Michaelmas. There are burgesses there holding 114 $\frac{3}{4}$ burgages, paying yearly at the 4 usual terms £6 16s. 10d. These burgesses hold there a certain piece of cultivated land within the bounds of the same vill, containing 70 $\frac{1}{2}$ acres of land, and they pay yearly at the established terms 35s. 5d., viz. for every acre 5d. All the tenants of the same borough pay 20s. at the said 4 terms for a custom called Fustale and 12s. for a custom called Stallage. There are 48 $\frac{1}{2}$ customary tenants there, each of whom holds one virgate of land in villenage, and will plough 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ acres from Michaelmas to Christmas, and each ploughing is worth 9d.; total of the said customary ploughings, 36s. 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. Also each of them will plough 3 roods of land in the same time for a certain custom called Benerth,¹ and the ploughing is worth 20s. 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ d., each ploughing being worth 5d. And each of them will plough between Christmas and the Feast of the Annunciation 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ acres, and these ploughings are worth 36s. 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ d., the price of each ploughing 6d. And the said customary tenants will each of them carry the lord's salt from Wych to Teukesbury, and will give 1d., whether he performs the carriage or not, and the total is 4s. 0 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. Also each of them will make one quarter of malt or give 1d.; total, 4s. 0 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. Each of them ought to do from the Feast of St. Michael to the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, viz. for 38 weeks, 5 works each week; total of all the works, 9215; but there is an allowance to each of them during that time of 15 works for the feast days, and 5 works for the week of Christmas, and for the weeks of Easter and Whitsuntide 4 works, and so the total of these reprises of works is 1164, and there remain 8051, which are worth £16 15s. 5 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. Each of the said customary tenants will do 20 works in carrying the hay; total of these works 970, worth 40s. 5d. Also each of them will work in the lord's vines for 3 days; total of these works 145 $\frac{1}{2}$, worth 6s. 0 $\frac{3}{4}$ d. And each of the said holders of a virgate will thresh for one day, which works are worth 2s. 0 $\frac{1}{4}$ d. And the said customary tenants will give 3 quarters and 1 bushel [2] of corn for a custom called Benesed, viz. each of them half a bushel, and the said corn is worth 12s. 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. at 4s. a quarter. And each of them will give 4 hens at Christmas, worth 16s. 1d. And each of them will work from the Feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist to Michaelmas, viz. for 14 weeks, 5 works per week; total of these works 3007 works and not more, because 8 works are allowed to them for feast days, and they are worth £18 15s. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. And each of these customary tenants in autumn will do 16 Bedripes; total, 776, worth £4 17s. Also they say there are 13 customary tenants, each of whom holds one virgate [sic] of land, and from Michaelmas to the Feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, 38 weeks, they do 6 works weekly each; total, 2964; but there is an allowance to each of them during that time of 20 works, and of 10 works for the Christmas, Easter, and Whit weeks; total of these reprises, 390 works; so there remain 2574 works, worth 107s. 3d. Each of these 13 holders of a carucate [sic] will work from the Nativity of St. John to Michaelmas, 14 weeks, 6 works weekly; total, 1092 works; but there is an allowance of 10 works to each of them for feast days; total of the reprises, 130; and so there remain 962 works, worth £6 os. 3d. Also there are 4 cottars there, each of whom holds one cottage, and will do from Michaelmas to the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, 38 weeks, 4 works weekly; total, 152 works, worth 6s. 4d. And from the Nativity of St. John to Michaelmas, 14 weeks, they will do 4 works weekly; total, 56 works, worth 7s. And each of them will do 8 Bedripes in autumn; total, 32, worth 4s. Also they say there is a view of frankpledge at the Feast of . . . , worth £7 12s. The pleas and perquisites of the courts there are worth 40s. yearly. The toll of the borough there is worth 40s. yearly, and the pleas of . . . 40s.

The said Hugh le Despenser held in his demesne as of fee on the day he died the manor of Feireford of the King in chief by knight service. And there is a capital messuage there, with a garden, worth 6s. 8d. yearly. A dovecot, worth 2s. yearly. Two water-mills, worth 40s. yearly. There are two groves, the underwood and herbage of which are worth 5s. yearly. There are 510 acres of arable land, worth £6 7s. 6d. yearly, at 3d. per acre. There are 20 acres of meadow [in] . . . mede, worth 40s. yearly; and in Clyumedede 20 acres, worth 30s. yearly; and in Longdole 30 acres of meadow, worth 20s.; and in . . . 10 acres of meadow, worth 10s. Also there is a several pasture there in the grove and in "le Le," worth 5s. yearly. There is a pasture at Querwyr . . . stall and . . . , worth 15s. yearly; and another pasture at Mercoumbe, worth 9s. 1½d. yearly; and another at Sharpenesse and la Hull, worth 6s. yearly. There is also of the rents of assize of free tenants £6 18s. 11½d. at the 4 terms of the year, to wit, at Michaelmas, Christmas, the Annunciation, and the Feast of St. John the Baptist. And there is a certain market town there in which there are 68 burgages in the hands of divers burgesses, and they pay 58s. rents of assize at the terms aforesaid. And they say that William alle Zale holds one messuage and one virgate of land in villenage, and pays 12*d.* yearly at Christmas. And he will do from Michaelmas to the Feast of St. John the Baptist, 38 weeks, 5 works each week; and so the total, deducting the feast days occurring in the said time, with the 3 feast weeks, to wit, Christmas, Easter, and Whitsuntide, is 156 works, which are worth 6*s.* 6*d.* And he will plough one acre of land at the sowing of corn, which is called Grasherth, and the ploughing is worth 3*d.*; and one acre of land at the Lent sowing, and this work is worth 3*d.* And he will harrow the aforesaid acres, and this work is worth 1½*d.* And he will plough one acre to lie fallow, and it is worth 3*d.* And from the Nativity of St. John the Baptist to the Gule of August, viz. for 5 weeks, he will do 5 summer works each week; total of summer works, deducting the feast days occurring during that time, 19 works, which are worth 14½*d.* And from the Gule of August to Michaelmas, viz. 8 weeks, he will do 5 autumn works weekly; total of the autumn works, deducting feast days, 32, which are worth 4*s.* And he owes 8 Bederips in autumn, worth 12*d.* There are 40 customary tenants there, each of whom holds and does services just as the aforesaid William alle Zale does; and so there is a total of the rents and works of the aforesaid 40 customary tenants £29 2*s.* 6*d.* Also they say that one John Dod holds one messuage and half a virgate of land in villenage, and pays yearly at Christmas 6*d.* And he will do from Michaelmas to the Nativity of St. John the Baptist 78 works, worth 3*s.* 3*d.* And will plough half an acre of land at the corn sowing, worth 1½*d.*; and one [sic] acre at the Lent sowing, and it is worth 1½*d.*; and he will harrow the aforesaid half-acres, and it is worth ¾*d.*; and [will plough] half an acre to lie fallow, worth 1½*d.* And from the Nativity of St. John the Baptist to the Gule of August he will do 9 works, worth 6¾*d.*; and from the Gule of August to Michaelmas 16 works, worth 2*s.* And he owes 4 Bederipes in autumn, worth 6*d.* Also they say there are 7 tenants, each of whom holds, pays, and does just as the aforesaid John Dod does; and so there is a total of their rents and services, 50*s.* 9*d.* And there are 3 customary tenants there, each of whom holds half a virgate of land in villenage, and will do from Michaelmas to the Nativity of St. John the Baptist 78 works; so there is a total of 234 works, worth 9*s.* 9*d.* And each of them will plough half an acre at the corn sowing, worth 4½*d.*; and half an acre at the Lent sowing, worth 4½*d.*; and will harrow the aforesaid half-acres, which is worth 2½*d.*; and each will plough half an acre to lie fallow, which is worth 4½*d.* And from the Nativity of St. John the Baptist to the Gule of August each will do 9 works; total, 27 works, worth 20½*d.* And from the Gule of August to Michaelmas each will do 16 works; total, 48, worth 6*s.* And each of them owes 4 Bedripes in autumn, worth 18*d.* Also they say there are 11 tenants there, each of whom holds one Cotlond, and pays yearly of rent of assize 33*s.* at the terms aforesaid. And each of them will mow the lord's meadow for 3 days; total, 33 works, worth 4s. 1½d. And each of them owes 8½d. for his autumn works; total, 7s. 6½d. And each at Christmas owes 3 hens and one cock, worth 3s. 8d. Also there are 13 cottars there, who hold 13 cottages and pay rents of assize 16s. 2d. yearly, and of these there are 10 who each owe one Bederipe in autumn, worth 15d. And the said villeins, with the other customary tenants, give at Michaelmas for tallage £8. And the toll of the borough is worth 13s. 4d. [?] yearly. And there is a fair there on St. James's Day, worth 6s. 8d. And the pleas and perquisites of the courts of the borough and manor, with the views, are worth 26s. 8d. yearly. And a certain view of Feireford, Estleth, Alurynton, Mersheton, and . . . is worth 56s. 1d.

Inquisition taken at Neeth before Simon Basset, the King's escheator in the county of Gloucester and the March of Wales adjacent thereto, 17th March, 23 Edward III [1349], by the oath of Llewellyn ap Rees, Robert ap R[ees?] ap Morgan, Jevan ap Willym ap Cradoc, Ener ap Rees Goz, Jevan ap Jeruerch ap Rosser, Willym ap Griff' Goz, Jevan ap Thomas ap Morgan, David ap Jevan ap Willym, John Wyn, John Baron, Stephen Clerk, and John Bragham, who say that Hugh le Desjencer held of the King in chief in his demesne as of fee the castle and vill of Neeth, by what service they do not know; the castle is worth 6s. 8d. yearly. There are burgesses in that vill who hold divers burgages and tenements, and pay yearly £4 10s. 10½d. at the terms of St. Andrew, Christmas, the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, and St. Michael equally. The prise of ale in the said vill is worth 40s. yearly. The chē [cheminagium?] there is worth 6s. 8d. yearly. The tolls of the market and fair in the same town are worth 26s. 8d. yearly. The pleas and perquisites of the hundred there, with the pleas of the fair there, are worth 40s. yearly.

The said Hugh likewise held, as above, the manor of Neeth, with 2 hamlets, viz. Kilthibebilth and Britton, together with the country [patria] of Neeth, by service unknown. In which manor there is a messuage in bad condition, worth 12d. yearly. There are 161 acres of land in demesne, 80 of which are worth 6d. yearly and 81 4d.; total value, 67s. There are 86 acres of meadow, viz. 46 acres worth 12d. per acre and 40 acres worth 4d. per acre; total, 59s. 4d. There are 99 acres of pasture, of which 56 are worth 6d. per acre and 43 acres 2d. per acre; total value of the demesne pasture, 35s. 2d.

In the aforesaid hamlet of Kilthibebilth there are 43 Welsh tenants, holding divers tenements and paying yearly £4. 1d. at the terms of Christmas, the Invention of the Cross, and St. Michael equally.

In the said hamlet of Britton there are 12 Welsh customary tenants, who hold some small tenements in bondage, paying yearly among them 23s. 3d. at the said three terms.

In the said country of Neeth there are, as well this side of Neeth as beyond Neeth, 360 Welsh tenants, who hold divers tenements amongst them, paying yearly £36 5s. at Michaelmas only.

There is the forest of Neeth, the herbage, pannage, and underwood of which, with the wild honey and turbary, are worth 10s. The pleas and perquisites of the court there, as well beyond Neeth as this side of Neeth, with the fines and redemptions, entries of lands, leiwryte, and heriots, are worth yearly £60. Be it known there are there 5 corn-mills and one fulling-mill, worth £17 yearly; a certain fishery in the water of Glynneth, worth 15s. yearly, and another fishery in the water of Glyntawy, worth 10s. yearly; a ferry at Britton, worth 6s. 8d. yearly, which John de Auene holds in fee by demise of the said Hugh in exchange for the manor of Sully, which items are not included in this account.

Inquisition taken before Simon Basset, the King's escheator in co. Gloucester, at Gloucester on Monday next after the Feast of St. Denis, 24 Edward III [1350], by the oath of William atte Mershe, Thomas Undurhulle, John le Mariner, Philip le Marsshal, William atte Noke, John Clifford, William de Polham, Richard Brounyng, William Gille, John de Cors, Matthew Arondel, and Walter le Newcome, who say that

In the manor of Stokearchers there is not a free chase called Cors, as was formerly found by an inquisition returned into the Chancery; but they say that the Abbot of Westminster, the Abbot of St. Augustine of Bristol, the Prior of Durhurst, Lady de Haffeld, John Gernuyle, and the Abbot of St. Peter of Gloucester have wood and soil there, the latter as belonging to his manor of Mayesmore, which is called Weonbrugge in Cors. Also the said Abbot of Gloucester has a manor called Hardepirie near Cors, in which manors of Mayesmore and Hardepirie, the Abbot of Gloucester and his predecessors have had free warren from time immemorial. The parcels in the hands of the five first-named tenants are called Cors, so that the whole of Cors is in the hands of the persons above-named. Therefore the said Hugh le Despenser and the other lords of the said manor of Stokearchers have never had any soil or wood in Cors, but by usurpation and encroachment of the game in Malverne Chase, in the hands of the said Hugh and his ancestors, the said beasts have been used to come and go at Cors, and to feed there, so that the said Hugh and his ancestors and the lords of Stokearchers, by their power and encroachment in Cors, without any lawful title, have ordained and constituted 4 foresters there in Cors, one of whom, the master of the foresters, receives 4*d.* every day from the reeve of the manor of Teukesbury for the time being, and the 3 others receive 4*os.* yearly from the said reeve at the said manor of Teukesbury. Neither Hugh nor any other lord of Stokearchers has ever received any profit from Cors, except that the said Hugh, late deceased, by reason of his great power, took attachments and amercements on the soil and in the wood of the tenants above-named, who before the time of the usurpation of the said Hugh peacefully enjoyed all the profits, etc., arising from their wood and soil aforesaid.

EXTENT OF THE LANDS, ETC., OF HUGH LE DESPENSER, DECEASED.

KNIGHTS' FEES HELD OF HUGH LE DESPENSER, DECEASED.

Inquisition taken at Tukesbury before Simon Basset [as above], 12th March, 23 Edward III [1349], by the oath of John Cole, Robert de Carent, Laurence atte Parke, William Knyght, Thomas Lucas, Henry Drake, William Belle, Geoffrey, Walter le Botyller, John Piers, and John de Stanford, who say that Roger N . . . held from the said Hugh the moiety of a knight's fee in Abyrntone, worth 4*os.* a year. Hugh de Rodberghe held . . . in Shernecote, Northcote, and Sudyntone, worth 4*os.* a year. The heirs of Hebert de St. Quintin held . . . in Estleche, worth 4*os.* The said Hugh held the advowson of the Abbey of Teukesbury . . . worth 100 marks.

Inquisition taken at Gloucester before Simon Basset, the King's escheator, 30th March, 23 Edward III [1349], by the oath of John atte Bertone, John Glede, William Pleyndamiour, Hugh de Muggeleye, Adam de Clyue, John le Carpenter of Brithampton [?], Elias atte Grene, John de Cors, Walter Seuerne, William Ingeleys, John Richemon, and Edward le Tauerner, who say that

It will be no damage to the King or any other to allow Robert de Astone and Geoffrey de Eggesworthe to grant to the Priory of St. Oswald of Gloucester 9 messuages, 2 shops, 12 acres of land, and half an acre of meadow in Chirchedone, Partone, Brithampton, Gloucester, and the suburb thereof; and to allow the said Robert to grant 2 messuages in the same suburb, and John Hussy $1\frac{1}{2}$ acres in Sandhurst to the same priory; and the said Robert and Geoffrey to grant the reversion of 2 messuages in Gloucester and the suburb, which John le Taverner and Denise de Hunteleye hold severally for their life by demise of the said Robert and Geoffrey, to hold to the said priory in part satisfaction of £10 worth of lands, etc., which they have the King's license to acquire.

The 9 messuages and 2 shops in Gloucester, and the $12\frac{1}{2}$ acres in Chirchedone, Parton, and Brithampton, are held of the said priory by the service of 43s. yearly; the 2 messuages in the suburb and the $1\frac{1}{2}$ acres of meadow in Sandhurst, from the Abbot of Gloucester by the service of 9s. yearly. The 2 messuages in Gloucester and the suburb, to be granted in reversion, are held of Hugh Hondsum by the service of 10s. yearly. The whole are worth 40s. yearly beyond the said rents. The Priory of St. Oswald holds of the Archbishop of York, and he of the King; the Abbot of Gloucester holds of the King; Hugh Hondsum of the Prior of Durhurst, and he of the King.

There will remain to the said Robert 100s. of land and rents in Gloucester and Coldastone, held of the Prioress of Westwode by the service of 2s. Geoffrey will still retain 2 carucates of land in Partone and Eggesworthe, held of the Abbot of Wynchecumbe by the service of 12d. and 1 lb. of cummin, worth 40s. yearly. John Hussy will still retain tenements in Gloucester, held of the Prior of the Hospital of St. Bartholomew of Gloucester by the service of 8d., worth 40s.

Nicholas Gamage.

Inquisition taken before Simon Basset, the King's escheator in Gloucestershire, at Netherleye, 22nd April, 24 Edward III [1350], by the oath of William Hathewi, Henry de Strode, John de Abenhale, Roger Goderich, Walter Martin, Stephen Whytenom, William de Stowe, Walter Bowan, Richard Godrich, John Cope, Robert le Smith, and John le Haulker, who say that

Nicholas de Gamage held nothing in his demesne as of fee or in service of the King in chief in the said county, but he held from Edward de Penbrugge in socage, by the service of one pair of gloves, worth 1d., in the vill of Netherleye one messuage, with close and curtilage, worth 6d. a year beyond the reprise, 80 acres of arable land worth 2d. an acre, 15 acres of meadow worth 12d. an acre, and 32s. 2d. annual rents payable at Michaelmas and the Feasts of the Purification and the Nativity of St. John the Baptist.

The said Nicholas died on Wednesday before the Feast of the Purification, 23 Edward III [1350]. His daughters and heirs are Margery, wife of John Billing, aged 20; Joan, wife of Hugh Archur, aged 16; and Elizabeth, aged 9.

Geoffrey le Archer.

Inquisition taken before Simon Basset [as above] at Gloucester on Thursday after the Feast of St. Luke the Evangelist, 24 Edward III [1350], by the oath of William atte Mersshe, Hugh Mustel, Thomas Prikke, Henry de Brokworthe, William Pleistude, John Hatherseye,

John Chapmon of Stoke, John Smith, John le Eir [?], Robert le Hunte, John Droys, and Robert atte Townesende, who say that Geoffrey le Archer held a moiety of the manor of Archerstoke of the King in chief on the day he died by the service of finding one archer for the King in his war at his own cost for 40^o days. He held no other lands, etc., in the said county.

There is a capital messuage in the said moiety, with garden, curtilage, and dovecot adjacent, worth 40*d.* a year; 132 acres of arable land, worth 4*d.* an acre; 6 acres of meadow, worth 6*s.* There are 6 free tenants, who pay 22*s.* 4*d.* a year at the four usual terms; and 6 bond tenants, whose works and services are worth 46*s.* 7*d.* a year.

The said Geoffrey died 8th October last [1349]. Joan, wife of Sir Thomas de Berkeleye of Coburleye, his daughter and heir, is aged 24 and more.

John de Bures.

Inquisition taken at Gloucester before Walter Dastyn, the King's escheator in co. Gloucester, on Monday after the Feast of St. Hilary, 24 Edward III [1351], by the oath of Hugh Mustel, Thomas Prikke, William Hadewy, William Attemersse, Philip Mareschal, John Palmare, John de Clifford, William Atenoke, John de Leed . . . ez, Thomas Underhulle, Walter Toky, and John de Brokkeworth, who say that John de Burse held no lands, etc., in his demesne as of fee on the day he died in the said county, but he held the manors of Botyntone and Longeford for term of his life by feoffment of John de Solers, as appears in the fines levied in the King's court in the 3rd and 4th years of his reign, between John de Burse and Hawysia his wife, plaintiffs, and John de Solers, deforciant, providing that, after the death of the said John and Hawysia, the said manors should remain to Giles de Beauchamp and Katherine his wife, in tail, with contingent remainder to the right heirs of the said Hawysia.

He held one parcel of the said manor of Botyntone from the heirs of the Earl of Gloucester, by homage, fealty, and suit every 3 weeks at their court of Tewkesbury. He held in the said parcel one messuage with a curtilage, worth 5*s.* yearly; 120 acres of arable land, worth 3*d.* an acre; 15 acres of meadow, worth 18*d.* an acre; 21 free tenants, who pay 21*s.* a year at Easter and Michaelmas. The pleas and perquisites of the courts of this parcel of the manor are worth 10*s.* a year. He held one parcel of the said manor from the Abbot of Westminster by fealty only, to wit, the moiety of a grange, worth 6*d.* yearly, and . . . acres of arable land, worth 23s., price of the acre . . . ; 10 acres of meadow, worth 18d. an acre; one pasture, worth 5s. a year; 6 acres of wood, worth 6d. an acre. He also held from the said Abbot . . . free tenants, who pay . . . a year. He also held a parcel of land in the said manor from the Prior of Durhurst, to wit, 40 acres of land, by fealty and a rent of 7s. yearly at Michaelmas. They are worth 10s. yearly. He also held 20 acres of land there from Thomas de Berkeley of Coburleye and Joan his wife by fealty [?] only, a rent of 9s. at Christmas, 1 lb. of pepper at Christmas, and 1 lb. of cummin on St. Kenelm's Day. This parcel is worth nothing beyond the said rents. Total, £8 8s. Rent paid to the Prior of Durhurst 7s., therefore the clear yearly value is £8 12d.

The said John held the said manor of Longeford of John, son of Nicholas, as one-fifth of a knight's fee. There is a messuage there, worth 12d.; 100 acres of arable land, worth 3d. an acre; 30 acres of meadow, worth 2s. an acre. There are 10 tenants, who hold divers tenements, whose services are worth 60s. yearly. The pleas and perquisites are worth 6s. a year. Total, £7 12s.

The said John held the manor of Teynton and Kilcote from the King in chief by the service of half a knight's fee for term of his life only. There is one messuage there, worth 12d. a year; 120 acres of arable land, worth 2d. an acre; 3 acres of meadow, worth 12d. an acre; 3 acres of wood, worth 12d. an acre; 12 tenants holding divers tenements, and paying 10s. yearly at Easter and Michaelmas. The pleas and perquisites are worth 5s. yearly. Total of the manor of Teyntone, 40s.

He also held the manor of Bykenore of the inheritance of Hawysia de Ferres his wife for the term of his life from the King in chief, by the service of paying 15s. to the King at Newenham. There is one messuage there, worth 6d. yearly; 60 acres of arable land, worth 2d. an acre; 3 acres of meadow, worth 6d. an acre; 16 free tenants, who pay 20s. a year at Easter and Michaelmas. The pleas and perquisites are worth 3s. a year. Clear yearly value, after deducting the King's rent, 20s.

The said John de Bures died at Botynton on Wednesday, the Morrow of St. Thomas the Apostle, 24 Edward III [1350]. The reversion of the manors of Botynton and Longeford belongs to Giles de Beauchamp and Katherine his wife, as is abovesaid. John, son of Robert de Ferrers, is next heir of the said Hawysia, and is aged 19 years.

John de Vaal of Broughton.

Inquisition taken upon the King's writ, directing the Sheriff of Gloucester to make an extent of the lands of John de Vaal of Broughton, who on 5th July last acknowledged in the King's Chancery that he owed £50 to the Abbot of Winchcombe, which he ought to pay on the Feast of St. Peter ad Vincula then next to come, and which he has not paid, etc. Dated 28th August, 24 Edward III [1350].

Extent made at Mukelton before Simon Basset, sheriff of Gloucester, on Saturday before Michaelmas, 24 Edward III [1350], by the oath of William de Ewenlode, Thomas Jurdan, John Lescy, John Lenay, Richard Bussel, John atte Chaumbre, Walter Felpes, Henry de Chestre, Richard Frankeleyn of Quentone, Robert Osegode, William Aze, and John de Werley, who say that John de Vaal had at Mukeltone on the said 5th July 2 bond tenants, whose works and services are worth 29s.; 2 free tenants, who pay 6s. 4d. yearly for all services; and 3 cottagers, who pay 6s. 8d. yearly. At Overquentone the said John had 3 free tenants, who pay 31s. yearly. At Larkestocke he had one messuage and 4 virgates of arable land, worth 13s. 4d. yearly beyond the reprise. He had no other lands "in my bailiwick" which can be valued.

Henry de Brockworth.

Inquisition taken before Simon Basset, the King's escheator in co. Gloucester, at Gloucester, on Friday before the Feast of St. Kenelm, 24 Edward III [1350], by the oath of William atte Mersshe, Walter Toky, William le Clierk, Walter Seuar, William atte Playstude, John de Brocworthe, Thomas Passemer, John Palmere, John de Mattesdone, John de Wydecombe, William Arnald, and Walter Wyllames, who say that

It would be no damage to the King or any other to allow Henry de Brocworthe to grant 3 messuages, 2 carucates of land, 6 acres of meadow, and 18s. rents in Brokworthe to the Priory of Lanthony next Gloucester in part satisfaction of £10 worth of lands, etc., which the priory has the King's license to acquire, nor to allow the said priory to re-grant the same to the said Henry for his life. The premises are held of the said priory by the service of 10s. yearly and suit of court twice a year. One messuage, with a dovecot, is worth half a mark yearly; one messuage is worth 3s. 4d.; the third messuage is worth 20d. a year. The said 2 carucates contain 120 acres, 40 of which are worth 6d. an acre, 40 acres are worth 4d., and 40 acres 3d. an acre. The meadow is worth 13d. an acre. The abovesaid rents are paid yearly by 8 cottagers.

There would still remain to the said Henry in the said county 4 messuages, 2 virgates of land, 15s. rents, and 8 acres of wood.

Cicely, who was wife of Geoffrey Larcher.

Inquisition taken before Simon Basset [as above] at Teukesbury, on Thursday the Feast of SS. Simon and Jude, 24 Edward III [1350], by the oath of Thomas Prikke, Hugh Mustel, John de Derneford the elder, John Pauncefot, John de Derneford the younger, Hugh Broun, John Sampson, Laurence Whithefd, Adam Tappying, John Conyngh, John Cole, and William Chammound, who say that

It would be no damage to the King or any other to allow the said Cicely to retain for her life 4 messuages, 60 acres of land, and 6s. rents in Stoke Archer, which the said Geoffrey, her late husband, and she acquired to themselves and the heirs of the said Geoffrey from John Morin of Swindon, chaplain, without the King's license; also one messuage in the same vill, which the said Geoffrey (who held of the King in chief) demised to Henry Drake and John his son for their lives, and afterwards granted the remainder, after the death of the said Henry and John, to the said John Morin, who re-granted to the said Geoffrey and Cicely without the King's license.

Also it would be no damage to the King or any other to allow Geoffrey de Todyntone, chaplain, to grant 2 messuages, one virgate, and 6 acres of land in the same vill (which he acquired from the said Geoffrey Larcher, who held of the King in chief, without the King's license) to the aforementioned Cicely for her life, with remainder to the heirs of Geoffrey.

The premises are parcel of a moiety of the manor of Archerstoke, which is held of the King [as in inquisition on Geoffrey Larcher]. The messuages are worth nothing beyond the reprises; the 66 acres of land are worth 22s., at 4d. an acre; the said virgate of land contains 36 acres, worth 4d. an acre.

Gilbert de Tyndene.

Inquisition taken before Simon Basset [as above] at Bradeston, on the Feast of St. Michael, 24 Edward III [1350], by the oath of John de Brughampton, John Willies, John Purlewent, Walter le Masoun, Stephen Kenultreo [?], John atte B . . re, John Note, John Geffrey, John Goule, John Bastard, John Russel, and John Giffard, who say that

It would be no damage to the King or any other to allow Gilbert de Tyndene to assign one mill, 60 acres of land, 10 acres of meadow, and 20s. rents in Hulle, Rokhampton, and Thornbury to a chaplain to celebrate every day in the chapel of St. Mary on Severn in the parish of Rokhampton for the health of the King and of the said Gilbert during their lives, and afterwards for their souls.

The messuage [sic] and half an acre of land are held of Sir Thomas de Berkeley, lord of Rokhampton, by knight service, and are worth 3*d.* yearly beyond the reprise. The 26 acres in Hulle are held from John fitz Nichol by the service of 2*d.* yearly, and are worth 13*s.* 4*d.* beyond the reprise. The 30 acres in Thornbury are held from Baron de Stafford by the service of 7*s.* 11*d.* yearly, and are worth 7*s.* 6*d.* beyond the reprise. The 10 acres of meadow in Thornbury and Hulle are held from the said Baron and John fitz Nichol by the aforesaid services. The 20*s.* rents are in Thornbury, and held from the said Baron by the said services. The said Baron, Sir Thomas de Berkeley, son of Maurice de Berkeley, and the said John fitz Nichol are the only intermediaries between the said Gilbert and the King. There would still remain to the said Gilbert one messuage, 1½ virgates of land, and 6 acres of meadow, worth 40*s.* yearly beyond the reprises, and held of Sir Thomas de Berkeley, lord of Rokhampton, by the service of coming to his court of Rokhampton without any other service.

Inquisition taken before Walter Dustyn, the King's escheator in co. Gloucester, at Campedene, on Friday next after the Feast of St. Chad the Bishop, 25 Edward III [1351], by the oath of William de Ewenlode, John atte Chambre, Henry de Chestre, John de Weoleye of Brodecampedene, Robert Osegod, William Acee, John Lescy, Thomas de Charyngworthe, Henry Honne, Hugh Burne, John Thursteyn, and Hugh Pynel, who say that

It would be no damage to the King or any other to allow the said Thomas Harald and William de Ombreslepe to grant to Evesham Abbey 8 messuages, 252 acres of land, and pasture for 8 oxen and one bull in Bradwelle, Donyngton, Seynesbury, Stowe St. Edward, and Malgarsbury. The premises are held of the Abbot of Evesham in chief as follows: 3 messuages and 150 acres of land in Seynesbury are held by fealty and a rent of 14*s.* payable at Michaelmas; the messuages are worth 2*s.* 6*d.* a year, the land 3*d.* an acre; 2 messuages and 100 acres of land in Donyngton, by the service of 1 lb. of cummin and suit at the Abbot's court of Bradwelle every 3 weeks; the said messuages are worth 12*d.*, and the land 2*d.* an acre. The pasture is at Bradwelle, and is held by a rent of one peppercorn yearly at Christmas; it is worth 2*s.* There are 2 messuages at Stowe St. Edward, held by a rent of 8*d.* a year, payable at Michaelmas, and worth 12*d.* There is a messuage and 2 acres of land at Malgarsbury, held by the service of a rose at the Feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist; the messuage is worth 4*d.* and the land 4*d.*

The said Thomas and William have no other tenements in the said county.

Inquisition taken at — before Richard de Foxcote, the King's escheator in co. Gloucester with the March of Wales adjacent, on Monday after the Feast of the Epiphany, 25 Edward III [1352], by the oath of Richard Brounyng, Thomas Passemer, John de Mattesdone, John Croys, Walter Seuerne, John le Freman, John Goddrich, Walter Carswelle, Hugh atte Wynyard, John de Wydecombe, William Lauerance, and Thomas Pricke, who say that John de Holewey, chaplain, who is deceased, held from the heir of Hawysia de Ferrers, deceased (who held from the King in chief), being within age and in the custody of the King, as well in his demesne as in service in the county of Gloucester one messuage and 2 cottages, worth 2*s.* yearly; 36 acres of land, worth 1½*d.* an acre; and 4 acres of meadow, worth 12*d.* an acre, by demise of John de Bures and Hawysia his wife for term of the life of the said John de Holewey, in Botynton. The reversion belongs to John de Ferrars, cousin and heir of the said Hawysia [as above].

John de Holweye died on the Morrow of St. Thomas the Apostle, 24 Edward III [1350].

John de Ferrars was 19 years old on the Feast of St. Laurence last past [1351].

Roger Mautravers.

Inquisition taken there [at Gloucester?] before Philip le Mareschal, the King's escheator in co. Gloucester, on Saturday next after the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, 25 Edward III

[1351], by the oath of Richard Brounyng, William de Pleystoude, Thomas Passemer, William le Clerk, William Yngleys, John in the Felde of Paginhulle, Walter Seuarne, William de Carswelle, John le Fremon, Hugh de Wyneyerd, John le Hunte, and Walter de Ocholt, who say that

Roger Mautravers held nothing from the King in chief in the said county, either in demesne or in service, on the day he died, but he held for term of his life one messuage, one carucate of land, 4 acres of meadow, 3 acres of pasture, and 13s. 4d. rents in Luttle Shurdunton in the manor of Beggeworth. The premises are worth 40s. yearly in addition to the rents. They are held of John de Ferrers and Elizabeth his wife by the service of paying 6d. or one pair of gilt spurs at Easter, in the name of dower of the said Elizabeth, which she holds of the inheritance of John le Straunge, in the manor of Beggeworth.

The said Roger held in fee there on the day he died 2 messuages and 15 acres of land, by knight service, from the said John and Elizabeth as above, worth 5s. yearly.

Roger died 14th December, 22 Edward III [1348]. John Mautravers, son of John Mautravers, brother of the said Roger, is his next heir, and aged 60 years.

Nicholas de Berkeleze.

Writ, dated 6th November, 25 Edward III [1351], addressed to Thomas de Bradestone, Simon Basset, and John Tracy, directing them to inquire as to the tenure of the manor of Dodyngton. Nicholas de Berkeleze, son and heir of Hawysia, who was wife of John de Berkeleze, exhibited a petition in the Parliament last held at Westminster, stating that although the manor of Dodyngton in co. Gloucester was held wholly of Gilbert, late Earl of Gloucester, by knight service, and the said Nicholas had done homage to Ralph, Earl of Stafford, who married Margaret, daughter and heir of Margaret, who was wife of Hugh de Audele the elder, sister and one of the heirs of the said Earl Gilbert, to whom this knight's fee was assigned, yet, by pretext of an inquisition taken on the death of the said Hawysia, by which it was found that she held all her lands of the King in chief, homage was demanded of the said Nicholas for the said manor, as well as for the other lands held of the King.

Inquisition taken before Sir Simon Basset and Sir John Tracy, knights, at Wotton under Egge on Thursday the Feast of St. Thomas the Martyr, 25 Edward III [1351], by the oath of Nicholas

The said manor was held wholly of Gilbert, Earl of Clare, and from time immemorial has been held of the Earls of Gloucester. It is now held of Ralph, Earl of Stafford, as parcel of the Earldom of Gloucester, coming to him [as abovesaid] with his wife. Nicholas has paid his relief and done homage to the said Ralph, and he holds no other lands at Dodyngton, except the said manor, which is worth £10 a year.

Thomas de Berkele of Coburleye and Joan his wife.

Inquisition taken there [at Gloucester?] before Richard de Foxcote, the King's escheator in the county of Gloucester and the March of Wales adjacent, on Monday after the Feast of the Epiphany, 25 Edward III [1352], by the oath of Thomas Prikke, John de Wydecombe, Thomas Passemer, William Gernon, John de Mattesdone, William Laurence, Richard Brounyng, Walter Seuaz, John le Fremon, John Godrich, John Droys, and Hugh Atewynzard, who say that

It would be no damage to the King or any other to allow Thomas de Berkele of Coburleye and Joan his wife to enfeoff John le Botiler, chaplain, and William de Westhale with a moiety of the manor of Archerstoke, and the reversion of one-third of the said manor, 118 acres of land, and 2 acres of meadow in Archerstoke, which Robert de Sharshulle and Cicely his wife hold for term of her life of the inheritance of the said Joan, for the purpose of a re-enfeoffment of the said Thomas and Joan in tail, with contingent remainder to the right heirs of Joan.

The premises are held of the King in chief by the service of finding one archer in the King's war for 40 days at the tenants' cost within the four seas of England. They are worth 106s. 8d.

The said Thomas and Joan have besides the manor of Coburleye in county Gloucester, held of Nicholas de Berkele of Dursleye by the service of one-fourth of a knight's fee, and worth £10 yearly.

Walter de Iole.

Inquisition taken at Gloucester before John de Westone, the King's escheator in co. Gloucester, on Monday next after the Feast of All Saints, 26 Edward III [1352], by the oath of Adam Clauylle, Henry Duryar, William Hockenale, Richard ate Churcheye, William Badecok, John Pygaz, William Suthegroue, Richard Clyfeshale, John Poukare, William Cartere, Henry Waites, and John de la Gotere, who say that

The said Walter held a moiety of the manors of Broderysyndone and Sapertone, with the advowsons of the churches of the said manors, of the King in chief by knight service, jointly with Joan his wife, who survives. The moiety of Broderysyndone is worth 50s., that of Sapertone 40s.

The said Walter died [on the Vigil of] Michaelmas last. William, his son and heir, was aged 2 at the Feast of St. Peter ad Vincula last.

Inquisition taken before John de Westone [as above] at Cirencestre on Monday next before the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul, 26 Edward III [1353], by the oath of Roger de Chestretone, Geoffrey Aylwyne, Robert Barbast, William Pulham, William Mareys, Robert Wattes of Lecchelade, Henry Norman, James le Gryse, Richard Herwarde, Richard atte Hyde, Richard de Gulue, and Walter atte Halle, who say that John, late Earl of Kent, held in his demesne as of fee tail, to him and the heirs of his body, by the King's charter, on the day he died, the manor of Lecchelade of the King in chief by knight service, worth £90 a year. He also held in fee tail, as above, the manor of Barnedesleye from the Earl of Hertford by knight service, worth £16 a year; and the manors of Ouersodyngtone and Musarder, of the barony of Staneleye, by knight service; the former is worth £8 yearly, the latter £6 13s. 4d.

He was also seised of an annual farm of £30, payable at Michaelmas by the Abbot of Cirencester for the farm of the vill of Cirencester and seven hundreds.

The said Earl died on Wednesday, the Feast of St. Stephen, in the said year [1352]. Joan, wife of Thomas de Holande, sister and next heir of the said late Earl, is aged 24.

Inquisition as to knights' fees and advowsons of churches held by the said late Earl, taken at Cirencestre before John de Westone [as above], on Monday next after the Feast of the Purification of the

B.V.M., 27 Edward III [1354], by the oath of Geoffrey Ailwene, Robert Barbast, William Pulham, William More, Robert Wattes of Licchelaide, Robert Say, Henry Norman, John le Gris, Richard Hereward, Richard ate Hode, and Richard de Culue, who say that

The said Earl held in tail [as above], from the King in chief, the moiety of a knight's fee in Colesbourne, which John Lehaut held of him by knight service, worth 50s. a year; the moiety of a fee in Ickombe, which Roger Blaket and Margaret, his wife, held of him by knight service, worth 50s. a year; also the advowson of the church of Musarder, worth 10 marks yearly, and the advowson of Licchelaide Priory, worth nothing, because the Earl received nothing in times of vacancy, but only gave them license to elect another prior in place of the prior deceased.

William de Edyndon, Bishop of Winchester.

Inquisition taken before John de Weston [as above] at Thormerton on Tuesday next after the Feast of the Nativity of the B.V.M., 26 Edward III [1352], by the oath of William de Pulham, Geoffrey Ailwyne, Robert Barbast, John Russel, John de Upcote, Richard ate Stable, John Fyfyde, Roger de Mortone, Ralph Derham, Thomas Kynne, Richard ate Hyde, and Richard Hereward, who say that William de Edyndon, Bishop of Winchester, acquired the manor of Thormerton, with the advowson of the church of Thormerton, which are held of the King in chief, from Sir John de St. Philibert, knight, without obtaining the King's license, on Sunday next after the Feast of St. Augustine, 25 Edward III [1351]. There is in that manor a capital messuage, worth nothing yearly beyond the upkeep of the houses; 2 carucates of land, containing 300 acres, one half of which can be sown every year, each acre so sown being worth 3d.; the other half which is not sown is worth nothing, because the said 2 carucates lie in common. There are 6 acres of meadow, worth 6s.; 6s. 6d. of the rents of free tenants; 32s. of the rents of bond tenants there, both free and bond rents being paid at the feasts of St. Michael, St. Thomas the Apostle, the Annunciation, and the Nativity of St. John the Baptist in equal portions.

Inquisition taken before John de Westone [as above] at Cirencester on Monday next after the Feast of St. Hilary, 26 Edward III [1353], by the oath of William de Pulham, Robert de Northcote, Richard Hereward, William Mareys, Thomas Elnaunt, Robert Braunche, Ralph Derham, William de Cundecote, Thomas Cleregise, William de Pedeworth, Thomas Olyuer, and Thomas Kynne, who say that Henry de Wylynton held from the Abbot of Cirencester 8 virgates of land in the manor of Westonebrut by fealty and the service of 25s. 4d. and one pair of gloves, worth 1d., and by suit every 3 weeks at the Abbot's court. These rents of 25s. 4d. and the gloves the said Henry and all tenants of the said lands and manor have paid to the said Abbey from time immemorial, and the Abbey has received the same until the same manor came into the King's hand and into the custody of Thomas Bonuyle, by reason of the minority of the heir of the said Henry.

Inquisition taken at Gloucester before John de Westone [as above] on Monday next after the Feast of St. Michael, 26 Edward III [1352], by the oath of John de Milkesham, John Capel, Elias de Berlegh, William de Ledeñ, Edmund de Chedworth, John Draycote, John ate Boure, Nicholas Wyneband, Richard de Alkelegh, Nicholas Poynz, John le More, and Walter With, who say that

Edmund, late Earl of Kent, on the 14th of March, 4 Edward III [1330], on which day he was arrested at Winchester, was seised of the manor of Lecchelade in his demesne as of fee tail, to him and the heirs of his body, held of the King in chief by knight service, and worth £100 a year; the manor of Bardesleghe, held as above, worth £26 yearly; the manor of Sodyntone Musard, held as above, worth £16; the manor of Musarder, held as above, worth £18. He held in tail male the farm of the vill of Gloucester from the King in chief. The King in the lifetime of the said Edmund seised all the premises into his hands, and afterwards gave the said farm to Queen Isabella, his mother, for her life; she granted her estate therein to Thomas de Bradeston, chivaler. Edmund, son of the aforesaid Edmund (who, the writ states, died within age, a ward to the King), never had anything in the said farm. After the death of the said Edmund the father, the King in Parliament granted the manors abovesaid to Edmund, son of Edmund, to hold hereditarily if no judgment were pronounced against his said father.

Edmund, son of Edmund, died 5th January, 6 Edward III [1333].

Manor of Southam.

Writ, dated 12th November, 26 Edward III [1352], directed to Gilbert de Shotesbroke, John Loueday, and John Dagenhale, clerk. The King has been informed that certain charters and evidences concerning the manor of Stanford in Berks, which is of the inheritance of Margaret and Elizabeth, daughters and heirs of Reginald fitz Herbert, deceased, who are within age and wards to the King, were removed by certain persons after the death of the said Reginald, to the manifest danger of the disinheritance of the said heirs. The above-named commissioners are to make inquiry.

Inquisition taken in Berks, 1326. The jury say that Herbert, son of John, by his charter long since gave to Reginald, his younger son, the manors of Stanford in Berks and Southam in Gloucestershire, to hold to him and the heirs of his body by a rent of one rose at Midsummer. After Herbert's death, Matthew, his son and heir, quitclaimed the premises to the said Reginald by his writing. After Reginald's death this writing came into the hands of his wife Julian. They say that Matthew, son of Herbert, and Richard de Benham so proceeded, maliciously and by unlawful agreement, and by gifts and promises made to Robert de Boxere and Thomas de Saunderville, who were then advisers of the said Julian, that she gave up the said writing to the said Matthew and Richard at Stanford, and it still remains in the custody of the former.

John de Tydemersh, who afterwards married the said Julian, delivered to William de Bertone, chivaler, guardian of the heirs of the said Reginald on behalf of the King, 85 charters, deeds, and acquittances, formerly belonging to the said Reginald, touching the manor of Stanford. They do not know at all into whose hands the rest of the deeds may have come.

John de Aram and John Coppe.

Inquisition taken before John de Westone, the King's escheator in co. Gloucester, at Westbury on Tuesday next after the Feast of the [Nativity] of St. John the Baptist, 26 Edward III [1352], by the oath of Thomas Claxhulle, Thomas Sukkeleye [?], Peter Walmor, Henry Burghende [?], John atte Grene, John Shory, John Robyns of St. . . wey, Richard . . hornes, John Hemyng, John Baderou, John Ryol, and Richard Wattes, who say that

It would be no damage to the King, or any other, to allow John de Ham and John Coppe to assign one messuage in Westbury to William de Farendone, vicar of the church of Westbury, to hold to him and his successors for their manse there. It is held of Geoffrey le Mareschal, vicar of the church of Longheope, by the service of 3s. yearly. It is worth nothing beyond the reprise.

There would still remain to the said John de Aram one messuage and one carucate of land in the manor of Rodleye, for term of his life, held of Henry, Duke of Lancaster, by the service of 5s. yearly and suit every 3 weeks at his court of Rodleye; they are worth 40s. a year beyond the reprise. John Coppe would still retain one messuage and 2 acres of arable land in Westbury, worth 4s. yearly beyond the reprise; the messuage is held of Robert de Aune by the service of 2s. yearly and suit at his court, the land of Sir Richard Talbot, knight, by the service of 2s. 4d. yearly rent.

John de Frethorn.

Inquisition taken in Berks, 7th June, 27 Edward III [1353]. The jury say that John de Frethorn held of the heir of William de Botreaux, who held of the King in chief, the heir being a minor and ward to the King, the manor of Chelreye in Berks, together with the manor of Frethorn in Gloucestershire, by the service of half a knight's fee. The manor of Chelreye was held jointly with Elizabeth his wife, who survives.

John de Frethorn died 20th May last [1353]. Walter, his brother and heir, is aged 18.

Gilbert Talebot.

Inquisition taken before Simon Basset, the King's escheator in co. Gloucester, at Westbury on Monday next after the Feast of St. Gregory the Pope, 20 Edward III [1346], by the oath of John Jocé, William de Bray, Philip le Longe, John de Aure, William de Scaure, Robert atte Strode, Philip le Mareschal, Osbert Malemort, Richard le White, Philip Baderoun, John de Ocle, and John de Southorle, who say that Gilbert Talebot held no lands, etc., of the King in chief in my bailiwick on the day he died, but he held the moiety of one knight's fee in Lydeneye from the Earl of Warwick by knight service, worth £10 yearly, and the manor of Longehope from the Earl of Lancaster by the service of half a knight's fee, worth £10 yearly.

The said Gilbert died 24th February last [1346]. Richard Talebot, his next heir [the Hereford Inq. p.m. says son and heir], is aged 40.

Robert Gyen of Bristol.

Inquisition taken at Bristol before John de Westone, the King's escheator in co. Gloucester, on Thursday next after the Feast of St. Valentine, 28 Edward III [1354], by the oath of Hugh de Fromptone, Walter Derby, John Lym, Roger Spert, Henry Pykk, John de Bathe, Richard de Alkeleye, Nicholas Poyntz, John Pesschoñ, Ralph Waleys, John Tony, and Robert de Leye, who say that

The said Robert held no lands, etc., in his demesne as of fee, nor in service, in my bailiwick, but he held the manor of Oluestone, with the advowson of the church of that manor, for the term of his life and for 2 years following, so that his executors or assigns may dispose of that manor during those 2 years and present that church to suitable parsons.

He died 21st January in the year abovesaid [sic] [1354]. Robert Gyene of Somerset is his next heir, and is of full age.

John Mautravers.

Inquisition taken before John de Westone [as above] at Gloucester on Tuesday next after the Epiphany, 27 Edward III [1353], by the oath of William Mareschal,, John Hunte, John Lescy, William de Maldone, Roger atte Mulle, Robert Flemyng, Thomas . . . , John de Beaumaner, and John Spensere, who say that

It would be no damage to the King or any other to allow John Mautravers to enfeof Edmund de Beresford, Nicholas Pynnok, and Henry de Tyngewyk with his manor of Kyngestanleigh, in order to a re-enfeoffment of himself and his wife Agnes in tail male, with contingent remainder to William, son of Edmund de Berford, and Joan, daughter of John, son of the said John Mautravers, in tail male, and in default again to John, son of John, son of Robert Mautravers, and Roger, son of Edward Mautravers, in tail male successively. The manor is held of the King in chief by knight service, and is worth 20 marks yearly. The said John Mautravers has no other lands or tenements in the said county.

John de Sudeley.

Inquisition taken upon a writ, dated 4th December, 27 Edward III, requiring information as to the tenure of the lands of John de Sudeley, so as to determine whether the marriage of the heir belongs to the King.

The inquisition itself is in too bad a state to decipher consecutively. The calendar gives Sudeley manor, with lands in Stanley, Pountlarge, and Grete. The inquisition says that John de Sudeley, jointly with Eleanor his wife, held the manor of Sudeley of the King in chief by barony, except the services of Thomas Blaunkfrount and Richard Daflyn [?]; therefore the marriage of the heir belongs to the King.

Henry, Duke of Lancaster.

Richard atte Stable, James le Gryss, William Mareys, William George, John de Caumpedene, Roger de Mortone, Richard de Culne, Richard atte Halle, and Thomas Olyuer, who say that

It would be no damage to the King or any other to allow his cousin Henry, Duke of Lancaster, to assign his manors of Kynemersford and Cheddeworth to the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of St. Mary of Leycester, to hold to them and their successors for ever. They are held of the King in chief by knight service, to wit, Kynemersford for half a knight's fee, and Cheddeworth for a quarter of a knight's fee; they are worth £40 and 100s. respectively.

John Giffard.

Inquisition taken before Thomas de Berkele of Coberleigh, the King's escheator in co. Gloucester, at Gloucester on Friday in Whit-week, 29 Edward III [1356], by the oath of William Geffes, Simon Marchal, Thomas Greuel, John Brasebrugge, Robert James, Henry le Neweman, Nicholas Webbe, John de Weoleye, Richard le Webbe, John Dauy, John le Smythe, and Richard le Boon [?], who say that John Giffard of Weston Underegge held from the King in chief on the day he died at Norton Underegge in the county aforesaid the manor of Norton by knight service. There is one messuage there, worth nothing yearly beyond the reprise; 2 carucates of land, worth 26s. 8d. yearly; 12 acres of meadow, worth 18s. He had £9 rents there, payable yearly at Michaelmas and Easter in equal portions by the bond and free tenants, and a several pasture, worth 10s. yearly. The pleas and perquisites of the courts there are worth 3s. 4d. yearly beyond the reprise. The herbage and fruit of a garden are worth 3s. 4d. There is also a dovecot worth 3s. 4d.

Joan, who was wife of Thomas le Botiler, chivaler, mother of the said John Giffard, which Joan died 12th May in the said year, held in dower of the inheritance of the said John Giffard the manor of Weston, which is held of the King in chief by like service. There is one messuage there, worth 12d. yearly beyond the reprise; 3 carucates of land, worth 40s.; 20 acres of meadow, worth 40s. There is an enclosed park, the underwood of which can be sold to the amount of 20s. a year; and there is a several pasture in the same park worth 13s. 4d. There are 20 marks' rent from free and bond tenants, payable at the Feasts of St. Thomas the Apostle, the Annunciation, the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, and St. Michael in equal portions. There is a dovecot worth

2s. yearly; the pleas and perquisites of the courts are worth 1rs. 8d. yearly.

John Giffard died 30th November, 27 Edward III [1353]. Elizabeth, his daughter and heir, is aged 4.

William de Astone and Peter de Eggeworthe.

Inquisition taken at Gloucester before the abovesaid escheator . . . August, 29 Edward III [1353], by the oath of John Oliuer, John Glede, John Cole, John de Brighthampton, John atte Bertone, Richard de Salisbury, William atte Mersshe, Walter Toky, John de Mattesdone, Thomas Passemer, William Laurence, and William Ingleys, who say that

It would be no damage to the King or any other to allow William de Astone to grant a toft and 5 acres of land in Partone and Bryghthampton, and Peter de Eggeworthe to grant a toft and 2 acres of land in Uptone St. Leonard to the Prior and Convent of St. Oswald of Gloucester, and to allow the said Peter to grant them the remainder of 5 messuages, 2 shops, and 7s. rents in Gloucester, which Thomas, son of William le Spyser, and Amice his wife hold for term of her life, in part satisfaction of £10 worth of lands and rents which they have license to acquire by the King's letters patent.

Of the abovesaid 5 messuages one is held of the Prior of Derhurst by the service of 4s. rent and suit at his court, held in the vill of Gloucester every 3 weeks, and the Prior holds of the King in chief. Another is held of the Abbot of Tintern by 5*s.* rent, and the Abbot holds of the King. Another is held of the Prior of Lanthony next Gloucester by 12*d.* rent, and the Prior holds of the Earl of Hereford in frankalmoin. The fourth messuage is held of the said Prior of St. Oswald by 2*s.* rent, and the Prior holds of the King. The last is held of the Abbot of St. Peter of Gloucester by a rent of 7*s.*, and the Abbot holds of the King. The 2 shops are held of the Prior of Lanthony by a rent of 14*s.*, and the Prior holds of the King.

The toft and land to be granted by William de Astone are held of the said Prior of St. Oswald, who holds of the King, by a rent of 4*s.* The toft and land to be granted by Peter de Eggeworthe are held of Thomas Passemer by a rent of 12*d.*; Passemer holds of the Abbot of St. Peter of Gloucester, together with other lands, by a rent of . . . s., and the Abbot holds of the King. The 7*s.* rents are held of the said Prior of St. Oswald by a rent of 1*d.*

There would still remain to William de Astone 2 virgates . . . and . . . s. rents in Colde Astone, held of the said Prior of St. Oswald . . . ; also 2 virgates of land and 16*s.* 6*d.* rents there, held of the Abbess of Godestowe . . . altogether worth 50*s.* . . . a year. The said Peter would still retain one carucate of land and 40*s.* rents in Preston . . . held of the Bishop of Hereford by 6*s.* rent.

John fitz Nicol.

Inquisition taken before Sir Thomas de Berkele of Cubberle, knight, escheator [as above], at Tettebury on Wednesday next after the Feast of St. Hilary, 29 Edward III [1356], by the oath of John Joye, John Wynebaud, Richard Chansy, John le Broke, Roger Caumbray, Roger Frauncombe, Walter Person, John Holdere, John de Westone of Hyntone, Thomas Monk, John Bayouse, and William Turgys, who say that

It would be no damage to the King or any other to allow John Fitz Nicol to enfeoffe John, parson of the church of Seyntpere, and Walter, parson of the church of Camme, with the manors of Hulle and Nymdesfelde, and the advowson of the chantry of Kynleye, in order to a re-enfeofment of himself and Eva his wife in tail male. The premises are held of the King by knight service.

In the manor of Hulle there is one messuage, worth nothing beyond the reprise; 2 carucates of land, worth 26s. 8d. a year. In the manor of Nymdesfelde there is a similar messuage and 2 carucates, one of which is worth 10s., the other 3s. 4d., and not more, because it lies untilled. The chantry is worth nothing yearly, because it is vacant. The said John has no other lands, etc., in the said county.

Matthew Fitz Herbert.

Inquisition taken at Gloucester before Robert de Hildesle, the King's escheator in the county of Gloucester and the March of Wales adjacent, on Wednesday the Feast of St. Peter in Cathedra, 31 Edward III [1357], by the oath of Peter le Frensshe, John le Spencer, John Neuwelonde, Nicholas Spillemon, John de Stonhouse, Roger Norreys, William le Walssh, John Lescy, William West, Richard Whelere, Stephen Graunt, and John de Maldone, who say that Matthew Fitz Herbert held on the day he died one messuage and one carucate of land in Harsefelde in the county of Gloucester from Edward de St. John le Neu in fee tail, by fine levied in the King's court between the said Edward, plaintiff, and the said Matthew, deforciant, under which he held the premises of the said Edward by a rent of one rose at the Feast of St. John the Baptist, and by doing for the said Edward the services due to the chief lord of the fee, with contingent remainder to his brother Reginald for life, and reversion to the said Edward. The said Reginald died 5 years since. Matthew died without issue 4th December, 30 Edward III [1356]. Edward held the premises from the King in chief by the service of one-quarter of a knight's fee. They are worth £10 yearly.

Inquisition taken before the abovesaid escheator at Stone, 24th January, 30 Edward III [1356], by the oath of John Parlewent, Walter Mathewes, John Bastard, Stephen Kynebere, Joseph Basshe, Thomas Woor, Richard Aleyn, Walter Morys, Nicholas le Mason, William Britteuille [?], Robert Broun, and William le Maltman, who say that

It would be no damage to the King or any other to allow John le Sergeant the younger to assign 9 messuages, 80 acres of land, 6 acres of meadow, and 2s. 1d. rent in Hamme, Hulle, Alkylntone, and Camme, to a chaplain to celebrate every day in the chapel of Stone for the health of the said John, of Thomas de Berkele of Berkele, and Maurice his son, and of William de Chilttenham during their lives, and for their souls after their death.

One messuage, 27 acres of land, 2½ acres of meadow, and 1d. rent in Hamme, 4 messuages, 28 acres of land, 1½ acres of meadow in Alkylntone, and one messuage, 14 acres of land, 1 acre of meadow, and 2s. rent in Camme, are held from Thomas de Berkele, Lord de Berkele, by the service of 13s. 3½d. rent, and the said Thomas holds of the King another messuage and 3 acres of land in Hamme from John Capel by a rent of 2s. 2d. a year; Capel holds of the said Thomas by a rent of 1d., and he of the King. Two other messuages, 8 acres of land, and 1 acre of meadow in Hulle are held from John fitz Nicol, lord of Hulle, by the service of one clove gillyflower and 2d. yearly, and John Fitz Nicol holds of the King. The whole of the premises are worth 52s. yearly. John le Sergeant will still retain one messuage, one carucate of land, and 30s. rents in the vills aforesaid, held of Thomas de Berkele, Lord de Berkele, by the service of one pair of gloves and one bushel of wheat yearly, worth 20s.

Hospital of St. Bartholomew of Gloucester.

Writ, dated 18th May, 29 Edward III [1355], directed to William, Prior of Lantony, and William de Chillenham. The King, understanding this hospital was in his patronage and of the foundation of his progenitors, on account of certain defects in the said hospital, lately appointed certain faithful men to visit it, as well in chief as in its members, for the repairing of these defects, as appears more at large in the letters patent. Now R., Bishop of Worcester, petitions that the hospital is in his jurisdiction, and that the Bishops of Worcester have had the visitation thereof from time immemorial. An inquiry is to be made, that the King may revoke the said letters patent if they prove to be an infringement of the Bishop's rights.

Inquisition taken at Gloucester on Tuesday next after the Feast of St. Barnabas, 30 Edward III [1356], before William, Prior of Lantony, and William de Chillenham, by the oath of Robert Broun, Philip le Mareschal, John de Mattesdone, John Glede, John de Brighthampton, William Laurence, William de Kyngeshawe, Thomas de Monyntone, Henry le Draper, Thomas le Spicer, Walter de Elemor, and Elias Bursy, who say that

In the time of [Henry], King of England, son of the Empress, one Nicholas Walred, chaplain, began to build the bridge called Westbrugge, and a number of workers were collected there; among them was one William Myparty, formerly burgess of the vill of Gloucester, and he built on a small piece of his land, which he held of the King in chief, for the aforesaid Nicholas, William, and the other workers dwelling together there, where the hospital of St. Bartholomew of Gloucester is now built. And this William, with the rest of the workers and other sick people of both sexes, dwelt there together all the time of his life, and so he permitted the said house for the use of the workers and sick people, and for a long while before the "time of memory" they lived in the aforesaid house, always with a priest in hermit's habit, governor of the said house, and so continued to live in this way on the alms of the faithful, until King Henry, son of King John, at the petition of the Lady Eleanor, his consort, then Queen of England, in the 13th year of his reign by his charter gave the church of St. Nicholas of Gloucester aforesaid to the brethren and sisters of the hospital of St. Bartholomew of that vill, first constituted in the said house by the said King Henry, for the maintenance of the sick and poor of that hospital. The same King Henry gave to the said hospital the small parcel of the land of the highway of the vill of Gloucester, annexed to the said house, upon which their chancel is built, in the 49th year of his reign. He was the first founder and patron of the said hospital, and immediately after the abovesaid gift of the church of St. Nicholas, the brethren and sisters of the hospital begged the King's license to elect the first Prior of the hospital, who was received and confirmed by the King. From the time of the gift of the said church the Bishops of Worcester have been accustomed to visit the said hospital, but by what right the jury do not know.

Cicely, who was wife of Geoffrey Larcher.

Inquisition taken at Gloucester before Robert de Hildesle, the King's escheator in Gloucester and the March of Wales adjacent, on Saturday next after the Feast of SS. Peter and Paul, 31 Edward III [1357], by the oath of Thomas Underhulle, Thomas Pricke, Richard Heym, Richard Underhulle, William Pendok, William Chaumoun [?], John Marny, John atte Nelme, William Gelle, John Chapman, Thomas Wyther, and John Wynter, who say that Cicely, who was wife of Geoffrey Larcher, held of the King in chief for term of her life 2 messuages, one virgate, and 6 acres of land in Stoke Archer. The messuages are worth 2s. a year, the land 12s. She also held in like manner 4 messuages, 60 acres of land, and 6s. rent in Stoke aforesaid, worth altogether 30s. a year. The premises are held, together with the manor of Stoke, of the King by the service of finding one archer in time of war in England for 15 days, and Sir Thomas de Berkele of Cobberle holds the said manor in fee in right of Joan his wife. The said Cicely acquired the premises from Geoffrey de Tedynebone, chaplain, and John Moryn of Swyndone, chaplain, to hold as abovesaid by license of the King. On her death they revert to the heirs of Geoffrey Larcher.

The said Cicely died 19th June last. Joan, daughter and next heir of the said Geoffrey Larcher, is of full age.

Nicholas, son of William Gamage.

Inquisition taken at Leye before Henry de Prestwode, the King's escheator in co. Gloucester, on Monday next after the Feast of St. Nicholas, 32 Edward III [1358], by the oath of Henry Bourthulle, Waller Bauzhan, John Gynour, Peter Walmor, Thomas Gamage, John Coppe, John de Bideford, Richard Godryche, William Godryche, John Lefsy, Nicholas Vyan, and John Warde, who say that Nicholas de Gamage held no lands of the King in chief in Gloucester or the March of Wales adjacent, but he held at Netherleye, in his demesne as of fee, one-third of the manor of Wezebury from John de Penbrugge by the service of one pair of gloves, worth 1d., at Christmas.

There is one capital messuage there, worth nothing a year beyond the reprise; 2 carucates of arable land, two-thirds of which are worth 20s. yearly, and the remaining third lies fallow every year and in common, and is therefore worth nothing. There are 12 acres of meadow, worth 12s., and 10 acres of underwood, worth 2s. There are £4 10s. of rents of assize, payable equally at the Feasts of St. Michael, the Purification, and St. John the Baptist.

The said Nicholas died on Wednesday next after the Feast of the Purification, 23 Edward III [1350]. Margery, Joan, and Elizabeth were his daughters and heirs. At her father's death the said Margery was aged 22, and was married to John Byllyng; Joan was then 16, and was married after her father's death to Hugh Arthour; Elizabeth was aged 7 at her father's death, and has been married to John fitz Hugh of co. Bedford. Hugh Arthour received the issues of the lands for 2 years after the death of Nicholas. John Billyng and the said Hugh have occupied, and do still occupy, two-thirds of the said lands in right of their wives. At the end of the said 2 years Elizabeth gave the third falling to her to Thomas de Wantone, who still receives the profits thereof.

John Blount.

Inquisition taken at Rodeleghe before the abovesaid escheator on Thursday next after the Feast of St. Barnabas the Apostle, 32 Edward III [1358], by the oath of John Billyng, William de Wyke, John Gynour, Thomas Fyel, John Hore, Richard Shrye, Richard Capy, John Danyel, Elias Willies, Richard Norht, Roger Coueley, and William Ordwy, who say that

John Blount, deceased, held no lands in his demesne as of fee on the day he died in the said county either of the King or any other, but he held for term of his life the manors of Rodeleye and Tibertone, by grant of Henry, late Earl of Lancaster, with reversion to the said Earl. They are held of the King by knight service.

There is at Rodeleye one capital messuage, worth nothing a year beyond the reprise; one carucate of arable land, two-thirds of which (when sown) are worth 30s., and they were sown this year before the death of the said John; the other third is lying fallow and in common, and the pasture is therefore worth nothing. There are 18 acres of meadow, worth 36s.; £21 of rents of assize, payable equally at the Feasts of St. Michael, St. Andrew, the Annunciation, and the Nativity of St. John the Baptist. There is a several fishery in the Severn, worth £10. The pleas and perquisites of the courts there are worth 6s. 8d.

At Tibertone there is one capital messuage, worth nothing beyond the reprise; 2 carucates of arable land, two-thirds of which are worth 40s. a year when sown, as they were this year before the death of the said John, the other third [as above]. There are 20 acres of meadow, worth 30s. when mown, and after the mowing they lie in common. There are £22 of rents of assize, payable at the said four terms in equal portions. The pleas and perquisites of the courts there are worth 7s.

The said John Blount died on Thursday next after the Feast of St. Chad this year. Richard, son and heir of the said John, is aged 13.

Peter de Grandisson.

Inquisition taken at Kempeleye before the abovesaid escheator in co. Gloucester, with the March of Wales thereto adjacent, 10th September, 32 Edward III [1358], by the oath of Edmund Boys, Thomas de Hertelaunde, Thomas Okle, William Henneberwe, Robert Ketford, Walter Henneberwe, Thomas de Ledyntone, Robert Dyke, Walter Mayow, Walter Hathewy, Walter Wynter, and William Power, who say that Peter de Grandisson held in his demesne as of fee from the King in chief on the day he died the manor of Dymmoke, as of the ancient demesne of the King, by the service of paying 1d. at Christmas. There are no buildings or demesne lands in the manor; there are 6 acres of meadow, worth 9s. when mown, and after the mowing they lie in common till the Feast of the Purification, and they were mown this year before the said Peter's death. There is one water-mill, worth half a mark yearly, and not more, because it is ruinous. There are £30 of rents of assize, payable at the four feasts [as in last inquisition]. The pleas and perquisites of the courts are worth 13s. 4d.

The said Peter also held the manor of Oxenhale in fee tail, with contingent remainder, in case of his death without issue, to Thomas de Grandisone. It is held of Roger de Mortimer, Earl of March, as of the inheritance of Geoffrey de Genevyle, as half a knight's fee. There is one capital messuage there, worth nothing beyond the reprise; one curtilage, worth 6*d.* a year; one dovescot, worth 40*d.*; one carucate of arable land, two-thirds of which (when sown) are worth 16*s.*, and they were sown this year before the death of the said Peter, and after the corn harvest they lie in common, and the remaining third lies fallow every year. There are 6½ acres of meadow, worth 9*s.* 9*d.*, which were mown before the said Peter's death, and after the mowing they lie in common till the Feast of the Purification. There is a park, the pasture of which is worth nothing beyond the maintenance of the wild animals, and there is no underwood. There is another outwood, the underwood of which is worth 40*d.*, and the pasture nothing, because it lies in common throughout the year. There are 100*s.* rents of assize of free tenants, payable equally at the Feasts of St. Michael and the Annunciation, and 42*s.* 6*d.* of the rents of bond tenants, payable as above. The pleas and perquisites of the courts are worth 12*d.* yearly.

The said Peter died 10th August last. Sir John de Grandisone, Bishop of Exeter, is brother and heir of the said Peter, and aged 60.

Edmund de Handlo.

Inquisition taken at Lechelade before the said escheator in co. Gloucester on Tuesday next after the Feast of the Ascension, 32 Edward III [1358], by the oath of Geoffrey Aylewyne, Robert de Cotes, William Polham, Hugh Simondes, Roger Blaket, John Crossen, John Chambre, Robert Jurdan, John Weleye, Henry de Fromlyntone, Nicholas Webben, and Reginald Tannar, who say that Edmund de Handlo held no lands in the said county in his demesne as of fee on the day he died, but Robert de Hildesleye, chivaler, and Isabel his wife, mother of the said Edmund, held for term of her life, under a fine thereof late levied in the King's court, the manors of Colne St. Aylwyny, Hatherop, and Wyke, of the inheritance of the said Edmund. The manor of Colne is held of the Abbot of St. Peter of Gloucester by the service of 13*s.* 6*d.* yearly; the manor of Hatherop, from the Abbess of Lacok, by the service of 2*s.*; the manor of Wyke, of the manor of Lechelade, by the service of 5*d.*

The said Edmund died 1st June, 29 Edward III [1355]. Margaret and Elizabeth, his sisters and heirs, are now aged 22 and 16.

Margaret, daughter and heir of Ralph de Abbehale.

Proof of age of the said Margaret taken [upon the claim of Laurence Greyndore, her husband] at Abbehale before the abovesaid escheator, 26th October, 32 Edward III [1358], by the oath of John Billyng, Henry Hannes, Richard Ades, John atte Vyse, John Forest, John Malotes, Martin Smythe, Richard Falleye, William atte Mulle, John Stodmon, Thomas de Falley, and Walter de Couyntre, all being of the age of 40 years and more. They say that

The said Margaret was born at Abbehale, and baptized in the church of that vill on Friday after Easter, 15 Edward III [1341], and was aged 17 on 4th May this year.

Inquisition taken [as above]. The same jurors say that Isabel, who was wife of Ralph de Abbehale, after his death bore a daughter called Ellen, who died on the tenth day after she was born.

The Abbey of St. Augustine of Bristol.

Inquisition taken at Bristol before the abovesaid escheator on Monday next before the Feast of All Saints, 32 Edward III [1358], by the oath of Henry de Cobyndone, Robert Hopere, John Maluerne, John Breware, John Boll, Roger Methelane, William Chebham, John Kerdys, John Kenesek, John Croke, Nicholas Muleward, and Robert Heremyte, who say that

It would be no damage to the King or any other to allow the said Abbey to give to the Prior and Brethren of the Order of St. Mary of Mount Carmel in Bristol 4 messuages contiguous to their manse there, for the enlargement thereof. They are held of Thomas de Berkeley by the service of paying 1 lb. of pepper yearly, and are worth 8s. beyond the reprise.

Ralph, Bishop of Bath and Wells.

Henry Boldhod, Nicholas Drew, John Cokkes, William Persones, Nicholas Herford, Adam Taylour, Richard Taylour, and William Inge, who say that

It would be no damage to the King or any other to allow the said Bishop to grant a messuage and $3\frac{1}{2}$ virgates of land in Pokelchurche to John Aleyn of Pokelchurche and Margaret, his wife, and John, their son, to hold for their lives, with reversion to the Bishop and his successors. The premises are held of the King in chief as parcel of the manor of Pokelchurche, which is of the temporalities of the said Bishop, and is held by homage only; they are worth 2s. yearly beyond the reprise, and not more, because the said grantees are bound to pay a yearly rent of 32s. to the Bishop.

John de Attone.

Inquisition taken at Bristol before the abovesaid escheator [on day and by oath of jurors as in inquisition last but one above].

The jurors say it would be no damage to the King or any other to allow John de Attone to grant one messuage and 50 acres of land in the suburb of Bristol to the Abbey of St. Augustine of Bristol; they are held of the Abbey by the service of 6s. yearly, and are worth 18s. beyond the reprise. The said John would still retain 40 marks' worth of lands and rents in Bristol and Aust, held of the Bishop of Worcester and of Thomas de Berkele by the service of 10s. yearly.

John Coof.

Inquisition taken at Gloucester before the abovesaid escheator on Saturday next after the Feast of St. Matthew, 32 Edward III [1358], by the oath of Philip Marchal, James Grys, John Dobyn, John Uppecote, Richard Arderne, Thomas Kynne, Robert atte Wode, William Pedeworthe, Hugh Mayesmor, William Mareys, William Faukener, and Henry Bordone, who say that

The lands, etc., in Lassyndone, which were John Coof's, as set forth below, were taken into the King's hand, because it was found by an inquisition taken before the abovesaid escheator that the said John Coof was born an idiot, and for no other reason. There is one-fourth of a messuage, worth nothing a year beyond the reprise; 24 acres of arable land, two-thirds of which are worth 4s. when sown, and after the corn harvest they lie in common, and the remaining third lies fallow and in common every year. There are 5½ acres of meadow, worth 8s. 3d. when mown, and after the mowing they lie in common till the Feast of the Purification. There are 26s. 6d. of rents of assize, payable yearly at the Feasts of Michaelmas and the Annunciation equally. The pleas and perquisites of the courts are worth 12d. a year.

John Cooff.

Inquisition taken before the abovesaid escheator at Cirencester, . . . May, 32 Edward III [1358], by the oath of William . . . , John . . . Uppecote, James Grys, Henry Bordone, Richard Arderne, Hugh Mayesmor, Thomas Kynne, Robert Attewode, Thomas . . . , William de Pedeworthe, William Faukener, and William Mareys, who say that John Cooff is an idiot. He holds in his demesne as of fee in Eggesworth one-fourth of one messuage, worth nothing a year beyond the reprise; 30 acres of arable land, two-thirds of which are worth 40d. a year when sown [etc., as before]; 4½ acres of meadow, worth 6s. 9d. when mown [etc., as above]; 13s. of rents of assize, payable yearly [as above]. He also holds at Leye one-fourth of a messuage, worth nothing beyond the reprise; one-fourth of a dovecot, worth 12d.; 60 acres of arable land, two-thirds of which are worth 10s. [etc., as above]; 12 acres of meadow, worth 18s. [as above]; there is a several pasture, worth 2s. He holds one-fourth of a water-mill there, worth half a mark yearly, and 18s. 6d. of rents of assize, payable [as above]. The pleas and perquisites of the courts there are worth 18d. He held at Lassyndone [as in the last inquisition]. At Prestone he holds the rent of one free tenant, 6s., payable at the Feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist.

Inquisition taken at Cirencester before the said escheator, 4th September, 32 Edward III [1358], by the oath of William [Pedeworthe?], Thomas George, William George, Walter atte Zate, John Benet, Robert Playn, William Marreys, Henry Herward, Robert Barbour, William Heryng, Thomas [atte?] Brugge, and Jacob Grys, who say that

It would be no damage to the King or any other to allow the said William Boys, chaplain, William de Westone, and Walter Lullebroke to grant 3 messuages, 5 tofts, 92 acres of land, $1\frac{1}{2}$ acres of meadow, and rents of 4s. 4d., one pair of gloves, and $\frac{1}{2}$ lb. of pepper in Cirencestre, Stratton, Dagelyngworthe, and Wyggewolde to the Abbey of Cirencestre, in part satisfaction of 10 marks' worth of lands and rents per annum, which they have license to acquire under letters patent of Edward II. The premises are held of the said Abbey by a rent of 10s. and suit at their court of Cirencester, and are worth 40s. a year. There would remain to the grantors 3 messuages, 2 carucates of land, and 100s. rent in Cirencester, held of the said Abbey by a rent of 3s.

Elizabeth, who was wife of Richard Talbot.

Inquisition taken before the abovesaid escheator at Payneswyk on Wednesday next before the Feast of St. Peter in Cathedra, 32 Edward III [1358], by the oath of John de Monmouthe, John in the Felde, Roger Seymor, Ivo atte Berwe, Roger Norreys, John Parkar, John Strotfford, John Pygas, William Waryner, John Mattesdone, William Smalrugge, and John Parys, who say that

It would be no damage to the King or any other to allow the said Elizabeth to grant the manor of Whaddon to John de Bromwyck for term of his life. It is held of the King in chief by the service of one-third of a knight's fee, and is worth £10 yearly. The said Elizabeth will still retain the manors of Payneswyk and Mortone.

Inquisition taken at Heyhamstude before the abovesaid escheator on Friday before the Feast of St. Gregory the Pope, 32 Edward III [1358], by the oath of John Spencer, John Newelond, John Notelyn, John ate Gorste, John Lescy [? Lefcy], John Bakare, John Chamberleyn, Ivo ate Berwe, John Stonhous, Thomas le Hunte, John ate Nasshe, and John Colynes, who say that

It would be no damage to the King or any other to allow William Hayberare, chaplain, Robert le Little of Coueeye, clerk, and Richard Stout of Heyhamstude to grant their manor of Elemore to the Priory of Lanthony next Gloucester, in part satisfaction of £10 worth of land and rents by the year, which they have the King's license by letters patent to acquire, and to find three regular canons to celebrate in the Priory church for the said grantors. The court is held of the Earl of Hertford by knight service and suit every month at his court of Gloucester; it is worth £12 a year, and not more, because Thomas de la Mare of Rendecoumbe and Alice, his wife, hold £12 worth of land and rents yearly there of the said manor in fee tail, and Thomas de Ledebury and Amice, his wife, likewise hold in fee rents of 22s. 10½d. yearly, which said lands and rents lately belonged to the said manor.

There will still remain to the grantors £20 worth of land and rents in Gloucester and Aylbryhton, held of the said Priory by a rent of 10s.

John Doly, vicar of the church of Haukesbury, and John Wynebald.

Inquisition taken at Tettebury before the abovesaid escheator, 9th February, [33] Edward III [1359], by the oath of John Joye, William Doly, John Tormerton, John Broun, John Wodecote, John Broc, William atte Hille, and John Turgis, who say that

It would be no damage to the King or any other to allow the said John Doly and John Wynebald to grant to Pershore Abbey 2 messuages, 3 carucates of land, 8 acres of meadow, and 16 acres of wood in Haukesbury, for the maintenance of certain chantries founded in the Abbey church there, and for other pious works; likewise the reversion of the following parcels, viz., one messuage, 6 acres and half a virgate of land, and 2 acres of wood in Haukesbury, which Thomas Broun and Agnes, his wife, hold of the said grantors for term of the lives of the said Thomas and Agnes; one messuage, one acre and half a virgate of land there, held in like manner by Nicholas Shepherd and Alice, his wife; one messuage, one ferling of land, and one acre of wood there, held in like manner by William Gele; one messuage and 4 acres of land there, held in like manner by John Whitheued and Maud, his wife; one messuage, one acre and half a virgate of land there, held in like manner by John Hikkes and Agnes, his wife; 6 acres of land there, held in like manner by John Yerdelyng, Agnes, his wife, and Isabel, their daughter; 2 messuages, 12 acres of land, 3 acres of wood, and half an acre of meadow there, held in like manner by Richard Boxwell, Walter, his son, and Alice, sister of the said Walter. All the premises are held of the said Abbey by a yearly rent of 40s. and suit of court; they are worth 4 marks a year. Sufficient land, etc., will remain to the grantors to enable them to discharge all customs and services they owe.

Repair of Hynewere in the Severn.

Writ, dated 12th July, 32 Edward III [1358], addressed to Thomas de Astone, John Hathewy, and John Joce. It was ascertained by inquisition taken by order of Henry III that the Abbots of Flexleye for the time being, from the days of King John, had held the moiety of a weir in the Severn called Hynewere, by grant of Henry de Minere, formerly lord of that moiety, and that 30 years since and more the weir had been broken and carried away by flood, but a certain portion of the timber thereof remained; a dispute arose between the Abbot of Flexleye and the Abbot of Parsore, lord of the other moiety, as to the repair thereof, the issue being that the weir remained unrepaired. And 3 years before the date of the said inquisition, when the said Abbots were willing to do the repairs, Mathias Berille, then constable of Gloucester Castle, would not suffer them to do so, because he had never seen a weir there in his time, and therefore he thought that, if the weir were repaired, it would be to the damage of the said King Henry and to the injury of his weirs in the said water, then in the custody of the said constable, to the amount of 2s. yearly. The said King, being desirous of assisting the said Abbot of Flexleye, and of doing him a grace in this behalf, by letters patent granted that the said Abbot should have his moiety of the weir again, and should repair the same at his pleasure, paying a yearly rent of 12d. into the King's exchequer at Michaelmas. The present King confirmed these letters patent 28th October, 30 Edward III [1356]. Now the Abbot of Flexleye represents that the better part of the maintenance of himself and his convent used to be derived from the said weir, and that he is forcibly prevented by certain men of those parts from repairing his said moiety of the weir as strongly and with as narrow apertures and spaces between the rods and pales of the weir as is the case with the weirs belonging to Henry Duke of Lancaster, Gilbert Talbot, the Abbot of Gloucester, and John Gyse in the said water, so that he cannot take the profit he used to do therefrom, to the great damage of the Abbey, which is of the foundation of the King's ancestors, and in the patronage of the Crown. The King, wishing to do justice in the matter, directs an inquiry to be made as to the size of the apertures in the other weirs abovesaid, as to the persons hindering the repairs, etc., etc.

Inquisition taken at Westbury next Newenham on Wednesday, the Feast of St. James the Apostle, 32 Edward III [1358], before the said commissioners, by the oath of Lawrence Greyndor, Thomas Viel, Thomas Chaxhulle, John Dauyes [?], William Clerkes, Robert le Graunt, Richard Osebarn, John de Staure, John Billyng, John Hemmyng, Henry Bourghull, and John Warde, who say that

The weirs of the Duke of Lancaster, Gilbert Talbot, the Abbot of Gloucester, and John Gyse are so strongly and straitly built that there is no space between the rods, and that William Baghot the elder, William Adames, John Tauerner, John Hogges of Dunye, John Hichemon, Henry Wattes, John Phelpus, Robert Saundres, Richard Clarice, Walter Muleward of Dunye, Richard Caul, Roger Hayl, William Jakkes, Walter Hopkyns, William Monlayn, John Whyte the younger, of Fremelode, and William Whitekyt cut down the weir of Hynewere to the damage of the Abbey in 20 marks. Also they say that, if the said weir were repaired as strongly and straitly as the other weirs abovesaid, it would be no damage to the King or any other, provided the King had 2s. a year for the whole weir from the said two Abbots, as is contained in the charter of Henry III.
